

THE THREE WISHES OF JAMIE McRUIN

Enough good to make a man miserable; a beautiful wife; a son who would make the angels of the various hells of hellish. There were the three wishes of the handsome young American, Jamie McRuin, and the more there have he tried to possess of the three.

Full of fantasy, with a hinting of realism here and there, and a good deal of good fun too, this book provides rich and pleasant reading, to the sports and pleasure of the characters, the author has caught the essence of the very things, and the deeper complex emotions, which these who have the book will appreciate particularly.

The Three Wishes of Jamie McRuin is a tale for all men and women who have ever had dreams, chasing in reality, and who have perhaps only for a moment—filled their eyes from the reality of the day in the reality of fantasy.
