Foy,Thomas J. Schlereth,1994-08 In the pivotal decades around the turn of the century American domestic life underwent dramatic alteration From backstairs to front stairs spaces and the activities within them were radically affected by shifts in the larger social and material environments This volume while taking account of architecture and decoration moves us beyond the study of buildings to the study of behaviors particularly the behaviors of those who peopled the middle class single family detached American home between 1880 and 1930 The book s contributors study transformations in services such as home utilities of power heat light water and waste removal in servicing for example the impact of home appliances such as gas and electric ranges washing machines and refrigerators and in serving changes in domestic servants duties hours of work racial and ethnic backgrounds In blending intellectual and home history these essays both examine and exemplify the perennial American enthusiasm for as well as anxiety about the meaning of modernity BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Natives and Newcomers Clyde Griffen,Sally Griffen,1978 This important contribution to the literature on mobility in nineteenth century America examines with a fine microscope the world of work in Poughkeepsie New York The careers of all workers in each occupation the entire labor force in this city with an 1870 population of 20 000 are traced over three decades The book clarifies for the first time in any mobility study the meaning of shifts in employment through detailed examination of individual occupations It shows concretely how industrialization altered the structure of opportunity it specifies how the change affected the occupational niches and paths of mobility found by Irish German and British newcomers compared to white and black natives By reassessing the significance of achieving particular occupations such as clerking and craft proprietorships the book poses important questions for historical interpretations of gross indices of mobility such as shift from blue collar to white collar status The authors favor comparability in their general analysis of mobility from federal census rolls and city directories but they refine it through a broad research base including tax rolls local newspapers and voluntary association records Their study is one of the first to make systematic use of the credit reports on every business in one city from the R G Dun Co manuscripts It also provides the first full description of the employment of women permitting comparison with the opportunities for men Other distinctive aspects include treatment of the crucial dimension of wealth and income close attention to shifts in occupations produced by transformations in technology marketing and finance and some disentangling of the influence of religion and nationality upon achievement The fine lens of this microscopic study has enabled Clyde Griffen and Sally Griffen to describe geographic occupational and property mobility in a small city with statistical precision to illuminate the larger social processes which shaped that mobility and simultaneously to vivify the working lives of anonymous American men and women Modern Drama by Women 1880s-1930s Katherine E. Kaminsky, 1986-02-21 The Stenographer, 1913 The Short Story and Photography, 1880's-1980's Jane Marjorie Rabb, 1998 For over a hundred years stories about photographs and photography have reflected the profound uncertainties and inconclusive endings of the modern world For many writers photography supposedly the most realistic of the arts turns out to be the most ambiguous As Jane Rabb observes in her introduction a number of the stories in this collection involve mysteries perhaps because photography has a capacity for both documentary reality and moral and psychological ambiguity Many nineteenth century writers represented here including Thomas Hardy and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle helped make short fiction as respectable as the novel Some of them were even serious photographers themselves The twentieth century is arguably a golden age for both the short story and photography This collection includes examples from a worldly group of writer Eug ne Ionesco Julio Cort zar Michel Tournier and Italo Calvino as well as the Chinese writer Bing Xin and John Updike Cynthia Ozick and Raymond Carver In this wide range of stories varying from sentimental to obsessive to sinister to tragic and even fatal the reader will find provocative examples of the confluence of the short story and photography both once considered the bastard stepchildren of literature and art
