Reflections On My Way Home:

Finding My Way Home Reddy Suzwe, 2010-03 I had asked the ultimate question what is Life before and so now my prayers were being answered I was about to find out for myself Never imagined this is how God was going to capture my heart but he did and so the journey begun This provided insight on how God healed my broken heart as he mended and repaired my being At first it felt like I went in for an open heart surgery and I was not on any medication so every single thing that was touched on I really felt it As painful as some of the things done to me in the past felt I came to understand that was the reason why my Lord was there so I chose to allow Him into my life for healing to begin It was in Him to give and so a new heart was provided for me to be able to live pain free As I accepted the gift I was given I felt the heart beat like never before A tear drop rolled down my cheek and I knew I was transformed I came to find out it was new life in me I was coming out a new person a new being who was no longer conformed to the world but renewed enlightened enriched I woke up and realized I was no longer sleeping beauty as I got the awakening To me that was healing from the house of heaven I was now free from heartache no longer day dreaming but living the dream The documentary touches on life experiences and showcases a woman's journey as she worked to free herself from oppression rebuilding her life to make it out of the wilderness alive It turned out to be a journey of a lifetime

Mapping My Way Home Stephanie Urdang, 2017-11-22 Stephanie Urdang was born in Cape Town South Africa into a white Jewish family staunchly opposed to the apartheid regime In 1967 at the age of twenty three no longer able to tolerate the grotesque iniquities and oppression of apartheid she chose exile and emigrated to the United States There she embraced feminism met anti apartheid and solidarity movement activists and encountered a particularly American brand of racial injustice Urdang also met African revolutionaries such as Amilcar Cabral who would influence her return to Africa and her subsequent journalism In 1974 she trekked through the liberation zones of Guinea Bissau during its war of independence in the 1980 s she returned repeatedly to Mozambique and saw how South Africa was fomenting a civil war aimed to destroy the newly independent country From the vantage point of her activism in the United States and from her travels in Africa Urdang tracked and wrote about the slow inexorable demise of apartheid that led to South Africa s first democratic elections when she could finally return home Urdang s memoir maps out her quest for the meaning of home and for the lived reality of revolution with empathy courage and a keen eye for historical and geographic detail This is a personal narrative beautifully told of a journey traveled by an indefatigable exile who while yearning for home continued to question where as a citizen of both South Africa and the United States she belongs My South Africa she writes on her return in 1991 after the release of Nelson Mandela How could I have imagined for one instant that I could return to its beauty and not its pain The Way Home Wayne Watson,1998 As one of the most popular Christian artists of our time Wayne Watson is well known for the moving messages of his music His spiritual sensitivity is reflected in this book of devotionals designed to guide you toward your real home the heart of God Reminiscences in the Life of Elder T.C.
