What Difference Does Research Make and for Whom? Françoise M. Bodone, 2005 Education is a discipline that is constantly emerging and for which there are more questions than answers Beyond the research reports the articles in refereed journals and the well crafted presentations what is happening in education What difference does our work make in the lives of those we research How is education as a whole different because of our effort And what is the nature of the difference we make This book provides some answers to those questions based on engaged and critical research from around the world It is also a critical reflection on new possibilities for qualitative research its implications and relevance to educational practice Andrew Hargreaves Enora Brown Graham Hingagaroa Smith Jack Whitehead Mutindi Mumbua Andrew Gitlin Phil Carspecken and others invite readers to join the conversation and take it beyond these pages by enriching and extending the discourse within their communities of practice

Rhetoric and Educational Discourse Richard Edwards, Katherine Nicoll, Nicky Solomon, Robin Usher, 2013-02-01 Educational policy is often dismissed as simply rhetoric and a collection of half truths However this is to underestimate the power of rhetoric and the ways in which rhetorical strategies are integral to persuasive acts Through a series of illustrative chapters this book argues that rather than something to be dismissed rhetorical analysis offers a rich and deep arena in which to explore and examine educational issues and practices It adopts an original stance in relation to contemporary debates and will make a significant contribution to educational debates in elucidating and illustrating the pervasiveness of persuasive strategies in educational practices Rhetoric and Educational Discourse is a useful resource for postgraduate and research students in education and applied linguistics The book will also be of interest to academics and researchers in these fields of study and those interested in discursive approaches to research and scholarship

Higher Education and the Challenge of Sustainability Peter Blaze Corcoran, Arjen E.J. Wals, 2007-05-08 Sustainability challenges universities around the world to rethink their missions and to re structure their courses research programs and life on campus Graduates are increasingly exposed to notions of sustainability which are emotionally politically ethically and scientifically charged They must be able to deal with conflicting norms and values uncertain outcomes and futures and a changing knowledge base At the same time they will need to be able to contextualize knowledge in an increasingly globalized society This book provides a variety of valuable theoretical and practical resources for students teachers researchers and administrators who seek to integrate sustainability in higher education Sustainability is not only explored as both an outcome and a process of learning but as a catalyst for educational change and institutional innovation The book raises the various problematics related to this inchoate field and provides an intellectual history and critical assessment of the prospects for institutionalizing sustainability in higher education and challenging It creates the vital link between urban design theory and praxis and opens the required methodological gateway to a new and unified field of urban design Using spatial political economy as his most important reference point Alexander Cuthbert both interrogates and challenges mainstream urban design and provides an alternative and viable comprehensive framework for a new synthesis He rejects the idea of yet another theory in urban design and chooses instead to construct the necessary intellectual and conceptual scaffolding for what he terms The New Urban Design Building both on Michel de Certeau s concept of heterology thinking about thinking and on the framework of his previous books Designing Cities and The Form of Cities Cuthbert uses his prior adopted framework history philosophy politics culture gender environment aesthetics typologies and pragmatics to create three integrated texts Overall the trilogy allows a new field of urban design to emerge Pre existing and new knowledge are integrated across all three volumes of which Understanding Cities is the culminating text

Educational Theory in the 21st Century Yusuf Alpaydın,Cihad Demirli,2022-05-30 This open access book reviews the effects of the twenty first century scientific technological and social developments on the educational theory The first part handles the subject focusing on technology and educational philosophy In the second part the implications of new human and social conceptions towards the education paradigms are examined In the chapters of the last part of the book more practical dimensions of education are discussed Transforming school designs school management learning teaching approaches and teacher competencies are discussed in the context of broader social cultural and technological changes

Inspiring Faith in Schools Marius Felderhof,2016-05-23 Inspiring Faith in Schools addresses the privileging of secularism that appears to affect RE in countries influenced by modern western thought The authors argue that a more engaging form of RE would emerge if religious life were to inhabit centre stage Currently religious faith is made to hover in the wings awaiting the call to face the inquisitorial challenge of the modern day enquirer The consequent relationship between pupil and the Divine as the purpose of study is then already intrinsically irreligious as indicated in the Book of Job by putting God in the dock whereas it is the pupil who should be cross examining his or her life What are the ways of exciting and engaging the young so that they begin to entertain the possibility of religious life as a genuine option for themselves Leading scholars in philosophy and theology from the UK Australia Canada and the USA come together to address these questions together with RE experts Marius Felderhof writes an Afterword summing up the challenges faced by such a re visioning of RE
