Applied Ballardianism Simon Sellars, 2019-01-15 An existential odyssey weaving together lived experience and theoretical insight this startling autobiographical hyperfiction surveys and dissects a world where everything connects and global technological delirium is the norm The mediascapes of late capitalism reconfigure erotic responses and trigger primal aggression under constant surveillance we occupy simulations of ourselves private estates on a hyperconnected globe fictions reprogram reality memories are rewritten by the future Fleeing the excesses of 1990s cyberculture a young researcher sets out to systematically analyse the obsessively reiterated themes of a writer who prophesied the disorienting future we now inhabit The story of his failure is as disturbingly psychotropic as those of his magus J G Ballard prophet of the post postmodern voluptuary of the car crash surgeon of the pathological virtualities pulsing beneath the surface of reality Plagued by obsessive fears defeated by the tedium of academia yet still certain that everything connects to Ballard his academic thesis collapses into a series of delirious travelogues deranged speculations and tormented meditations on time memory and loss Abandoning literary interpretation and renouncing all scholarly distance he finally accepts the deep assignment that has run throughout his entire life and embarks on a rogue fieldwork project Applied Ballardianism a new discipline and a new ideal for living Only the darkest impulses the most morbid obsessions and the most apocalyptic paranoia can uncover the technological mutations of inner space An existential odyssey inextricably weaving together lived experience and theoretical insight this startling autobiographical hyperfiction surveys and dissects a world where everything connects and global technological delirium is the norm a world become unmistakably Ballardian Studies in Short Fiction, 1993

Anthropology: 1996 Compiled by the British Library of Political and Economic Science, 1997 Provides an unrivelled overview of intellectual development in anthropology Writing From the Left Alan M. Wald, 1994-11-17 In this collection of essays the author combines a series of assessments of classic and lost texts in the US Marxist literary tradition and analyzes developments in Marxist scholarship by Robin Kelley Michael Lowy James Murphy Paula Rabinowitz and Alexander Saxton Twentieth Century Short Story Explication Warren S. Walker, 1973 Jeroboam's Wife Dr. Robin Gallaher Branch, 2018-04-24 Much has been written about prominent women of the Bible such as Sarah Ruth and Esther But little attention has been paid to the obscure or unnamed women of the Old Testament whose words are not recorded Yet even while mute these women often played critical roles in the unfolding of God's plan at times signaling the emergence of great events In Jeroboam's Wife Robin Gallaher Branch introduces seven of these obscure yet noteworthy women and girls Through her careful examination of the literary contours of the biblical narratives she highlights their unique challenges and indelible contributions Drawing from contemporary biblical psychological and sociological scholarship Branch brings these women and their stories to life in fresh ways Thoughtful questions for personal reflection or group discussion help contemporary readers ponder how these women's lives are still relevant

Post-Jungian Psychology and the Short Stories of Ray Bradbury and Kurt Vonnegut Steve Gronert Ellerhoff, 2016-02-22 In this book Steve Gronert Ellerhoff explores short stories by Ray Bradbury and Kurt Vonnegut written between 1943 and 1968 with a post Jungian approach Drawing upon archetypal theories of myth from Joseph Campbell James Hillman and their forbearer C G Jung Ellerhoff demonstrates how short fiction follows archetypal patterns that can illuminate our understanding of the authors their times and their culture In practice a post Jungian methodology is shown to yield great insights for the literary criticism of short fiction Chapters in this volume carefully contextualise and historicize each story including Bradbury and Vonnegut's earliest and most imaginatively fantastic works The archetypal constellations shaping Vonnegut's early works are shown to be war and fragmentation while those in Bradbury's are family and the wholeness of the sun Analysis is complemented by the explored significance of illustrations that featured alongside the stories in their first publications By uncovering the ways these popular writers redressed old myths in new tropes and coined new narrative elements for hopes and fears born of their era the book reveals a fresh method which can be applied to all imaginative short stories increasing understanding and critical engagement Post Jungian Psychology and the Short Stories of Ray Bradbury and Kurt Vonnegut is an important text for a number of fields from Jungian and Post Jungian studies to short story theories and American studies to Bradbury and Vonnegut studies Scholars and students of literature will come away with a renewed appreciation for an archetypal approach to criticism while the book will also be of great interest to practising depth psychologists seeking to incorporate short stories into therapy

