New Era Of Home Based Work Directions And Policies:

The New Era Of Home-based Work Kathleen Christensen, 2019-07-11 This book focuses on the causes and consequences of paid white collar work in the home including work that is professional managerial clerical technical and sales It is directed to audiences concerned with both the policy issues and the research challenges reused by working at home

Home-Based Employment and Family Life Ramona Z. Heck, Alma J. Owen, Barbara R. Rowe, 1995-04-25 This book is about families who combine home life and income producing work under the same roof Based on 899 homeworking households in nine states the analysis presents detailed information about individual worker and household characteristics work characteristics for both business owners and wage workers family functioning types management behavior and adjustment strategies used in family life the community context and the home based employment experience over an extended period of time This is the first publication of a serious longitudinal study of the phenomenon of working from home with historical considerations of how and why so many people are choosing this option It points to the significantly positive impact at home workers are having on their families their neighborhoods and their communities

Homeworking Women Annie Phizacklea Carol Wolkowitz, Professor Annie Phizacklea, Dr Carol Wolkowitz, 1995-02-02 An up to date overview of all types of home based work is provided in this volume which makes an important contribution to sociological and policy debates on homeworking The authors argue that homeworking replicates wider divisions in the labour force and that its potential for improving women s employment opportunities is therefore limited Using original research they outline the advantages and disadvantages the pay and conditions and the family situations for contemporary women homeworkers Gender class racism and ethnicity are shown to be key factors in constructing the homeworking labour force The authors acknowledge the shared position that homeworkers occupy as women as well as the differences experienced by clerical manufacturing and professional homeworkers and question whether new technology in itself can be the way forward to a better paid less onerous form of homeworking

Compliance Costs and Regulatory Burden Imposed by the Federal Tax Laws United States. Congress. House. Committee on Ways and Means. Subcommittee on Oversight, 1995 Distributed to some depository libraries in microfiche

No Place Like Home David Staples, 2007-11-21 No Place Like Home examines the emergence of home based women workers as paradigmatic figures of contemporary capitalism neoliberal governmentality and socio political contestation Far from an isolated or contingent situation home based work constitutes today an enormous arena of invisible social and political struggles of subaltern and ethno racially subordinated women

The Global Construction of Gender Elisabeth Prügl, 1999 Proposing an innovative conception of global politics by de emphasizing state actors and instead analyzing competing transnational discourses The Global Construction of Gender focuses specifically on people who work at home for pay Prügl explores the debates and rhetoric surrounding home based workers that have taken place in global movements and multilateral organizations since the early 1900s in order to trace changing conceptions of gender over the course of this century Homeworkers in Global Perspective Eileen Boris, Lisa Prugl, 2016-01-28

Homeworkers in Global Perspective documents the lives of homeworkers exploring state policies towards them and describing the innovative ways in which homeworkers organize Moving away from well known already explored cases the essays focus on less known but equally compelling examples organize and covers the major geographic regions of the world and illustrates the diversity of home based work and homeworker organizing Putting Work in Its Place Peter Meiksins, Peter Whalley, 2018-09-05 Most books on the subject of work focus on the increased amount of time Americans spend on the job Peter Meiksins and Peter Whalley address the counter trend examining the difficult path traversed by people who choose to work less than the standard forty hour week Their fascinating investigation of alternative work arrangements speaks directly to the concerns of all workers who must balance career with other commitments Through interviews with technical professionals from a wide range of employment settings Putting Work in Its Place refutes the popular myth of the customized work schedule as inevitably a mommy track or a return to traditionalism among women Most of these workers male and female young and old remain strongly committed to their jobs but wish to combine work with other activities they value just as highly This can mean family for some but for others encompasses community service or various avocations By viewing their work arrangements in the longer term and not as short term expedients these professionals are challenging the accepted view of time requirements for careers in organizations They are also helping to shape a new agenda for the future of the workplace to transform their individual successes into a normal practice of customized work time In Work, At Home Alan Felstead, Nick Jewson, 2002-01-04 More and more people are choosing to earn a living at home In Work At Home explores the meaning and experience of this type of employment by covering a wide range of issues including social relationships current research methodologies statistical analyses of global labour markets the emotional and psychological processes of self management home relations Presenting statistical analyses of labour markets in North America Europe Asia and Australia In Work At Home provides a valuable introduction to the issues and debates surrounding homeworking and will appeal to students across a range of disciplines including sociology business studies and women s studies Color, Class & Country Gay Young, Bette Dickerson, 1994 On gender race and class
