The Women of Mexico's Cultural Renaissance Elena Poniatowska, Elizabeth Coonrod Mart  nez, 2023-04-20 This book consists of a collection of essays by Mexican writer Elena Poniatowska in their first English translation and a critical introduction The highly engaging essays explore the lives of seven transformational figures for Mexican feminism This includes Frida Kahlo Maria Izquierdo and Nahui Olin three outstanding artists of the cultural renaissance of the early twentieth century and Nellie Campobello Elena Garro Rosario Castellanos and Pita Amor forerunner writers and poets whose works laid a path for Mexican women writers in the later twentieth century Poniatowska's essays discuss their fervent activity interactions with other prominent figures details and intricacies about their specific works their scandalous and irreverent activities to draw attention to their craft and specific revelations about their lives The extensive critical introduction surveys the early feminist movement and Mexican cultural history explores how Mexico became a more closed society by the mid twentieth century and suggests further reading and films This book will be of interest both to the general reader and to scholars interested in feminist gender studies Mexican literary and cultural studies Latin American women writers the cultural renaissance translation and film studies The Fantastic in the Works of Elena Garro Susan Spagna,1989 Literature and the Writer ,2016-08-09 Literature and the Writer was first conceived with the hope the essays would shed light on several dimensions of the authorial craft It was the hope of the editor that the selected essays would examine not only writers choice of vocabulary but also their deliberate selection of grammatical constructions and word order and their seamless weaving together of plots and imagery Moreover the analyses would also draw attention to how the writing process impacts the development of characters and the formulation of thematic strands in fiction Thus a wide variety of authors are deliberately selected to give the text depth writers of popular fiction as well as modern classics are included and contrasts are established between traditional writers and those who prefer to follow experimental trends Modernists are set against postmodernists absurdists vs realists minority ethnicities vs majority cultures and dominant genders appear in contrast to subordinated ones Clearly the major tenet of the collection is that the writing profession provides an unending dilemma that deserves to be explored in more detail as readers try to determine how authorial voices confuse while simultaneously elucidating their audience how texts are constructed by authors and yet deconstructed by the very words they choose to include how silence functions as inaudible yet audible discourse and how authorial self concept shapes not only itself but is also echoed in the fictional characters writers who appear in the texts Elena Garro Luzelena Gutiérrez de Velasco,2006 Latin American Writers ,1989 Discusses writers of the New World and provides a critical analyses of today s outstanding writers The Shattered Mirror María Elena de Valdés,2010-07-05 Popular images of women in Mexico conveyed through literature and more recently film and television were long restricted to either the stereotypically submissive wife and mother or the demonized fallen woman But new representations of women and their roles in Mexican society have shattered the ideological mirrors that reflected these images This book explores this major change in the literary representation of women in Mexico Mar a Elena de Vald s enters into a selective and hard hitting examination of literary representation in its social context and a contestatory engagement of both the literary text and its place in the social reality of Mexico Some of the topics she considers are Carlos Fuentes and the subversion of the social codes for women the poetic ties between Sor Juana In s de la Cruz and Octavio Paz questions of female identity in the writings of Rosario Castellanos Luisa Josefina Hern ndez Mar a Luisa Puga and Elena Poniatowska the Chicana writing of Sandra Cisneros and the postmodern celebration without reprobation of being a woman in Laura Esquivel s Like Water for Chocolate
