Sight Insight:

Site, Sight, Insight John Dixon Hunt, 2016-03-07 Site Sight Insight presents twelve essays by John Dixon Hunt the leading theorist and historian of landscape architecture The collection s common theme is a focus on sites how we see them and what we derive from that looking Acknowledging that even the most modest landscape encounter has validity Hunt contends that the more one knows about a site and one s own sight of it an awareness of how one is seeing the greater the insight Employing the concepts tropes and rhetorical methods of literary analysis he addresses the problem of how to discuss understand and appreciate places that are experienced through all the senses over time and through space Hunt questions our intellectual and aesthetic understanding of gardens and designed landscapes and asks how these sites affect us emotionally Do gardens have meaning When we visit a fine garden or designed landscape we experience a unique work of great complexity in purpose which has been executed over a number of years a work that occasionally achieves beauty While direct experience is fundamental Hunt demonstrates how the ways in which gardens and landscapes are communicated in word and image can be equally important He returns frequently to a cluster of key sites and writings on which he has based much of his thinking about garden making and its role in landscape architecture the gardens of Rousham in Oxfordshire Thomas Whately s Observations on Modern Gardening 1770 William Gilpin s dialogues on Stowe 1747 Alexander Pope s meditation on genius loci the D sert de Retz Paolo Burgi s Cardada and the designs by Bernard Lassus and Ian Hamilton Finlay

G. D. Vreeland,2007-10 Integrity is often discussed challenged occasionally vindicated but what does it look like Sometimes the best highlight of the diamond is the velvet against which it is cast Likewise narrative artistry subtly depicts flaws in character and flaws in leadership When some ancients moved from insignificant provincials to emperors in a generation why did those of the United Monarchy of Israel only achieved the mini empire Kitchen and varying degrees of regional influence Dr Vreeland maintains that how leaders respond to God s rules of engagement and how they treat people make the difference between greatness and mediocrity Lest this book be confused with a commentary it must be said that it can be read ad loc However each section is designed to be a stand alone essay that might be read ad seriatim Throughout Dr Vreeland endeavors to be personable but professional playful but pointed impassioned at times but always thought provoking

Dr Vreeland received his Ph D from Trinity International University in Theological Studies Old Testament in 1994 After raising support as a missionary he served for four years at the Nairobi International School of Theology He was then invited to be part of the faculty of Northwest Baptist Seminary He has concluded six years there July 07 as Associate Professor of Semitic Languages and Biblical Literature He teaches Hebrew and English Bible and other special topics So far as the church in America is concerned his love is serious biblical study as related to integrity and leadership hence this work on First Samuel and its sequel in Second Samuel Dr Vreeland has been married for 26 years to the love of his life Donna who is the finest English Bible scholar on the planet and to whom this volume is gratefully dedicated They have 3 grown children
