Reflections from a Village Frank Swinnerton, 1970

Penllyn Village: Lest We Forget E. Gloria Stewart

Jones, 2008-08-15 This book is written especially to honor the residents in a small black community whose time as a totally black community may be ending Not all Black Americans have lived in the urban areas of this country not a better life but different It is hoped that any who read this book would see that the hopes dreams and life styles of many Black Americans are no different than those of other Americans This story is about such people Just beyond the Bethlehem Baptist Church on the corner of Penllyn Blue Bell Pike and Trewellyn Avenue in the village of Penllyn Lower Gwynedd Township in Montgomery County Pennsylvania rests a predominantly black settlement The people who founded the church are the same people who established a firm foundation for the community But there is something more to the church and residents whose presence there dates back 120 years The author's purpose is to document their presence before their rich history is swept away by changing demographics The book's focus is on the black immigrants from Virginia who were recruited from the farmlands of Westmoreland County Virginia to those in Gwynedd and surrounding areas in Pennsylvania There is a brief acknowledgment of the settlement of the Welsh and other Eastern and Southern Europeans as well as the aristocracy who came before Also noted are the ties to the Revolutionary War and structures that could be considered as historic sites still remaining in the village A review of their southern roots was important to understanding the residents success in their new home They had strong ties to their families and skills already gained back home Some came to make enough money to send home to buy the farmland back in Virginia that their forefathers had farmed under the yoke of slavery Some succeeded and returned home Others remained to find work in the mills and estates of the wealthy some were able to start small businesses of their own Their settlement began with a prayer group of nineteen people that met in a home in Springhouse PA in 1885 Told from the perspective of the elders in the community the expanding group had already become a community in faith and spirit if not in residence In 1888 having outgrown their meeting site they established a church in Penllyn Village and the first black resident moved into the village When malicious arson caused that church to burn down they built another For the greater part of 120 years the church was their anchor It is continually illustrated that the early church leadership encouraged them in developing business acumen political savvy and artistic talents Two major land investments established the village as a black community The first was the purchase of a block of land by young black entrepreneurs in the early 1900s It was during that time one sees the development of businesses and self sufficiency that held their community together The second and most challenging occurred in 1947 when they were able to develop what is believed to be the first Black corporation in the state of Pennsylvania in order to buy the Pershing estate The Penllyn Home builders Association Inc sold stock for fifty dollars a share and bought the 40 acre estate As a result 50 more black owned homes were added to the community A discussion of their social and recreational activities from the early 1900s on are what has been observe in American culture throughout that same time span Simple church picnics hometown roller rinks the ice cream parlor the old swimming hole are typical hometown entertainments of decades past There is an array of musical talent of an unusual proportion in such a small population ranging from instrumental and singing to contemporary jazz bands You will note that the residents have never shirked their civic duty Since the 1930s and 1940s and currently they have been actively involved in all aspects of the political spectrum from consis

Decolonizing International Service Learning Michael O'Sullivan,Harry Smaller,2023-04-24 Despite the existence of a robust literature reviewed throughout this text which critiques salvationist models of international Service Learning ISL including literature that advocates deeply reciprocal relationships between global northern sending organizations and global southern host organizations neocolonial models of ISL remain the dominant practice The authors pose an ISL model that puts north south reciprocity at the entre of ISL planning and implementation based on their research and engagement in multiple ISL experiences and importantly from the input of representatives of global southern host organizations at a south south gathering encuentro This constitutes a rupture with the current model that views the host village as an extension of a group

leader's classroom rather it makes the host community a space for difficult learning based on what hosts want their visitors to take home The interruptions of ISL travel represented by COVID constituted an opportunity to consider alternative models despite the awareness of environmental impacts of travel it is likely that ISL trips will resume It is therefore increasingly important that the ISL experience becomes a means of generating solidarity rather than the reinforcement of neocolonial helping imperatives associated with the traditional model

Marriage, Gender and Sex in a Contemporary Chinese Village Sun-Pong Yuen, Pui-Lam Law, Yuk-Ying Ho, Fong-Ying Yu, 2015-07-17 This book explores changing concepts of marriage and gender relationships and attitudes toward sex in a rural Chinese community over the past five decades The book is based on a study of an industrialized peasant village in Guangdong Province from 1994 to 1996 and subsequent visits from 2000 to 2002 According to the authors the rural economic reforms of the 1980s in southern China have challenged and reinforced the deep structure of Chinese familism and this has led to tensions between tradition and modernity The first section of the book explores how attitudes toward marriage and courtship have changed over the past fifty years through personal accounts of three different marriages from different generations In Part II the transition from a traditional to a modern society is discussed from the perspective of several women from different generations The third section focuses on sexual relationships and the growing sex trade in the village Part IV includes updates to the original survey and takes a look at village politics

