New Directions For Institutional Research 124 Winter 2004:

Unique Campus Contexts Insights for Research and Assessment Jason E. Lane, M. Christopher Brown, II, 2004 This volume summarizes what we know about professional schools transnational campuses proprietary schools religious institutions and corporate universities As the fabric of higher education becomes more complex and as students take advantage of these specialized educational environments conducting meaningful and relevant research becomes a challenge The volume authors argue for the importance of educational context and debunk the one size fits all approach to assessment and evaluation Each chapter examines the critical areas in need of attention and the implications for institutional research and outcomes assessment Those approaching the challenge of research and policy analysis within this collage of diverse institutions and distinctive student populations will find this volume to be a valuable guide This is the 124th issue of the quarterly report New Directions for Institutional Research

Education for Employability (Volume 1) Joy Higgs, Geoffrey Crisp, Will Letts, 2019-03-25 Universities are expected to produce employable graduates In Education for Employability experts explore critical questions in the employability agenda Who sets the standards and expectations of employability How do students monitor their own employability How can universities design whole curricula and university environments that promote employability What teaching and learning strategies facilitate the development of employability Responsibility for developing and sustaining employability lies with a broad coalition of the individual students the university alumni the professions and industry and is accomplished through the intended curriculum as well as co curricular extra curricular and supra curricular activities events and learning opportunities

The Quest for Meaning and Wholeness: Spiritual and Religious Connections in the Lives of College Faculty Jennifer A. Lindholm, 2013-12-24 An insightful scholarly resource for dialogue about the symbiotic relationship between the life of the mind and the life of the heart of faculty and what faculty can do to provide students an education that focuses on meaning and purpose Larry A Braskamp professor emeritus Loyola University Chicago Among the strengths of this book are Lindholm s solid research design and data analysis deft integration of quantitative and qualitative data in presentation of findings and interpretation and clear writing Dr Lindholm makes an important contribution both to higher education literature on faculty and to religious studies literature on this dimension of religion and spirituality in colleges and universities Michael D Waggoner professor University of Northern Iowa editor Religion coauthor of Rethinking Faculty Work Higher Education s Strategic Imperative At last a book for faculty about faculty on an important but long neglected topic Jennifer Lindholm provides a cogent readable analysis of how faculty view spirituality and religion not only in their own lives but also their role in higher education Peter C Hill Rosemead School of Psychology Biola University

Implementing the Information Literacy Framework

Dave Harmeyer, Janice J. Baskin, 2018-03-05 Implementing the Information Literacy Framework A Practical Guide for Librarians is written with three types of people in mind librarians classroom educators and students This book and its website address the implementation of the Association of College and Research Libraries Framework of Information Literacy in Higher Education One of the few books written jointly by an academic librarian and a classroom faculty member Implementing the Information Literacy Framework packs dozens of how to ideas and strategies into ten chapters specifically intended for librarians and classroom instructors If you have been waiting for a no nonsense carefully explained yet practical source for implementing the Framework this book is for you your colleagues and your students all in the context of a discipline specific equal collaboration between the library liaison and classroom educator Implementing the Information Literacy Framework gives you the tools and strategies to put into practice a host of Framework based information literacy experiences for students and faculty creating a campus culture that understands and integrates information literacy into its educational mission

Reclaiming the Public University Judith Summerfield, Crystal Benedicks, 2007 To reclaim the public university is to focus our energies on teaching all our students well educating them for a new increasingly complicated age To deliver on this promise we must interrogate the general education we provide for our students for that is the vast unrecognized ground we stand on It is what students and faculty do most in common If we can get educating our students right generally and liberally then we will have laid a claim to what the public university needs to be

Research Ethics in Africa Mariana Kruger, Paul Ndebele, Lyn Horn, 2014-06-01 The aim of this book is to provide research ethics committee members with a resource that focuses on research ethics issues in Africa The authors are currently active in various aspects of research ethics in Africa and the majority have been trained in the past by either the Fogarty International Center or Europe and Developing Countries Clinical Trial Partnership EDCTP sponsored bioethics training programmes

Index Medicus, 2001 Vols for 1963 include as pt 2 of the Jan issue Medical subject headings

Accounting in Politics Mahmoud Ezzamel, Noel Hyndman, Åge Johnsen, Irvine Lapsley, 2008-06-11 This book looks at the effectiveness of the 1999 restructuring of the UK through the establishment of the Scottish Parliament and the Assemblies for Northern Ireland and Wales considering the process of devolution and its consequences on the key mechanisms of accounting and democratic accountability Many of the chapters in this book examine whether devolution is enhancing democratic accountability or creating a fragmentary state with conflict and tensions between the Westminster government and the devolved bodies The focus is on the financial mechanisms for democratic accountability both in the UK and in international comparator countries New Zealand Norway and the US This book examines the turbulent pattern of relationships between central and devolved government and explores whether the present arrangements for devolution in the UK represent an end game or whether they may be merely a stepping stone to a more fully fledged federal state It is argued that the main thrust of many of the financial reforms in the UK has confounded obfuscated and complicated the desire for democratic accountability
