Monique,2022-03-27 Healing is a process a personal process that encompasses individual strength behaviors actions and attitudes We get to decide when how and why we complete the healing process Many times we petition for God to speak to acknowledge or to send a sign for the pain challenges and places we face If we listen close enough or pay attention we will find He does send a Word through a scripture person circumstance or our own prayers Unfortunately there are times we simply miss it Times when we overlook the exact thing we asked God for and there are times when we can t recognize God s answer amid our troubles because they feel so loud big painful This compilation of Love Letters Notes of Encouragement Pivot Points and Prayers are a remembrance of God s Word speaking to the challenges pains and places over a young adult life resulting in hope encouragement and connection Through the Love Letters we see how God s love is revealed and supported by scripture In Notes of Encouragement we find God s word releasing us from the frustrations of disappointment resentment and perceived failed opportunities In Pivot Points we find God s word soothing our decisions discretions and renewing hope Finally in

Prayers we find an honest conversation with the Father The reflections within the Love Letters Notes of Encouragement Pivot Points and Prayers acknowledge the hurt which began the healing process We all deserve to heal from past hurts to embrace the possibilities of future happiness Recognizing that the Father will answer that healing is possible and He wants us to be filled with the Fruit of the Spirit is a beautiful phenomenon filled with real hope There is a petition for each of you to lean in to listen for or remember when God spoke directly to your challenge pain and place Be encouraged Daniel Defoe Robert James Merrett,2013-01-01 A highly conscious wordsmith Daniel Defoe used expository styles in his fiction and non fiction that reflected his ability to perceive material and intellectual phenomena from opposing but not contradictory perspectives Moreover the boundaries of genre within his wide ranging oeuvre can prove highly fluid In this study Robert James Merrett approaches Defoe s body of work using interdisciplinary methods that recognize dialectic in his verbal creativity and cognitive awareness Examining more than ninety of Defoe s works Merrett contends that this author s literariness exploits a conscious dialogue that fosters the reciprocity of traditional and progressive authorial procedures Along the way he discusses Defoe s lexical and semantic sensibility his rhetorical and aesthetic theories his contrarian theology and more Merrett proposes that Defoe s contrarian outlook celebrates a view of consciousness that acknowledges the brain s bipartite structure and in so doing illustrates how cognitive science may be applied to further explorations of narrative art The Young Woman's Journal ,1910 Travellers #2 Jack Lasenby,2014-10-03 A powerful award winning young adult fantasy the second novel in the excellent Travellers series Pursued by the hateful Salt Men Ish flees south with his friend Taur the mute Bull Man But nowhere is there refuge from the brutal Squint face who wants his greenstone god back and wants Ish s life Across the ice of Cook Strait lies the South Land Can Ish and Taur find peace there Taur winner of the 1999 Senior Fiction category in the NZ Post Children s Book Awards is the riveting sequel to Because We Were the Travellers winner of a 1998 NZ Post Honour Award and shortlisted for the 1998 Esther Glen Medal Lasenby writes impeccably with an uncommon preciseness a poetic flow His language is poignant profound yet held back from sentimentality each word weighted for relevance Why Men Hurt Women and Other Reflections on Love, Violence and Masculinity Kopano Ratele,2022-09-01 Using conversations observations and reflections psychologist Kopano Ratele meditates on love violence and masculinity This book seeks to imagine the possibility of a more loving masculinity in a society where structural violence failures of government and economic inequality underpin much of the violent behavior that men display Enriched with personal reflections on his own experiences as a partner father psychologist and researcher in the field of men and masculinities Why Men Hurt Women and Other Reflections on Love Violence and Masculinity is Kopano Ratele s meditation on love and violence and the way these forces shape the emotional lives of boys and men At the core of these critical and deeply insightful texts is the question of why men hurt women they love Ratele contends that many men in our society suffer from a painful unrecognized yet consequential love hunger that sets in during boyhood This need for love may lie at the root of some of the male violence that damages the lives of women children and men themselves Blending academic analysis and rigor in a readable narrative style Ratele illuminates the complex nuances of gender intimacy and power in the context of the human need for love and care While unsparing in his analysis of men s inner lives Ratele lays out a path for addressing the hunger for love in boys and men He argues that just as the beliefs and practices relating to gender sexuality and the nature of love are constantly being challenged and revised so our ideas about masculinity and men s and boys capacity to show genuine loving care for each other and for women can evolve
