C. Dutt,1999 Indian National Bibliography B. S. Kesavan,2015-12 Whose Media? a Woman's Space Manju Kak,Manjula Lal,2007 Study conducted at the states of Uttaranchal Chhattisgarh Jammu Kashmir Uttar Pradesh and Jharkhand India They Sing the Wedding of God John Napier,2013-06-12 In Rajasthan India a caste of musicians and mendicants the Nath Jogis sing stories of kings who renounce their thrones to become wandering mendicants They also sing of a god Mahadeva Shiva who must abandon his world renouncing life and marry thus establishing the very caste that tells his story This is the first detailed ethnomusicological study of the music of this caste examining how the existential questions of the sung stories of the conflict between loyalty to families or communities and the transcending desire to renounce the material world are articulated in musical performances in which the caste's own ethnography is inscribed. Discussing the relationship between the performed repertoire and the caste's identity, the contexts of performance and ways in which familiar stories are effectively retold, the book offers a transcription, translation and musical and ethnographic analysis of one performance by Kishori Nath and shows how the questions the performances project are not merely speculative acts of self-identification but also challenges to audiences to consider their own responses. Desi Girls Mohini Kent, 2015-07-09

Coping with the customs and expectations in the countries where they are now living, the mainly female characters in these tales have to choose whether to cling to their Indian culture, discard it completely or learn how to adjust and compromise. It's a challenge. Themes of courtship, marriage and betrayal of losing and re-forming one's identity while trying to live up to Indian ideals of behaviour in an alien environment contain all the vibrancy of India herself. And amidst the fragrance, colour and beloved familiarity of the rituals that accompany the characters, many varied and sometimes disturbing dramas are played out in these stories by Va Naidu, Achala Sharma, Anil Prabha, Kumar Anshu, Johri Archana, Penuli Aruna, Sabharwal Chaand, Chazelle Divya, Mathur Ila, Prasad Kadambari, Mehra Neena, Paul Purnima, Varman Pushpa, Saxena Shail, Agrawal Sneha, Thakore and Sudershen Priyadarsini.

Memories of Us Virender Arora, 2025-07-19. Sir was emphatic. Virat Kohli was not an Engineer. Rohit Sharma was not an Engineer, just average in studies. But look at the honour they have brought to the country. Women's football has to come a long way and it is only players like her who will take it forward. The Spanish Football Ramu I had almost gone. I could see you and Swamiji. I clearly remember the shocked look on your face and the serene calmness on Swamiji. I wanted to fly out to another world where there were images calling me but somehow I could not get out of the tent and was hovering around for some time and then I came back into this body. Life and Afterlife. I am sending herewith three pieces of Pinnis which I made specially for you to remind you of the good old days which may never come back again. I am hopeful someday the hatred will disappear and we shall be able to meet and travel as before. We could come there and you could come here. Till then I remain. Shabnam Malhotra. Borders and Beyond. Ice humanities Klaus Dodds, Sverker Sörlin, 2022-08-02. Ice humanities is a pioneering collection of essays that tackles the existential crisis posed by the planet's diminishing ice reserves. By the end of this century we will likely be facing a world where sea ice no longer reliably forms in large areas of the Arctic Ocean where glaciers have not just retreated but disappeared where ice sheets collapse and where permafrost is far from permanent The ramifications of such change are not simply geophysical and biochemical They are societal and cultural and they are about value and loss Where does this change leave our inherited ideas knowledge and experiences of ice snow frost and frozen ground How will human animal and plant communities superbly adapted to cold and high places cope with less ice or even none at all The ecological services provided by ice are breath taking providing mobility water and food security for hundreds of millions of people around the world often Indigenous and vulnerable communities The stakes could not be higher Drawing on sources ranging from oral testimony to technical scientific expertise this path breaking collection sets out a highly compelling claim for the emerging field of ice humanities convincingly demonstrating that the centrality of ice in human and non human life is now impossible to ignore
