The Mapping of a Russian War: The Atlas of the Principality of Polatsk by Stanisław Pacholowiecki (1580) Jakub Niedźwiedź, Karol Łopatecki, Grzegorz Franczak, 2024-12-02. This volume is a comprehensive analysis of the Atlas of the Principality of Polatsk 1580, one of the oldest cartographic representations of the military conflict between Russia Muscovy and the Western world. Its author, the Polish royal cartographer Stanisław Pacholowiecki, drew the maps at the beginning of the Livonian War 1579-1582, when the Polish-Lithuanian army liberated the Lithuanian and Livonian lands from Muscovian occupation. The Mapping of a Russian War focuses on the military aspects of the maps, their political and propaganda use, and the Early Modern construction of the past through maps. The authors present an innovative approach to these maps, rarely examined by the international research community.

The Ghost Rider Ismail Kadare, 2011-08-30. Ismail Kadare is one of Europe's most consistently interesting and powerful contemporary novelists, a writer whose stark, memorable prose imprints itself on the reader's consciousness. Los Angeles Times: An old woman is awoken in the dead of night by knocks at her front door. The woman opens it to find her daughter Doruntine standing there alone in the darkness. She has been brought home from a distant land by a mysterious rider she claims is her brother Konstandin. But unbeknownst to her, Konstandin has been dead for years. What follows is a chain of events which plunges a medieval village into fear and mistrust. Who is the ghost rider?

Remembering the Crusades Nicholas Paul, Suzanne Yeager, 2012-04-02. Few events in European history generated more historical, artistic, and literary responses than the conquest of Jerusalem by the armies of the First Crusade in 1099. This epic military and religious expedition and the many that followed it became part of the collective memory of communities in Europe, Byzantium, North Africa, and the Near East. Remembering the Crusades examines the ways in which those memories were negotiated, transmitted, and transformed from the Middle Ages through the modern period. Bringing together leading scholars in art history, literature, and medieval European and Near Eastern history, this volume addresses a number of important questions: How did medieval communities respond to the intellectual, cultural, and existential challenges posed by the unique fusion of piety and violence of the First Crusade? How did the crusades alter the form and meaning of monuments and landscapes throughout Europe and the Near East? What role did the crusades play in shaping the collective identity of cities, institutions, and religious sects? In exploring these and other questions, the contributors analyze how the events of the First Crusade resonated in a wide range of cultural artifacts, including literary texts, art, and architecture, and liturgical ceremonies. They discuss how Christians, Jews, and Muslims recalled and interpreted the events of the crusades and what far-reaching implications that remembering had on their communities throughout the centuries. Remembering the Crusades is the first collection of essays to investigate the commemoration of the crusades in eastern and western cultures. Its unprecedented multidisciplinary and cross cultural approach points the way to a complete reevaluation of the place of the crusades in medieval and modern societies Kenyon's Wife Mrs. Lucy Cecil White Lillie,1887 Three Perils of Man James Hogg,2019-07-31 This volume covers Boswell s emotionally eventful youthful travels through the German and Swiss territories from mid June 1764 after his law studies in Utrecht to New Year s Day 1765 when he crossed the Alps for the next stages of his European tour in Italy Corsica and France The Mammoth Book of Best New Horror 11 Stephen Jones,2012-03-01 As usual acclaimed horror anthologist Stephen Jones has chosen the finest short stories and novellas of supernatural and psychological fiction With the most comprehensive review of the year useful contact lists and a fascinating necrology as a bonus this is one book that every horror fan must have A Ring Realms Novel: Reality's Plaything Saga Book 1: Reality's Plaything Will Greenway,2014-04-01 One man harbors an ability that rivals the world s ruling powers but also makes him the target of a vengeful deity who vows to destroy him Can a simple mortal battle a goddess in the throes of madness and hope to survive Bannor Starfist is newly engaged to his dream girl and happy with his life when he discovers he can bend reality a rare trait inherited from a long line of Savants But when word of a magical human reaches the insane goddess Hecate it so enrages her that she turns his life into a waking nightmare The goddess kidnaps Bannor s fiance and pits an army of devoted minions against him in an escalating reign of terror Despite alliances with fellow Savants Bannor s resolve fades with each defeat and he eventually falls into despair Can he summon the strength to vanquish Hecate and her dark army or will he ultimately lose everything in a battle for his very soul If you loved David Eddings The Mallorean this epic fantasy is for you Discover why enthusiastic fans say Greenway does a great job of blending science and magic in a way that is captivating Imperialism as Diaspora Ralph J. Prize in this period are examined within a theoretical framework mapping the literary terrain of the fiction Individual chapters explore themes that occur within the larger narrative formed by this body of novels collectively invoked cultures social trends and movements spanning the stages of imperial heyday and decline as perceived over the past three decades Individually and collectively the novels mirror often in terms of more than a single static image British imperial culture after empire contesting and reinterpreting perceptions of the historical moment of the British Empire and its legacy in contemporary culture The body of Booker novels narrates the demise of empire and the emergence of different cultural formations in its aftermath The novels are grouped for discussion according to the way in which they deal with aspects of the transition from empire to a post imperial culture from early imperial expansion through colonization retrenchment decolonization and postcolonial pessimism to the emergence of tribal nationalisms and post imperial nation states The focus throughout is primarily literary and contingently cultural

Truth, 1898 Family Constellations in Contemporary Ibero-American and Slavic Literatures Anna Artwińska, Ángela Calderón, Jobst Welge, 2024-10-07 This volume examines Ibero American as well as Slavic literatures of the 21st century and studies how historical imaginaries in family narratives are functionalized for both individual and collective and post national identities The analysis proceeds along three conceptual axes What these narratives have in common is that they construct specific constellations of the historical imagination and of family whereby family is here conceived not so much as an organic micro unity but rather as changing multiple relations between individual members godparents first and second degree relatives non blood related family members present and absent members adopted children etc Furthermore these novels are often grounded in trans generational memories They are written by members of a generation that as a rule did not directly experience these historical events It is also significant that these narratives are no longer conceived as representing national identities but paradigmatically speak for a collective that defines itself in regional ethnic religious or ideological terms It seems therefore that these narratives of family constellations are in need of more flexible typological rubrics and interpretive frameworks Intended as a sustained comparative study of these family narratives this volume is a contribution in understanding how historical caesura experiences and their literary representation work on the self understanding of the present
