Tapestry of Memory Nanci Adler, Selma Leydesdorff, 2013-08-20 In this volume contributors present narratives and explore the way they influence the perception of the past While acknowledging the debate about the validity of qualitative research based on narratives this volume aims to illuminate how truth and evidence form part of a much wider debate on the representation of history The volume includes the work of historians but the interdisciplinary nature of the contributions shows that the validity debate also applies to the broader fields of cultural studies sociology and other social sciences The distinction between memory and testimony is a crucial theme Memory though selective is the basis of testimony Testimony provides an audience with information that becomes evidence of what was seen or experienced Such evidence can form the basis of legal truth Nanci Adler and Selma Leydesdorff divide the volume into three core sections Official Testimony and Other Facts and Evidence The Creation of New History and the Integration of Collective Memory in the Story of One's Self and Claims Based on Narratives vs Official History After a comprehensive introduction by the editors the volume offers twelve essays by leading scholars This work is a new offering in Transaction's acclaimed Memory and Narrative series

honouring the 55th year of celebrating Jamaica's independence and the tantalizing trip down memory lane with this unofficial reference resource guide by your side You will recollect who is who people where is where places and what is what things in both the Jamaican and the Diaspora Global context Fred Trueman Chris Waters,2011-10-01 Fred Trueman was so much more than a cricketing legend The greatest living Yorkshireman according to Prime Minister Harold Wilson he couldn't help excelling at everything he did whether it was as a hostile fast bowler for Yorkshire and England and the first man to take 300 Test wickets in a career or as a fearlessly outspoken radio summariser for Test Match Special He was famous for regularly spluttering that I don't know what's going off out there as well as for the amount of swearing he managed to incorporate into everyday speech Beloved of cricket crowds who filled grounds to witness his belligerent way of playing the game and nothing but trouble to the cricket authorities Fiery Fred was the epitome of a full-blooded Englishman But as Chris Waters reveals in this first full biography behind the charismatic exuberant mask lay a far less self-assured man terrified even that his new dog wouldn't like him and whose bucolic version of his upbringing bore no relation to the gritty and impoverished South Yorkshire mining community where he actually grew up Drawing on dozens of new interviews with his Yorkshire colleagues family and friends this life of Fred Trueman will surprise and even shock but also confirm the status of an English folk hero

It's Not Banter, It's Racism Azeem Rafiq,2024-06-13 This is the story of how one cricketer in Yorkshire started a nationwide conversation putting a spotlight on a society riddled with bias LONGLISTED FOR THE WILLIAM HILL SPORTS BOOK OF THE YEAR 2024 SHORTLISTED FOR THE CHARLES TYRWHITT SPORTS BOOK AWARDS CRICKET BOOK OF THE YEAR 2025 Green grass blue skies white flannels and the gentle thwack of leather on willow the quintessential image of Englishness that heralds the start of the cricket season A so-called gentleman's game developed with the principle of fair play at its heart All well and true unless you're a person of colour living in Britain today Azeem Rafiq the former Yorkshire cricketer and England youth captain learnt this the hard way When on 16 November 2021 Azeem stood up and courageously spoke out about his experiences of racism at Yorkshire County Cricket Club he was coolly dismissed told that it was friendly banter and that he was a troublemaker The case blew up and millions of people voiced their support for Azeem It's Not Banter It's Racism will provide a bracing look at the moments that led up to and defined the watershed meeting where Azeem shared his truth As well as interviewing key figures involved in the case Azeem illustrates how the continual denial of racism is sending us backwards as a society and how pervasive polarisation has become It is with great sensitivity and determination that Azeem will also unpack his own biases while also building forgiveness and understanding with the communities he has impacted Giving voice to the voiceless Azeem's book stands for accountability and honesty in a world that would prefer to cancel and silence The Cricket's Song, and Other Melodies Horace Everett Warner,1907 BBC Sport in Black and White Richard Haynes,2016-11-17 This book provides the first detailed account of the formative decades of BBC televised sport when it launched its flagship programmes Sportsview Grandstand and Match of the Day Based on extensive archival research in the BBC's written archives and interviews with leading producers, editors and commentators of the period, it provides a behind-the-scenes narrative history of this major institution of British cultural life. In 2016 the BBC celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of its television coverage of England's World Cup victory. Their coverage produced one of the most oft-played moments in the history of television: Kenneth Wolstenholme's famous line, 'Some people are on the pitch, they think it's all over, it is now as Geoff Hurst scored England's fourth goal, securing England's 4-2 victory.' It was a landmark in English football as well as a watershed in the BBC's highly professionalised approach to televised sport. How the BBC reached this peak of television expertise and who was behind their success in developing the techniques of televised sport is the focus of this book.

