threatening condition Lucifer's Hope the Guv James L. Clark, 2002-11-21 Unlike humans Lucifer is ineligible for redemption and therefore doomed to eternal hell Playing on God's sense of fairness Lucifer appeals to the Archangel Michael for a chance to redeem himself by turning a person he corrupted into a paragon of virtue Against his own wishes Michael makes the deal However since moral perfection is impossible for anyone he decrees that Lucifer must attain redemption by seeing that his subject does not break nine of the Ten Commandments politically The agreement is struck and the target of Lucifer's effort will be the corrupt wealthy governor of Kentucky who is gearing up for reelection and is hopelessly paranoid about his opponents Besides engaging in the usual local corruption the Guv worms his way into a deal to bring riverboat gambling to the state Lucifer dispatches an imp disguised as a political consultant to infiltrate the campaign and influence the governor toward political righteousness The imp and the governor's spokeswoman share a romantic attraction which is also resolved in this rollicking metaphysical muckraking of Kentucky politics A Reason for Hope Kristin von

Hope and Feminist Theory Rebecca Coleman, Debra Ferreday, 2013-12-16 Hope is central to marginal politics which speak of desires for equality or simply for a better life Feminism might be characterised as a politics of hope a movement underpinned by a utopian drive for equality This version of hope has been used for example in Barack Obama's phrase the audacity of hope a mobilisation of an affirmative politics which nevertheless implies that we are living in hopeless times Similarly in recent years feminism has seen the production of a prevailing mood of hopelessness around a generational model of progress which is widely imagined to have failed However as a number of feminist theorists have pointed out the temporality of feminism cannot be conceived as straightforwardly linear feminism can only be imagined as having failed if it is understood as a particular set of relations and things This collection grapples with the question of hope how it figures and structures feminist theory as both a movement towards certain goals and as inherently hopeful Questions addressed include Does hope necessarily imply a fantasy of perfectibility a progression to a utopian future Might it also be conceived in other ways as an attachment A lure Does life tend towards hope happiness optimism And if so what are the consequences when hope fails Who decides which hopes are false What is the cost of giving up hope This book was published as a special issue of the Journal for Cultural Research

Morality, Hope and Grief Hansjörg Dilger,Ute Luig,2010-05-01 The HIV AIDS epidemic in sub Saharan Africa has been addressed and perceived predominantly through the broad perspectives of social and economic theories as well as public health and development discourses This volume however focuses on the micro politics of illness treatment and death in order to offer innovative insights into the complex processes that shape individual and community responses to AIDS The contributions describe the dilemmas that families communities and health professionals face and shed new light on the transformation of social and moral orders in African societies which have been increasingly marginalised in the context of global modernity