Handbook of Services Marketing and Management Teresa Swartz, Dawn Iacobucci, 2000 What a rarity to see a who's who of thought leaders on any subject create original material for an anthology It's a real collegial tribute to Teresa A Swartz and Dawn Iacobucci that they have been able to assemble such a treasure of original material including some of the last from our late friend and colleague Eric Langeard on topics important to services marketing and management James Heskett Harvard Business School The Handbook of Services Marketing and Management provides an excellent introduction to the topics and issues that define service marketing today Editors Swartz and Iacobucci have recruited many of the leading names in service research to write the chapters in the book ensuring that the Handbook will be a valuable reference for years to come Roland T Rust Journal of Service Research This Handbook contains an impressive collection of cutting edge contributions that should be of keen interest to service researchers and practitioners It represents some of the best and most recent thinking on a wide range of service topics A Parasuraman University of Miami FL Service business today constitute the largest sector in advanced economies This new Handbook provides a wealth of stimulating ideas and guidelines for improving the quality and effectiveness of service offerings Philip Kotler S C Johnson Son Distinguished Professor of International Marketing Northwestern University Services because of their intangibility variability and perishability call for management and marketing skills of a high order This new Handbook belongs in the working library of managers charged with managing and marketing the service offerings of hotels restaurant chains airlines telecommunications companies entertainment companies professional services firms and countless other services industries

Philip Kotler S C Johnson Son Distinguished Professor of International Marketing Northwestern University Despite the growth in services research and the dominance of services in the world economy no one book has emerged as a comprehensive guide for researchers and professionals until now The Handbook of Services Marketing and Management presents state of the art perspectives in the foundations of services while simultaneously challenging and expanding current services practices Editors Teresa A Swartz and Dawn Iacobucci invited the world s leading experts on services marketing and management to author individual chapters The result is an experienced international eclectic and cross disciplinary mix of authors all contributing cutting edge material on the frontiers of service research This handbook includes a unique mix of both in depth chapters as well as shorter more focused mini chapters which treat emerging issues in the field of services This structure makes the Handbook the most thorough reference possible The Handbook of Services Marketing and Management should have a place on the bookshelves of every academic graduate student and professional in the critical area of services

Reflections James O. Jeffers, 2003 The book chronicles James Jeffers life from about age two but it purposefully falls short of being either memoirs or autobiography With this work he has attempted to simply record for his children grandchildren and others the wonderful events of his life as he experienced them The book covers thousands of miles of travel along with living and working with peoples of differing cultures on three continents and in the Caribbean five foreign countries and fifteen different states spanning the nation from coast to coast to coast

Hauprich, 2021-05-15 What was originally conceived as the Ballston Spa Living 2020 Community Yearbook has been expanded to include bonus content about life as it was unfolding in an upstate New York village against the unprecedented backdrop of a coronavirus pandemic True to its reimagined title the literary keepsake showcases a treasure trove of stories and photos that celebrate the indomitable Spirit of Ballston Spa as villagers transitioned to the masked social distancing era Innovative plans for fostering renewed vitality future growth and prosperity in the settlement that dates back to 1771 are also found within these covers Lest we forget the way we were a special commemorative album additionally includes images of smiling faces interacting at close range with friends neighbors and tourists at popular multigenerational events in the revitalized downtown before COVID heralded the debut of a New Normal To learn more about this Legacies Unlimited heritage preservation project visit BallstonSpaLiving.com

A Morphological Interpretation of a Northern Chinese Traditional Village Kun Li, 2024-04-23 This book challenges the definition of a new approach for integrating protection and enhancing the Chinese heritage category of Traditional Villages By applying a specific case study in the Hancheng context Shaanxi Province which lacks sound studies the book formulates new theoretical prerequisites for future re searches an in depth knowledge path and sound methodological principles By working in a multiple scales approach the object of preservation and enhancement is first of all redefined in its ontology as a unity formed by the courtyard type the morphology of the village and the related landscape structures All these three levels of study have been deeply investigated put into the relationship and resulting in a new methodology which overcomes the inadequacy and ineffectiveness of the notion of setting deriving from conservation Charters to embrace the structural notion of context and a knowledge approach to rural settlements form The innovative and original features of this book are both in the reading villages in their landscape dimension which in turn is studied as a context made of several interrelated structures Another original feature of the book is the integration of Italian historic structural and morphological methodologies with specific Chinese cultural aspects The author s work dug deeply and interdisciplinary in all those dimensions to account for the complex issues that are related and embodied in both the physical and intangible meaning of human settlements opening a novel scientific methodology for Chinese studies as a sound base to define three key integrated project actions what why how to preserve enhance develop
