

Understanding Weather Through Time

Lesson 3: Bonnie Bess the Weathervane Horse

In this lesson, students review the legend Rainbow Crow and Young Zeus and then travel back in time to Colonial America. Students discuss the research process (presearch, research) and hear how prior knowledge can help you in the research process. Students use the key word "weathervane" to search for a book in Destiny Discover and learn how to locate the book's call number. Students listen to the book Bonnie Bess the Weathervane Horse by Alvin Tresselt to answer the research question: How did people in Colonial America forecast the weather? After reading the story, students learn a brief history of weathervanes and then access their digital book in Book Creator and identify the title, author, and illustrator on the title page. Students add photos to their Book Creator book from the recently added folder in Book Creator.
