New Crusades Constructing The Muslim Enemy:

The New Crusades Emran Qureshi, Michael Anthony Sells, 2003 In these essays twelve of the most influential thinkers in Middle Eastern and religious studies examine the idea of an emergent Cold War between Islam and the West and fears of an ongoing clash of civilizations Cover 4

At War with Metaphor Erin Steuter, Deborah Wills, 2009-07-15 When photographs documenting the torture and humiliation of prisoners at Abu Ghraib came to the attention of a horrified public national and international voices were raised in shock asking how this happened At War with Metaphor offers an answer arguing that the abuses of Abu Ghraib were part of a systemic continuum of dehumanization This continuum has its roots in our public discussions of the war on terror and the metaphors through which they are repeatedly framed Arguing earnestly and incisively that these metaphors if left unexamined bind us into a cycle of violence that will only be intensified by a responsive violence of metaphor Steuter and Wills examine compelling examples of the images of animal insect and disease that inform shape and limit our understanding of the war on terror Tying these images to historical and contemporary uses of propaganda through a readable accessible analysis of media filters At War with Metaphor vividly explores how news media including political cartoons and talk radio are enmeshed in these damaging dehumanizing metaphors Analyzing media through the lenses of race and Orientalism it invites us to hold our media and ourselves accountable for the choices we make in talking war and making enemies

The Essence of Islamist Extremism Irm Haleem, 2011-11-23 This book provides a conceptual analysis of Islamist extremism and examines radical Islamist rhetoric and various extremist groups Engaging in a conceptual analysis of Islamist extremism that focuses on the what is and not the why of Islamist extremism the book extends the traditional parameters of analysis from context specific and temporally confined causal analyses to a broader conceptual analysis relevant to the many different temporal and geo political contexts of Islamist extremist groups

The Digital Social Alpha Possamai-Inesedy, Alan Nixon, 2019-12-02 The edited volume aims to present a critical analysis of the current state of research on religion and belief systems in the realm of the Digital Social The rapid expansion and democratization of digital technologies in conjunction with the significant shifts taking place within the practices of religion and belief through digital technology demand a critical examination across the social sciences and humanities These changes call for an overview of not only our current methodological tool box but also the epistemological and ethical considerations that researchers must contend with The proposed volume provides a critical framework that recognizes that the social and therefore the religious cannot be fully understood without recognizing how the digital world actively constitutes notions such as identity social networks embodiment and social institutions While some specific methods will be discussed the volume's emphasis remains on the critical epistemological and logistical considerations that are needed when undertaking this form of research

Insurgent Aesthetics Ronak K. Kapadia, 2019-10-25 In Insurgent Aesthetics Ronak K Kapadia theorizes the world making power of contemporary art responses to US militarism in the Greater Middle East He traces how new forms of remote killing torture confinement and surveillance have created a distinctive post 9 11 infrastructure of racialized state violence Linking these new forms of violence to the history of American imperialism and conquest Kapadia shows how Arab Muslim and South Asian diasporic multimedia artists force a reckoning with the US war on terror's violent destruction and its impacts on immigrant and refugee communities Drawing on an eclectic range of visual installation and performance works Kapadia reveals queer feminist decolonial critiques of the US security state that visualize subjugated histories of US militarism and make palpable what he terms the sensorial life of empire In this way these artists forge new aesthetic and social alliances that sustain critical opposition to the global war machine and create alternative ways of knowing and feeling beyond the forever war

Jerusalem Falls John D. Hosler, 2022-01-01 The first full account of the medieval struggle for Jerusalem from the seventh to the thirteenth century The history of Jerusalem is one of conflict faith and empire Few cities have been attacked as often and as savagely This was no less true in the Middle Ages From the Persian sack in 614 through the bloody First Crusade and beyond Jerusalem changed hands countless times But despite these horrific acts of violence its story during this period is also one of interfaith tolerance and accord In this gripping history John D Hosler explores the great clashes and delicate settlements of medieval Jerusalem He examines the city's many sieges and considers the experiences of its inhabitants of all faiths The city's conquerors consistently acknowledged and reinforced the rights of those religious minorities over which they ruled Deeply researched this account reveals the way in which Jerusalem's past has been constructed on partial histories and urges us to reckon with the city's broader historical contours
