Sharing the Journey David Yellin,2017-05-12 This wonderful resource from two authors with an infectious enthusiasm for children s literature will help readers select and share quality books for and with young children Specifically focused on infants through the third grade Sharing the Journey contains descriptive book annotations instructive commentary and creative teaching activities tailored for those important years Extensive book lists throughout will help readers build a library of quality children s literature Books representing other cultures are included to help celebrate diversity as well as cultural connection Genre chapters include poetry fantasy and realistic and historical fiction A chapter on informational books demonstrates how young children can be introduced to and learn to enjoy nonfiction Pow-Wow Ishmael Reed,2009-01-27 Using the yardstick that a short story is any fiction under 15 000 words Ishmael Reed with the assistance of Carla Blank has assembled an anthology that reexamines the history of the form across a broader more inclusive spectrum The result is a collection that stretches the boundaries of the American literary landscape including work ranging from animal stories of the Northwest Coast Eyaks to African American folklore to reflections on the American Muslim experience Pow Wow is the sequel to Reed s From Totems to Hip Hop A Multicultural Anthology of Poetry Across the Americas 1900 2002 a volume that included both Tupac Shakur and T S Eliot and was named one of the best poetry anthologies of 2003 by Library Journal Its fiction focused follow up once again demonstrates the broad range of American writing from such stellar names as Langston Hughes Gertrude Stein Russell Banks and Alejandro Murgu to newly discovered writers of all races genders and backgrounds By presenting many different sides to the American story the fiction of these writers challenges official history shatters accepted myths and provides alternatives to mainstream notions of personal and national identity Gathering these voices together Pow Wow offers a fascinating and vital opportunity to traverse the fault lines that separate distinguish and define a nation made of many Americas Grammar for Teachers Andrea DeCapua,2008-01-11 Grammar for Teachers A Guide to American English for Native and Non Native Speakers is a result of my frustrations over many years of teaching graduate level structure courses and not being able to find an appropriate grammar text for the pre and in service teachers enrolled in these classes The students in these courses have represented a variety of teaching backgrounds ESL and EFL teachers native and non nativespeakersof English and mainstreamcontent areateacherswith ESL students in their classes to name a few Some of these students have had a strong knowledge of English grammar but often have difficulties in applying their knowledge to real life discourse Other students exposure has been limited to lessons in correctness and are generally unaware of which language features are central to teaching ESL EFL learners Some students are resistant to taking this course but are required to do so whether to satisfy specific degree requirements for state or professional certification or for other reasons A few students have had some linguistics many not The challenge has been finding a way to convey the essentials of American English grammar clearly to engage students actively in their own learning and understanding of grammar as applicable to ESL EFL learners and to motivate them to undertake perceptive analyses of grammatical elements and structures and of ESL EFL learner needs and difficulties The overall aim of Grammar for Teachers is to make grammar accessible and comprehensible

Rainy River Lives Maggie Wilson, 2009-05-01 Rainy River Lives is the long lost collection of stories of Ojibwe men and women as told by a hitherto unpublished traditional Ojibwe storyteller Maggie Wilson 1879-1940 Wilson lived on the Manitou Rapids Reserve on the Rainy River which flows along the Ontario Minnesota border When anthropologist Ruth Landes arrived at Rainy River to conduct her doctoral research in 1932 Wilson often worked with the young scholar telling her many stories Their relationship continued after Landes returned to Columbia University During the following decades however the letters and stories Wilson had sent Landes which Landes had carefully collected were lost Only recently were they discovered in the basement of the Smithsonian Institution where they had been misfiled with papers of another anthropologist This rich set of narratives takes us inside the intimate world of Ojibwe families at the turn of the twentieth century a time of great upheaval when the Ojibwes were being relocated onto reserves and required by the government to abandon their seasonal migrations and subsistence activities These remarkably detailed stories of ordinary Native people precisely through their everyday character reveal much about Ojibwe cultural beliefs and paint a nuanced ethnographic portrait of Ojibwe life In the distinctive voice of an exceptional and highly creative individual the stories address both the culturally specific world of the Ojibwes and universal human themes of love loss and perseverance

Black Pow-Wow Ted Joans, 1969 Jazz is my religion and surrealism is my point of view Ted Joans was one of the first Beat poets in the Greenwich Village arts scene pioneering a movement that often overlooked his profound contributions His poetry mixes the rhythms of jazz music with hand grenades of truth and his live reading performance style anticipated the spoken word movement Black Pow Wow is a collection of the best of Joans early poetry including such well known poems as Jazz Is My Religion Passed On Blues Homage to a Poet and The Nice Colored Man Many of his poems speak to his friends and contemporaries including Charlie Parker Jack Kerouac Allan Ginsberg Bob Kaufman Salvador Dali Andre Breton and particularly Langston Hughes as well as his extensive travels across the African continent and around the world His avante garde poems also reflect his style as a painter and collage artist call for social protest and denounce racism sexual repression and injustice This groundbreaking collection one of only two mainstream publications Joans produced perfectly captures the pulse of the Beat Generation and the rhythms of blues Our Great Peace Festival and Pow-wow James E. Brown,1869
