Samuel W. Mitcham Jr.,2007-02-28 Perhaps the most famous and admired soldier to fight in World War II was Field Marshal Erwin Rommel who achieved immortality as the Desert Fox Rommel s first field command during the war was the 7th Panzer Division also known as the Ghost Division which he led in France in 1940 During this campaign the 7th Panzer suffered more casualties than any other division in the German Army at the same time inflicting a disproportionate number of casualties upon the enemy It took 97 486 prisoners captured 458 tanks and armored vehicles 277 field guns 64 anti tank guns and 4 000 to 5 000 trucks It captured or destroyed hundreds of tons of other military equipment shot down 52 aircraft destroyed 15 more aircraft on the ground and captured 12 additional planes It destroyed the French 1st Armored Division and the 4th North African Division punched through the Maginot Line extension near Sivry and checked the largest Allied counteroffensive of the campaign at Arras When France surrendered the Ghost Division was within 200 miles of the Spanish border No doubt about it Rommel had proven himself a great military leader who was capable of greater things His next command in fact would be the Afrika Korps where the legend of the Desert Fox was born Rommel had a great deal of help in France much more than his published papers suggest His staff officers and company battalion and regimental commanders were an extremely capable collection of military leaders that included 12 future generals two of them SS and two colonels who briefly commanded panzer divisions but never reached general rank They also included Colonel Erich von Unger who would no doubt have become a general had he not been killed in action while commanding a motorized rifle brigade on the Eastern Front in 1941 as well as Karl Hanke a Nazi gauleiter who later succeeded Heinrich Himmler as the last Reichsfuehrer SS No historian has ever recognized the talented cast of characters who supported the Desert Fox in 1940 No one has ever attempted to tell their stories This book remedies that deficiency Special Bibliography ,1977 Rommel's Desert Commanders Samuel W. Mitcham,2008-07-07 New perspective on the most famous campaign of the legendary Desert Fox Details on the contributions and animosities of Rommel s subordinates Includes accounts of Tobruk Gazala El Alamein and other battles In Libya and Egypt in 1941 and 1942 German Field Marshal Erwin Rommel achieved immortality as the Desert Fox battling and usually defeating numerically superior enemies Until now historians have generally overlooked the talented cast of characters who supported Rommel during this campaign Distinguished military historian Samuel Mitcham recounts the battles of the Afrika Korps through the men who served Rommel as staff officers and commanders of divisions regiments and battalions soldiers like Ludwig Cr well and Walter Nehring two of World War II s best panzer commanders and Ernst G nther Baade who wore a kilt and carried a broadsword into battle Catalog of Copyright Entries. Kesselring Captain Teddy Bitner,2014-08-15 This study attempts to analyze the decisions made by Field Marshal Albert Kesselring prior to and during the battle of Anzio in February 1944 The focus of the investigation is on Kesselring s decision to shift Army Group reserves from the Rome area prior to the Allied amphibious assault at Anzio on 18 January 1944 then his involvement in the development and execution of the German counterattack against the Allied beachhead conducted on 16 February 1944 The investigation reveals that Kesselring the Army Group Commander made a proper and effective decision in committing the Army Group reserves to the German defensive line prior to the invasion and that his involvement in the development and execution of the German counterattack at Anzio was doctrinally sound and generally effective
