My Mother's Daughter Rona Maynard,2009-02-24 Personal memories of the sort her Chatelaine readers adored a remarkable life story seen through the window of her relationship with her mother Every woman s relationship with her mother is special Yet everyone will recognize some parts of another woman s story especially if it is told as honestly and as sensitively as Rona Maynard tells it here As a little girl Maynard soon came to see that her family was not an ordinary one Her father Max was an artist and an alcoholic Her mother was Fredelle Maynard a brilliant academic who could not get a teaching job because she was a woman Instead she became a writer the author of Raisins and Almonds and above all a driving loving ambitious overpowering mother In her shadow and that of younger sister Joyce who went off at eighteen to live with J D Salinger Rona took time to blossom as a writer and editor in Toronto This book takes us through her career step by step including the miseries of being accused by her son s teachers and her own mother of being a bad mother overly concerned with her own career Rona s strong direct style will ring true for every working woman Through the magic of her writing she gives a clear eyed and affectionate account of her relationship with a demanding loving mother I said to my father You don t live here any more This is Mother s house not yours It s time for you to go My father cursed me He shook his fist Then he left and never came back From My Mother s Daughter

Woman-Defined Motherhood Jane Price Knowles, Ellen Cole,2014-02-04 Finally here is an enlightening and empowering book that defines motherhood from a feminist perspective and then explores the implications of that definition Feminist authors examine some of women s full rich and varied thoughts and experiences about motherhood In contrast to the too often accepted male notions of what constitutes a good mother or a normal family this important book presents a comprehensive and balanced view of motherhood as women have observed and experienced it The major issues surrounding motherhood today are closely examined the pervasive problem of mother blaming and mother hating and solutions to overcome it ageism sexism and motherhood relationships between mothers and daughters relationships between stepmothers and stepchildren motherhood and sex roles within the family adoption infertility and childlessness Special insight is also provided into the concerns of women who are mothers lesbians women of color mothers of biracial children and adoptive mothers of children from different cultures Woman Defined Motherhood is must reading for women including both mothers and daughters for therapists and other professionals supporting women and for anyone interested in mothering Women's Sexuality Across the Life Span Judith C. Daniluk, 2003-06-09 Moving beyond a traditional focus on sexual functioning this book emphasizes the complex interaction of psychological social cultural and biological influences on women's sense of themselves as sexual beings Written for practitioners and educators its goal is to challenge contradictory messages and meanings that cause many women to feel disconnected from their bodies and from their needs and desires Themes explored include the development of sexual awareness and sexuality in childhood and adolescence the critical sexual choices of young adulthood and the multiple transitions characterizing the middle and later years of life The book features creative exercises and interventions to help girls and women construct more affirming sexual meanings Bad Mothers: Regulations, Represetatives and Resistance Hughes Michelle Miller, 2017-03-01 While the image or construct of the good mother has been the focus of many research projects the bad mother as a discursive construct and also mothers who do bad things as complicated agentic social actors have been quite neglected despite the prevalence of the image of the bad mother across late modern societies The few researchers who address this powerful social image point out that bad mothers are culturally identified by what they do yet they are also socially recognized by who they are Mothers become potentially bad when they behave or express opinions that diverge from or challenge social or gender norms or when they deviate from mainstream white middle class heterosexual nondisabled normativity When suspected of being bad mothers women are surveilled and may be disciplined punished or otherwise excluded by various official agents i e legal medical and welfare institutions as well as by their relatives friends and communities Too often women are judged and punished without clear evidence that they are neglecting or abusing their children Frequently they are blamed for the marginal sociocultural context in which they are mothering This anthology presents empirical theoretical and creative works that address the construct of the bad mother and the lived realities of mothers labeled as bad Throughout the volume the editors consider voices and acts of resistance to bad mother constructions demonstrating that mothers across time and across domains have individually and collectively taken a stand against this destructive label Mediating Moms Elizabeth Podnieks, 2012 Women's studies cultural studies You're Grounded Forever . . . But First, Let's Go Shopping Susan Shapiro Barash, 2025-10-16 Susan Shapiro Barash's provocative new book examines the most difficult challenges any woman faces when raising daughters Sample chapters include What color would you like that Prada bag in material indulgence Do you need to be eating that fixations on food and weight Of course you can drink when you re home with me loose boundaries and rules I know she s your friend but underestimating female friendships I ll just say you aren t feeling well making excuses And much more