American Women Writing Fiction Mickey Pearlman, 2014-10-17 American literature is no longer the refuge of the solitary hero Like the society it mirrors it is now a far richer many faceted explication of a complicated and diverse society racially culturally and ethnically interwoven and at the same time fractured and fractious Ten women writing fiction in America today Toni Cade Bambara Joan Didion Louise Erdrich Gail Godwin Mary Gordon Alison Lurie Joyce Carol Oates Jayne Anne Phillips Susan Fromberg Schaeffer and Mary Lee Settle represent that geographic ethnic and racial diversity that is distinctively American Their differing perspectives on literature and the American experience have produced

Erdrich's stolid North Dakota plainswomen Didion's sun-baked dreamers and screamers the urban ethnics Irish Jewish and black of Gordon Schaeffer and Barbara Oates's small town often violent neurotics Lurie's intellectual sophisticates and the southern survivors and victims male and female of Phillips Settle and Godwin The ten original essays in this collection focus on the traditional themes of identity memory family and enclosure that pervade the fiction of these writers The fictional women who emerge here as these critics show are often caught in the interwoven strands of memory perceive literal and emotional space as entrapping find identity elusive and frustrating and experience the interweaving of silence solitude and family in complex patterns Each essay in this collection is followed by bibliographies of works by and about the writer in question that will be invaluable resources for scholars and general readers alike Here is a readable critical discussion of ten important contemporary novelists who have broadened the pages of American literature to reflect more clearly the people we are

Studs Terkel Alan Wieder, 2016-08-26 Studs Terkel was an American icon who had no use for America's cult of celebrity He was a leftist who valued human beings over political dogma In scores of books and thousands of radio and television broadcasts Studs paid attention and respect to ordinary human beings of all classes and colors as they talked about their lives as workers dreamers survivors Alan Wieder's Studs Terkel Politics Culture But Mostly Conversation is the first comprehensive book about this man Drawing from over one hundred interviews of people who knew and worked with Studs Alan Wieder creates a multi-dimensional portrait of a run-of-the-mill guy from Chicago who in public life became an acclaimed author and raconteur while managing in his private life to remain a mensch We see Studs the eminent oral historian the inveterate and selfless supporter of radical causes especially civil rights We see the actor the writer the radio host the jazz lover whose early work in television earned him a notorious place on the McCarthy blacklist We also see Studs the family man and devoted husband to his adored wife Ida Studs Terkel Politics Culture But Mostly Conversation allows us to realize the importance of reaching through our own daily realities increasingly clogged with disembodied impersonal interaction to find value in actual face time with real humans Wieder's book also shows us why such contact might be crucial to those of us in movements rising up against global tyranny and injustice The book is simply the best introduction available to this remarkable man Reading it will lead people to Terkel's enormous body of work with benefits they will cherish throughout their lives

Fonseca, 2016-02-02 Richard Matheson was one of the leading writers of science fiction fantasy and horror in the twentieth century Matheson's most famous early works the novels I Am Legend 1954 and The Shrinking Man 1956 both depict traditionally masculine figures thrust into extraordinary situations Other thought-provoking novels including Hell House 1971 Bid Time Return 1975 and What Dreams May Come 1978 as well as short stories and screenplays convey the ambiguous status of masculinity how men should behave vis-à-vis women and what role they should occupy in the family dynamic and in society at large In Richard Matheson's Monsters Gender in the Stories Scripts Novels and Twilight Zone
