Reflections of a Prairie Daughter Elizabeth Evenson Williams, Jolene Steffen, 1989 South Dakota History, 1993

Mennonite Women in Canada Marlene Epp, 2008 Marlene Epp explores women's roles as prescribed and as lived within the contexts of immigration and settlement household and family church and organizational life work and education and in response to social trends and events She questions how Mennonites dictate women's place within the church family and community and how women collectively and individually actually behave Epp found that in virtually all aspects of women's lives there exists a contradiction between behavioural ideals and practicalities She also found that their responses to dictates about their proper place ranged from acceptance to rebellion and almost always unsettled a clear delineation of their roles Using diaries oral histories church histories genealogies and memoirs Epp has painstakingly pieced together a rich and fascinating story of Canadian Mennonite women that deserves to be read by women and men everywhere Résumé
