Regeneration Eye In The Door Ghost Road:

The Poetics of Transgenerational Trauma Meera Atkinson, 2017-07-27 The first decades of the twenty first century have been beset by troubling social realities coalition warfare global terrorism and financial crisis climate change epidemics of family violence violence toward women addiction neo colonialism continuing racial and religious conflict While traumas involving large scale or historical violence are widely represented in trauma theory familial trauma is still largely considered a private matter associated with personal failure This book contributes to the emerging field of feminist trauma theory by bringing focus to works that contest this tendency offering new understandings of the significance of the literary testimony and its relationship to broader society The Poetics of Transgenerational Trauma adopts an interdisciplinary approach in examining how the literary testimony of familial transgenerational trauma with its affective and relational contagion illuminates transmissive cycles of trauma that have consequences across cultures and generations It offers bold and insightful readings of works that explore those consequences in story Alison Bechdel's Fun Home A Family Tragicomic 2006 Hélène Cixous's Hyperdream 2009 Marguerite Duras's The Lover 1992 Pat Barker's Regeneration Trilogy 1999 and Alexis Wright's Carpentaria 2006 and The Swan Book 2013 concluding that such testimony constitutes a fundamentally feminist experiment and encounter The Poetics of Transgenerational Trauma challenges the casting of familial trauma in ahistorical terms and affirms both trauma and writing as social forces of political import Contemporary Novelists M.

Hutton, 2012-09-19 Peter Childs offers accessible analyses of the work of twelve prominent contemporary British writers including Hanif Kureishi Pat Barker Zadie Smith and Jeanette Winterson This expanded second edition has been revised and updated throughout and now also features a new chapter on the younger generation of novelists born in the 1970s Pat Barker Mark Rawlinson, 2009-12-07 Pat Barker is one of the leading British political and historical novelists of her generation This introduction places her fiction in historical and theoretical contexts Including a timeline of key dates and an interview with the author Rawlinson establishes the cultural importance of her work and provides an overview of its critical reception

Traumatic Affect Meera Atkinson, Michael Richardson, 2013-08-19 Traumatic Affect examines the intersection of trauma theory and affect theory two areas of crucial relevance to contemporary thought While both fields continue to offer insights into individual and collective experience exploring their nexus offers timely and necessary critiques of film literature art culture and politics This collection of essays by established and emerging thinkers considers the dynamic relations within and between affect and trauma Varied in style and approach this volume asks how the relational subject conceived by affect theory might bring into question certain presuppositions common to trauma theory and how the ethical imperatives of trauma might require a rethinking of aspects of affect theory Thus the contributors reimagine the unrepresentability of trauma reveal its affective economies and chart innovative understandings of experiences embodiments and events From the silence into which Walter Benjamin fell after the suicide of his closest friend to the trauma of becoming the emblematic