David Sheppard: Batting for the Poor Andrew Bradstock, 2019-11-21 Sheppard first came to prominence as a cricketer in the 1950s. An opening batsman, he was selected for England while still at Cambridge and later captained his country. In the 1960s Sheppard was a leading figure in the campaign to sever sporting links with South Africa, a crucial factor in the ending of apartheid. Converted in his first year at Cambridge, Sheppard was ordained into the Church of England in 1955. His curacy in Islington gave him a passion to serve the church in the inner city, a calling he fulfilled as warden for twelve years of the Mayflower Centre in Canning Town. Following his appointment as Bishop of Woolwich in 1969, he published a major text about his work in urban areas, Built as a City. David Sheppard made his biggest mark as Bishop of Liverpool from 1975-97, forging a pioneering partnership with Archbishop Derek Worlock, his Roman Catholic counterpart. For twenty years the two worked tirelessly to revive the fortunes of the city, helping to break down its many internal divisions. In 1991 Sheppard was seriously considered for Archbishop of Canterbury following Robert Runcie's retirement. In 1997 Sheppard was awarded a life peerage and played an active role in the Lords and as a writer, speaker and preacher until his death in 2005. This biography draws on the papers left by Sheppard in Liverpool Central Library, other archival material and more than 150 interviews conducted by the author.

The Cricket's Serenade Carolita Blythe, 2006 Souci Alexander, a poor young woman from the mountainous interior of Jamaica, agrees to a platonic marriage to Lewis Montrose, a politician who needs her to further his career and his chances at winning the election. Bradman's Band Ashley Alexander Mallett, 2000 Don Bradman is the Eternal Flame of cricket. As the greatest batsman of them all, Bradman consumed bowlers like a firestorm. Such a fabled and long career cast an immense shadow over Bradman's peers and opponents alike. Their stories are gathered here to make up Bradman's Band, the cricket legends who played alongside or against him in the Test arena. Among them are Larwood, Miller, Compton, Hutton, Headley, Allen, O'Reilly, Mailey and Kippax. Author Ashley Mallett skilfully rekindles the Bodyline-Ashes conflict and the great religious divide of the 1930s. His description of the vendettas and jealousies among Bradman's peers are fascinating reflections on the players and the game. Bringing us closer to home is a profile of what The

Don describes as his greatest partnership his sixty five year marriage to Jessie Bradman The is a fascinating story of the cricket legends in Bradman s Band Democracy's XI Rajdeep Sardesai,2017-10 Bestselling author and journalist Rajdeep Sardesai narrates the story of post Independence cricket through the lives of 11 extraordinary Indian cricketers who portray different dimensions of this change from Dilip Sardesai and Tiger Pataudi in the 1950s to Mahendra Singh Dhoni and Virat Kohli today I Accuse... Jarnail Singh,2011-10-19 If people have lost their lives in a storm it is a different matter but how can a massacre be forgotten Especially when there s been no justice The three days of 1984 when over 3000 Sikhs were slaughtered have indelibly marked the lives of thousands more who continue to exist in a twilight of bitterness and despair It was outrage at this state of affairs that led Jarnail Singh an unassuming law abiding journalist to throw his shoe at Home Minister P Chidambaram during a press conference in New Delhi He readily acknowledges that this was not an appropriate means of protest but asks why twenty seven years after the massacres so little has been done to address the issues that are still unresolved and a source of anguish to the whole community I Accuse is a powerful and passionate indictment of the state s response to the killings of 1984 By exploring the chain of events the survivors stories and the continuing shadow it casts over their lives Singh seeks answers to some relevant questions Who initiated the pogrom and why Why did the state apparatus allow it to happen Why despite the many commissions and committees set up to investigate the events have the perpetrators not been brought to book Because finally 1984 was not an attack on the Sikh community alone it was an attack on the idea at the very core of democracy that every citizen irrespective of faith and community has a right to life security and justice Shadows Over Sundials C.
