Women on the March, 1966 The Concept of Universal Religion in Modern Hindu Thought A. Sharma, 1998-10-19 Hindu thought has undergone a major reconfiguration in the nineteenth and the twentieth centuries in response to its encounter with the forces of modernity A key element in this reconfiguration is the perception of Hinduism itself as a universal religion or as a catalyst promoting the emergence of a universal religion or at the very least as promoting religious universalism This book examines the views of several major Hindu thinkers of this period Swami Vivekananda and Mahatma Gandhi prominent among them on this potent theme of modern Hinduism

Beyond Orientalism Fred Dallmayr, 1996-12-12 Beyond Orientalism explores the confluence of contemporary Western especially Continental philosophy with its focus on otherness and difference and the ongoing process of globalization or the emergence of the global village The basic question raised in the book is What will be the prevailing life form or discourse of the global village Will it be the discourse of Western science industry and metaphysics which under the banner of modernization and development seeks to homogenize the world in its image In Said's work this strategy was labeled Orientalism Or will it be possible to move beyond Orientalism in the direction neither of global uniformity nor radical fragmentation After discussing the broad range of possible modes of cross cultural encounter in a historical perspective the book develops as a preferred option the notion of a deconstructive dialogue or a hermeneutics of difference which respects otherness beyond assimilation This hermeneutics is illustrated in chapters examining several bridge builders between cultures primarily the Indian philosophers Radhakrishnan and J L Mehta and the Indologist Halbfass The remaining chapters are devoted to more concrete social political problems including issues of modernization multiculturalism and the prospects of a globalized democracy which bids farewell to Orientalism and Eurocentrism world from the ancients to the thinkers of our time are at your fingertips Neo-Hindu Views of Christianity Arvind Sharma,2023-09-20 Hindus and Their Christian Bible R. S. Sugirtharajah,2024-02-22 R S Sugirtharajah shows how at the height of European colonialism whilst the colonizers were studying the sacred texts of Hindus Muslims Buddhists Sikhs and Zoroastrians the Hindus were themselves scrutinizing the invader s book the Christian Bible Sugirtharajah examines how these Hindus transformed the Bible into what they deemed fit for and suited to their contexts The result was that the Bible acquired a totally different form and lost its authority as the Book of the Empire Sugirtharajah shows how the resistant subversive and at times antagonistic readings of the Hindus went beyond what the colonizer had intended Sadly what these Hindus made of the Bible went largely unnoticed and was ignored by Western scholarship This volume seeks to rectify this regrettable omission and to place both the Hindu reformers and nationalists attitude to the Bible in their own specific context and to allow them to speak on their own terms rather than reading them with Christian preconception The Hindu reformers covered include figures such as Raja Rammohun Roy Arumuga Navalar Keshub Chunder Sen Swami Vivekananda Ponnambalam Ramanathan M K Gandhi and Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan and nationalists such as Dhirendranath Chowdhary Sita Ram Goel and Ram Swarup The book contains the interpretative context the textual negotiation that went on between these Hindus and the missionaries and orientalist examples of their Hinduization of the Bible and the hermeneutical impact on mainstream biblical interpretation Hindutva as Political Monotheism Anustup Basu,2020-08-17 In Hindutva as Political Monotheism Anustup Basu offers a genealogical study of Hindutva Hindu right wing nationalism to illustrate the significance of Western anthropology and political theory to the idea of India as a Hindu nation Connecting Nazi jurist Carl Schmitt s notion of political theology to traditional theorems of Hindu sovereignty and nationhood Basu demonstrates how Western and Indian theorists subsumed a vast array of polytheistic pantheistic and henotheistic cults featuring millions of gods into a singular edifice of faith Basu exposes the purported Hindu Nation as itself an orientalist vision by analyzing three crucial moments European anthropologists and Indian intellectuals invention of a unified Hinduism during the long nineteenth century Indian ideologues adoption of ethnoreligious nationalism in pursuit of a single Hindu way of life in the twentieth century and the transformations of this project in the era of finance capital Bollywood and new media Arguing that Hindutva aligns with Enlightenment notions of nationalism Basu foregrounds its significance not just to Narendra Modi s right wing anti Muslim government but also to mainstream Indian nationalism and its credo of secularism and tolerance

Faith, Reason, and Beyond Reason Mark J. Boone,2024-07-16 The relationship between faith and reason is multifaceted Faith transcends reason in that it is more than reason alone can contain or fully guarantee yet it is neither unreasonable nor something to which reason is irrelevant and reason says some pretty fine things about it This volume updates nine previously published articles on faith and reason by a Christian philosopher who has been studying these matters for two decades alongside one new essay and a philosophical dialogue These articles explain and integrate key ideas on faith and reason including Alvin Plantinga's account of how Christian belief can be knowledge even without evidence defenses of faith from Augustine and William James accounts of empirical evidence for faith from different world religions the distinction between faith and sight in the New Testament the structure of the evidence for the authority of the Bible the idea that faith transcends reason because some articles of faith are beyond human comprehension even if we have evidence that they are true and the nature of faith as a total commitment beyond what the evidence alone can guarantee
