Sick An Anthology Of Illness:

Sick John Edward Lawson, 2003 The publishing world has just received its bill of health and the prognosis isn't pretty Literary marauders are rising up from the hazardous material bins labeled Horror Surrealism and Science Fiction Here the pen is not merely mightier than the sword it is a plague heralding the apocalypse for convention writing a dirge for complacency The stories herein explore illness in all its forms physical mental and societal These sick stories are horrendous hilarious and stupefying dissections of creative minds on the scalpel's edge The Egg Said Nothing Caris O'Malley, 2010 Meet Manny He's your average shut in with a penchant for late night television and looting local fountains for coins With eight locks on his door and newspapers covering his windows he's a more than a bit paranoid too His wasn't a great life but it was comfortable at least it was until the morning he awoke with an egg between his legs But what might have been a curse becomes a charm as this unlikely event leads him to all night diner where he finds inedible pie undrinkable coffee and the girl of his dreams But can this unexpected chance at love survive after the egg cracks and time itself turns against him dead set on rerouting history and putting a shovel to the face of the one person who could bring real and lasting change to Manny's world Bucket of Face Eric Hendrixson, 2010-10 Thirteen years after a police officer searching a suspected child molester's home spilled a vial of silver pollen America is still struggling with how to recognize its sentient fruit population Charles is just a normal guy working at a doughnut shop until an apple and a banana shoot each other in a mafia dispute leaving a briefcase full of foreign currency and a specimen bucket at the corner booth When Charles turns the wiseguys into doughnuts and steals their luggage hoping for a better life for himself and his kiwi fruit girlfriend he finds himself in the middle of a mafia war As his girlfriend travels the DC metro area selling off the contents of the bucket Charles finds he is the target of a seasoned hit tomato who happens to be the biggest Michael Jackson fan who ever lived Stories of Sickness Howard Brody, 2002-10-31 Our personalities and our identities are intimately bound up with the stories that we tell to organize and to make sense of our lives To understand the human meaning of illness we therefore must turn to the stories we tell about illness suffering and medical care Stories of Sickness explores the many dimensions of what illness means to the sufferers and to those around them drawing on depictions of illness in great works of literature and in nonfiction accounts The exploration is primarily philosophical but incorporates approaches from literature and from the medical social sciences When it was first published in 1987 Stories of Sickness helped to inaugurate a renewed interest in the importance of narrative studies in health care For the Second Edition the text has been thoroughly revised and significantly expanded Four almost entirely new chapters have been added on the nature complexities and rigor of narrative ethics and how it is carried out There is also an additional chapter on maladaptive ways of being sick that deals in greater depth with disability issues Health care professionals students of medicine and bioethics and ordinary people coping with illness no less than scholars in the health care humanities and social sciences will find much value in this volume Unique Features Philosophically sophisticated yet clearly written and easily accessible Interdisciplinary approach combines philosophy literature health care social sciences Contains many fascinating stories and vignettes of illness drawn from both fiction and nonfiction A new and comprehensive overview of the hot topic of narrative ethics in medicine and health care Last Burn in Hell John Edward Lawson,2005 Kenrick Brimley the state prison s official gigolo hangs over a lava pit on trial for his life in a strange land He will reveal the course of his life one misguided step at a time for his captors From his romance with serial arsonist Leena Manasseh to his lurid angst affair with a lesbian music diva from his ascendance as unlikely pop icon to otherworldly encounters the one constant truth is that he s got no clue what he s doing As unrelenting as it is original Last Burn in Hell is John Edward Lawson at his most scorching intensity serving up sexy satire and postmodern pulp with his trademark day glo prose Grape City Kevin Donihe,2006 Meet Charles a demon forced to work shitty minimum wage jobs ever since Hell went out of business He now lives in Grape City which would be the worst place on Earth provided all other cities weren t just as bad While adjusting to his new way of life Charles passes the time by writing emails to Satan going on blind dates with mortal women and attempting to fit in with human society unfortunately society is a mess of chaotic absurdities in which bang murdering and hack raping are cultural norms Adolf in Wonderland Carlton Mellick,2007 In an alternate version of the future where Hitler had conquered the entire world during WW2 and developed society into his vision of utopia an SS officer is on a mission to find and exterminate the last imperfect human on Earth Following his trail leads the young Nazi to a small town hidden in the middle of the desert a place that has been cut off from society for so long that it has developed its own strange and disturbing culture Thus begins Mellick s dreamlike adventure that takes a young descendent of Adolf Hitler s design and sends him down the rabbit hole into a world of imperfection and disorder where even the laws of reality itself don t seem to apply A tribute to both Franz Kafka and Lewis Carroll Adolf in Wonderland is a perfect read for fans of the bizarro genre Modernism and Physical Illness Peter Fifield,2020 Considers to the role of physical illness in modernist writing and explores works by D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf T S Eliot Dorothy Richardson and Winifred Holtby to show how illness is used as an altered heightened type of experience and can be a framework for gender racial and class based othering Jack and Mr. Grin Andersen Prunty,2008 Jack Orange is a twentysomething guy who works at a place called The Tent packing dirt in boxes and shipping them off to exotic unheard of locales He thinks about his girlfriend Gina Black and the ring he hopes to surprise her with But when he returns home one day Gina isn t there He receives a strange call from a man who sounds likes he is smiling Mr Grin He says he has Gina He gives Jack twenty four hours to find her Publisher s description Illness and Health in the Jewish Tradition David L. Freeman (M.D.),Judith Z. Abrams,1999 The premise of the Jewish attitude toward illness is that living is sacred that good health enables us to live a fully religious life and that disease is an evil Any effective therapy is permitted even if it conflicts with Jewish law To bring about healing is a responsibility not only of the person who is ill and of the professional caregivers but also of the loved ones and of the larger circle of family friends and community

Illness and Health in the Jewish Tradition is an anthology of traditional and modern Jewish writings that highlights these basic principles
