New Images of Man (Classic Reprint) Peter Selz, 2016-10-23 Excerpt from New Images of Man Again in this generation a number of painters and sculptors courageously aware of a time of dre found articulate expression for the wounds of existence This voice may dance and yell like a madman Jean Dubuffet like the drunken ute playing maenads of Phrygia The revelations and complexities of mid twentieth century life have called forth a profound feeling of solitude and anxiety The imagery of man which has evolved from this reveals sometimes a new dignity sometimes despair but always the uniqueness of man as he confronts his fate Like Kierkegaard Heidegger Camus these artists are aware Of anguish and dread of life in which man precarious and vulnerable confronts the precipice is aware of dying as well as living Their response is often deeply human without making use of recognizable human imagery It is found for instance in Mark Rothko s expansive ominous surfaces of silent contemplation or in Jackson Pollock s wildly intensive act Of vociferous affirmation with its total commitment by the artist In the case of the painters and sculptors discussed here however a new human imagery unique to our century has been evolved Like the more abstract artists of the period these imagists take the human situation indeed the human predicament rather than formal structure as their starting point Existence rather than essence is of the greatest concern to them About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works The Humanistic View of Man Jaideep Singh, 2023-11-29 The Humanistic View of Man is a scientific study designed to achieve a deeper comprehension of human phenomena The views of man held by the following five leading contemporary humanistic psychologists Hubert Bonner James Bugental Erich Fromm Abraham Maslow and Rollo May have been analyzed and synthesized Comments on the synthesis have then been obtained from Jacob Bronowski a leading natural scientist His essay A Twentieth Century Image of Man provides further insight into his viewpoint The study concludes with a discussion that highlights the distinctive uniqueness of the view of man held by the selected humanistic psychologists and points to the deeper inner powers that we must use to guide and energize us in our pursuit of a richer manifestation of our unlimited human wealth A Broken Beauty Theodore L. Prescott, 2005 A Broken Beauty examines recent ideas about beauty and the human image in light of the Western Classical and Christian traditions of the human figure The book s five essays trace the historical fusion of Classical and Christian ideas about beauty as well as their rejection by much modern art provocatively suggesting that the difficulties encountered by the beautiful in modernity may be related to a loss of faith This volume culminates in a look at fifteen postmodern North American artists whose haunting pieces unite brokenness and beauty in a way that is uncommon within contemporary art These artists like the book s essayists find significance in beauty that is cultivated amidst the perennial human struggle for goodness meaning and dignity