Horrible Mothers Loïc Bourdeau,2019-12 For too long the main narratives of motherhood have been oppressive and exclusionary frequently ignoring issues of female identity especially regarding those not conforming to traditional female stereotypes Horrible Mothers offers a variety of perspectives for analyzing representations of the mother in francophone literature and film at the turn of the twenty first century in North America including Qu bec Ontario New England and California Contributors reexamine the horrible mother paradigm within a broad range of sociocultural contexts from different locations to broaden the understanding of mothering beyond traditional ideology The selections draw from long established scholarship in women s studies as well as from new developments in queer studies to make sense of and articulate strategies of representation to show how contemporary family models are constantly evolving reshaping and moving away from heteronormative expectations and to reposition mothers as subjects occupying the center of their own narrative rather than as objects The contributors engage narratives of mothering from myriad perspectives referencing the works of writers or filmmakers such as Marguerite Andersen Nelly Arcan Gr goire Chabot Xavier Dolan Nancy Huston and Lucie Joubert

Excess and Embodiment in Contemporary Women's Writing Zeynep Zeren Atayurt,2011-08-01 The obese female body has often been portrayed as the other to the slender body However this process of othering or viewing as different has created a repressive discourse where excess has increasingly come to be studied as a physical abnormality or a signifier of a personality defect in contemporary Western society This book engages with the multifarious re imaginings of the excessive embodiment in contemporary women s writing drawing specifically on the construction of this form of embodiment in the works of Fay Weldon Jeanette Winterson Margaret Atwood Claude Tardat and Judith Moore whose texts offer a distinct literary response to the rigidly homogeneous and limiting representations of fatness while prompting heterogeneous approaches to reading the excessive female embodiment

We Have To Talk Samuel Shem,Janet Surrey,Stephen Bergman,1999-04-23 We have to talk For many men these are the four worst words in the English language especially when they re uttered by a female partner But it doesn t have to be that way argue Samuel Shem and Janet Surrey in their pathbreaking and practical new book Male relational dread that all too familiar reaction set off by women s relational yearnings can be tamed and in its place can emerge true satisfaction for men and women To demonstrate how this is done Shem and Surrey take us behind the scenes of their popular workshops We hear couples speak intimately about anger guilt resentment shame and sex We watch them wrestle collectively with the gender divide in their relationships the deep disconnects or impasses that reflect the vastly different developmental paths men and women have traveled We see couples learn to bridge the poles of dread and yearning to emerge from isolation into mutuality We witness their moments of sadness humor and ultimately discovery Filled with moving stories of real people struggling with real problems We Have to Talk shatters the rules and offers dramatic proof that men and women are not from different planets after all It is certain to be seen as the relationship book for the new millennium The Faces of Intellectual Disability Licia Carlson,2010 The Faces of Intellectual Disability challenges current thinking about cognitive impairment in order to come to terms with what it means to treat people with intellectual disabilities in an ethical manner As she embraces the task of reassessing philosophical views of intellectual disability Licia Carlson shows how we can affirm the dignity and worth of intellectually disabled people by dropping comparisons to nonhuman animals and confronting fears and discomforts about mental impairment Carlson presents a complex history of ideas and notions about cognitive impairment the treatment of intellectually disabled people and social and cultural reactions to them Sensitive and clearly argued this book offers significant new thinking on recent trends in disability studies and philosophy The Story of 'M' SuAndi,2017-02-01 The Story of M is a solo performance that integrates visual projections and poetic language to portray autobiographical stories of racism poverty and sacrifice While sitting in a white screened hospital ward and as slides of family photographs flash all around her SuAndi travels from the multi racial Liverpool of the 1920s to life in Britain in the mid nineties Commissioned by the Institute for Contemporary Arts in 1995 The Story of M has received great critical acclaim in both the United States and Great Britain The Story of M is SuAndi s moving tribute to the life and death of her mother who raised her children in the face of frequent racism 1960s but never let them forget they were of African descent and to be proud of their heritages The Story of M is on the new A levels English Literature syllabus with a Black British list offered by EdExcel Examination Board 2017

Situating Sadness Janet M. Stoppard,Linda M. McMullen,2003-05-01 It is well known that depression occurs more often in women than in men It is the most commonly encountered mental health problem among women and ranks overall as one of the most important women s health problems Researchers have studied depression a great deal yet women s depression has rarely been the primary focus The contexts of women s lives which might contribute to their depression are not often addressed by the mental health establishment which tends to focus on biological factors. Situating Sadness sheds light on the influence of sociocultural factors such as economic distress, child bearing or child care difficulties or feelings of powerlessness which may play a significant role and points to the importance of context for understanding women's depression. Situating Sadness draws on research in the United States and other parts of the world to look at depression through the eyes of women, exploring what being depressed is like in diverse social and cultural circumstances. It demonstrates that understanding depression requires close attention to the social context in which women become depressed.
