This volume in the Public Solutions Handbook Series focuses on various e-government initiatives from the United States and abroad and will help guide public service practitioners in their transformation to e-government. The book provides important recommendations and suggestions oriented towards practitioners and makes a significant contribution to e-government by showcasing successful models and highlighting the lessons learned in the implementation processes. Chapter coverage includes Online fiscal transparency, Performance reporting, Improving citizen participation, Privacy issues in e-governance, Internet voting, E-government at the local level. Multinational Corporations and the Emerging Network Economy in Asia and the Pacific Juan J.

Palacios, 2008-03-25 Multinational Corporations and the Emerging Network Economy in Asia and the Pacific delves into the ongoing rise of a global economy anchored in a web of inter-firm production networks and the role played by multinational corporations in the process. It considers the strategies and business models corporations have adopted lately to face today's highly competitive global markets, especially outsourcing and offshoring, focusing on the modalities observed in Asia Pacific and the Pacific Rim at large. Since their inception, corporations have undergone a series of fundamental changes, each corresponding to a given era of industrial development and has given rise to a particular type of government policy response. The book addresses these timely issues and others such as the transformation of global production networks into global innovation networks, the link between corporate and national innovation strategies and movement up the global production value chain and the fragmentation of production and the resulting increase in component and sub-assembly trade in the region. It also takes up the emergence of multinational corporations from developing countries and the efforts aimed at forging basic rules of corporate social responsibility and developing sound institutions for building a working framework of corporate governance in the Pacific. Written by some of the region's most eminent and influential economists and political scientists, this volume will appeal to students and scholars working in the field of Asia Pacific studies as well as to businesspersons and policymakers taking decisions in the region. Lessons from Russia Lee Marsden, 2018-10-08 Lee Marsden presents one of the most original and comprehensive analyses of US democracy promotion in Russia and argues that in order to understand the failings of democracy assistance in Russia it is necessary to understand the inter relation of macro and micro level policy. The book introduces two new models of foreign policy analysis which increase understanding of both the formulation and implementation of foreign policy. Furthermore it demonstrates how the promotion of democracy in Russia was substantially flawed due to implementation and the US foreign policy process.

Rod Bush: Lessons from a Radical Black Scholar on Liberation, Love, and Justice Melanie E. L. Bush, Rose M. Brewer, Daniel Douglas, Loretta Chin, Robert Newby, 2019-11-01 Editor Melanie E L Bush Foreword Robin D G Kelley Co editors Rose M Brewer Daniel Douglas Loretta Chin Robert Newby Series Editor Mohammad H Tamdgidi Roderick Douglas Bush 1945-2013 was a scholar educator mentor activist and a loving human being. In reflecting on his life well lived the contributors in Rod Bush: Lessons from a Radical Black Scholar on Liberation Love and Justice share insightful lessons from his life and works on how to effect liberation and radical social transformation in the everyday practices of scholarship teaching activism and personal interaction through a loving spirit dedicated to social justice. Rod Bush was deeply convinced that Pan European racism is the Achilles heel of the modern world system and the demographic situation of the United States with its large strategically located populations of color is a key locus of struggle for a more just democratic and egalitarian world order. This book shows by the example of Rod Bush how one can be the change through a commitment to everyday practices and personal transformations that embody enable embrace and engage global social change. This anthology provides deep reflections on the question of how one can live radical principles in contemporary times. What does it mean to be human? How does one embed love and justice in one's worldview and daily practice? Rod Bush partner colleague teacher mentor comrade and friend was well known as an activist scholar who incorporated his values into his teaching mentorship and everyday interactions. Therefore his theoretical interests and practical involvements in movements are intimately linked and simultaneous. In his foreword Robin D G Kelley shares his intimate views of Rod Bush's life and works. In his view Rod's commitment to study and struggle in the service of human liberation knew no boundaries. His vision was planetary. He wrote critically and brilliantly about Black radical movements here and abroad and about the destructive power of racism colonialism capitalism the modern world system all with the goal of transforming a society based on exploitation subjugation and war into a society rooted in mutual benefit life and love. At a historical moment when the political landscape is fraught with volatility and the Movement for Black Lives and other struggles for dignity and justice gain increasing momentum Rod's life serves as an example providing many lessons that we can draw from and practice ourselves. Rod consistently asserted that it is critical to recognize the historical leadership of those involved in struggles for Black Liberation and justice writ large. For a vision for Black Lives is indeed a vision that benefits all humanity. The anthology is edited by Melanie E L Bush and co edited by Rose M Brewer Daniel Douglas Loretta Chin and Robert Newby.
