Twelve Rooms with a View Theresa Rebeck, 2010-05-04 How would it feel to go overnight from living in a trailer park to a twelve room apartment overlooking Central Park in a landmark Victorian building This is what happens to housecleaner Tina Finn who with her sisters Alison and Lucy suddenly comes into possession of the Livingston Mansion Apartment at the Edgewood The Finn sisters inherit the 11 million property from their estranged alcoholic mother but they aren't the only siblings vying for it. Their mother's wealthy second husband Bill, who died just three weeks before Tina's mother, has two sons. And they are furious at the thought of losing the apartment that's been in their family for generations. Tina moves into the nearly vacant palatial space to solidify her claim to it, but she soon discovers that Bill's sons aren't the only ones who want her out. The building's other residents are none too pleased by her presence either. In fact, the co-op board has designs on wresting control of the apartment from both sets of children. As Tina fends off all the people who want to evict her or worse, she starts to get involved in her neighbors' complex lives. There's the mercurial, eccentric botanist who may be either a friend or an enemy; the self-absorbed, randy son of the co-op board president whose friendship without benefits Tina tries to curvy; the large, chaotic family whose depressed teenage daughter becomes Tina's ally; and spy the ghost Tina hears crying at night in her apartment's secret room. In this entertaining yarn by acclaimed playwright, screenwriter, and author Theresa Rebeck, we follow Tina Finn, a woman both comical and compelling, well intentioned and a bit of a thief, as she begins to love her new home, discovers traits to admire in people she's only just met, and realizes finally her place in her family and the world.

But when the body of a woman falls from above and crashes into the sidewalk at his feet, he finds himself back in the game, haunted by the victim's last words. The flying man. The dead woman is the stepdaughter of a prominent New York City banker, and the chief inspector needs all hands on deck. Along with calling in a celebrated scientific detective, the victim's stepfather makes McCarty a special officer. Matching his street smarts against the latest technology, McCarty feels the old thrill of the hunt as he investigates an apartment building full of suspects and the secrets they keep behind locked doors.
