Conversations with Tom Wolfe Dorothy McInnis Scura, 1990 Literary journalist lowly social historian chronicler of his times and champion of realism are among the many epithets heaped upon Tom Wolfe by himself and his myriad admirers and critics In this collection of interviews spanning his richly productive career Wolfe is seen as a writer imitating no one and riding the crest of each latest wave in contemporary America For more than a quarter of a century he has been the vivid and varied chronicler of our time from the Californian car customizers and Ken Kesey s Merry Pranksters of the sixties to the ambition driven inhabitants of New York City in the eighties His hybrid of reporting and fiction writing has received perhaps more applause than any other literary journalism and his first major work of fiction Bonfire of the Vanities rested at the top of the bestseller lists for more than a year Here is Tom Wolfe talking about the subjects of his eight books about the writers he admires about the discipline of writing about his politics and his disposition to satire and parody As he explains his attempt to show the world life in our times this collection of delightfully witty and informative interviews reveals the insights and the intellect of one of America's brightest and most appealing authors

Cyclopedia of World Authors II Frank Northen Magill,1989 Mathematics and the Aesthetic Nathalie Sinclair,William Higginson,2007-12-28 A majority of the chapters in this book first saw the light of day as talks at a conference organised and held at Queen's University in Kingston Ontario Canada in April 2001 This small invitational meeting tellingly entitled Beauty and the Mathematical Beast brought together a range of academics interested in and committed to exploring connections between mathematics and aesthetics. The enthusiastic response of participants at this gathering encouraged the presenters to expand upon their initial contributions and persuaded the organisers to recruit further chapters in order to bring a greater balance to the whole. The timing of this event was not arbitrary. The preceding decade had seen a resurgence in serious writing dealing with deeper relations between mathematics and science and the beautiful. In many ways we, the editors of this volume, found these contributions to the literature were revisiting and drawing on themes that had been prominent over two thousand five hundred years ago in certain writings of the Pythagoreans. While not intending to offer a historical reappraisal of these ancient thinkers, here we have none the less chosen to invoke this profound interweaving of the mathematical and the aesthetic to which this reputedly secretive philosophical sect was extensively attuned. This book is divided into three sections comprising three chapters each, each with its own short introduction discussing the particular chapters within.

Literary Journalism in the United States of America and Slovenia Sonja Merljak Zdovc, 2008. Slovenia is acquiring some volume of literary journalism written by Slovene journalists and writers. Author Sonja Merljak Zdovc suggests that more Slovene writers should prefer literary journalism because nonfiction is based on truth, facts and data and appeals more to readers interested in real world stories. The honest, precise, profound and sophisticated voice of literary journalism is becoming increasingly good for newspaper circulation as it reaches not just the mind but also the heart of the reader. Thus the world of Slovene journalism should also take a rapid turn towards the stylized literary journalism seen in the United States. There, journalists and writers realize that through literary journalism they could perhaps end a general decline of traditional print media by restoring to readers stories that uncover the universal struggle of the human condition.

BOOK JACKET A Man in Full Tom Wolfe, 2010-04-01. Tom Wolfe's THE BONFIRE OF THE VANITIES defined an era and established Wolfe as our prime fictional chronicler of America at its most outrageous and alive. In his 1 New York Times bestseller and National Book Award finalist A MAN IN FULL, the setting shifts to Atlanta, Georgia, a racially mixed late century boomtown teeming with fresh wealth, avid speculators and worldly wise politicians. Don't miss the star-studded mini-series adaptation of A Man in Full coming soon to Netflix. Big men. Big money. Big games. Big libidos. Big trouble. The protagonist is Charles Croker, once a college football star, now a late middle-aged Atlanta real estate entrepreneur turned conglomerate king whose expansionist ambitions and outsize ego have at last hit up against reality. Charlie has a 28,000-acre quail shooting plantation, a young and demanding second wife and a half-empty office tower with a staggering load of debt. When star running back Fareek Fanon, the pride of one of Atlanta's grimmest slums, is accused of raping an Atlanta blueblood's daughter, the city's delicate racial balance is shattered overnight. Networks of illegal Asian immigrants crisscrossing the continent, daily life behind bars, shady real estate syndicates, cast-off first wives of the corporate elite, the racially charged politics of college sports: Wolfe shows us the disparate worlds of contemporary America with all the
