

Conclusion

Baum's biography is full of experience in various kinds of activities. During this experience, Baum communicated with different people, often with children, never stopped at what he had achieved, despite all the setbacks, and was a happy person in a happy family. This piece of irrepressible fantasy and activity, a piece of human communication with the world, and a piece of happiness were incorporated into children's fairy tales. An instructive motive and morality can still be found in his works, but now they are presented to children with a share of humor and an atmosphere of kindness, the distinctive qualities of Baum himself.
