They were seemingly on their way to living the American dream after leaving the Philippines. They made an honest living, raised children with strong values, and created a better life for the family. But they had to confront an unthinkable challenge when their second daughter, Melissa, was diagnosed with acute lymphocytic leukemia. The family would witness Melissa's excruciating treatment before she lost her battle at age twelve. In this memoir, the author chronicles his life from his humble beginnings growing up in the province of Bulacan, Philippines, falling in love, and immigrating to the United States. At its core, however, the book is about his beloved daughter and includes snippets from her personal diary. Woven throughout the story are the author's reflections as well as Melissa's poignant poems and heartbreaking last writings. Within twelve short years, Melissa was able to teach others life lessons that highlighted the value of being kind, selfless, and loving. She was also able to find self-fulfillment, which enabled her to courageously and confidently express her willingness to join her Creator. Having had more than thirty years to reflect on her life, her father tells her story as well as his. Blessed Minds Sarah Griffith Lund, 2025-03-24.

Is your church truly welcoming to all of God's children? Many churches are unintentionally exclusive toward people whose brains work differently. Blessed Minds: Breaking the Silence About Neurodiversity helps churches embrace the gifts of neurodiversity and become a place of belonging for all. In this book, you will learn what neurodiversity is and isn't, how to create a neuroinclusive worship experience, practical tips for welcoming neurodivergent families, theological insights into neurodiversity as part of God's good creation, stories of neurodivergent ministers and their callings. On Cassette, 1990.

Contemplative Gardening Pamela Dolan, 2022-04-19. An enchanting guide for turning the art of gardening into opportunities for reflection and meditation. Contemplative Gardening makes the connection between tending to the earth and tending to our own souls, between caring for the planet and caring for one another. Disturbing the Dark Wendy Hornsby, 2016-03-15. Maggie MacGowen, an investigative filmmaker, is in Normandy with a film crew to document the agricultural four seasons on her ancestral family farm. An accidentally excavated skull causes a social media sensation, dredging up psychic scars left by the wartime German Occupation. In their youth, Grandmere and other villagers had cut the throats of an entire brutal Nazi platoon. Now the grim discovery prompts tourists, the soldiers' descendants, the mass media, and vulturelike war memorabilia dealers to flock to the formerly quiet farm. Then a young woman is murdered. Forum, 2003.

BLUE BLOOD E. R. Ramdohr, 2024-12-27. On a large farm located in the Andean foothills in the mid-south of Chile, Conrado was born and raised as a child, and later a young man whose physical and psychological characteristics differ greatly from the rest of his family and the school community. He is Germanic in appearance: blond, blue-eyed, and very tall, unlike the others whose features are those of Chileans and their Mapuche ancestors. What in his early years was painful for him due to the bullying he was subjected to at school ends up transforming into an obsession to understand where his Nordic genes come from He discovers in an old trunk which had belonged to his great great grandmother Frederika who had arrived from Europe at the end of the 19th century the first clues about his origin Already fully involved in the knowledge of his family s past he forges a life plan which includes the university study of German and History in order to reach the very source of the strange secret which is revealed through letters and documents from his great grandfather Ladislao Eguiguren Montalva who had been a member of the Chilean elite in those distant times Little by little the hidden facets of the arrival of his great great grandmother to a place so far from her native country are discovered In his exhaustive investigation Conrado even goes so far as to travel to Europe to recognize the place of origin of his German family and chance takes him first to the Mediterranean coast where he meets the youth of the still existing rancid nobility and in the midst of them his Swiss Italian cousin who not only facilitates his family research but also gives him her support against his father the Duke of Starkenbach who flatly refuses to accept the upstart as a member of his ancestral family With her he arrives at the family s ancestral castle in the middle of the Swiss Alps where a past of almost pathological loves and a sordid family drama are revealed in which the young man is involved body and soul To make matters better the two young people end up falling in love and Conrad manages to free Elisabetta from her life full of excesses as part of that European aristocratic youth You ll find here a deeply evocative exploration of the ways in which personal and familial identities are shaped by history culture and memory Through its richly developed characters vivid settings and poignant themes the novel invites readers to reflect on the legacies we inherit and the choices we make in preserving or redefining them Ramdohr s work stands as a testament to the power of storytelling in bridging the past and the present offering a narrative that is as universal in its emotional resonance as it is uniquely grounded in its cultural context America ,1954 The Jesuit review of faith and culture Nov 13 2017
