columns focusing on the demolition of Chicago's infamous Cabrini Green housing project. One of the most moving sections is her twelve part series with U.S. District Judge Joan Lefkowitz as the latter reflected on rebuilding her life after the horrific murders of her mother and husband. Schmich's columns are both universal and deeply personal. The first section of this book is dedicated to columns about her mother and her stories of coping with her mother's aging and eventual death. Throughout the book, Schmich reflects wisely and wryly on the world we live in and her fond observances of Chicago life bring the city in all its varied character to warm, vivid life.
