Entangled Coercion Paola A. Revilla Orías, 2021-01-18 This book investigates the phenomenon of slavery and other forms of servitude experienced by people of African or indigenous origin who were taken captive and then subjected to forced labor in Charcas Bolivia in the 16th and 17th centuries Philip IV and the Government of Spain, 1621-1665 R. A. Stradling, 2002-10-03 This book concentrates on the political history of the reign of Philip IV and the role of the king within it Philip is kept near the forefront and issues and events are often seen if sometimes critically from his viewpoint It is therefore a work of revision and rehabilitation representing an attempt against all other extant accounts to establish Philip IV as a positive figure with an autonomous character and political identity A secondary supportive intention is to demonstrate that after the fall of Olivares the king ruled and governed without a favourite valido This is the central theme in the most detailed treatment of the second half of the reign available in any language Reference is made throughout to Philip's own words and actions At the same time the Olivares period itself is approached from a new perspective some issues being examined with the use of new material Although not intended as a conventional biography the book retains several characteristics of the form in that it is a career study part thematic part chronological Philip IV is examined also in relation to the political writing of the age and to his court and capital in Madrid Genoese Entrepreneurship and the Asiento Slave Trade, 1650-1700 Alejandro García-Montón, 2021-11-21 This book explains how Genoese entrepreneurs transformed the structures of global trade during the second half of the seventeenth century The author reconstructs the business network built by the Genoese merchant Domenico Grillo between the 1650s and the 1680s Grillo's business interests stretched from the Mediterranean to Pacific South America traversing and joining the Spanish Dutch and English Atlantics He and his associates created a new business model that was to be emulated by Dutch French and English traders in subsequent decades the monopolistic asientos for the exploitation of the trans imperial and intra American slave trade to Spanish America Offering a connected history of capitalism across trans continental geographies and different empires this book challenges established views of a period which has traditionally been interrogated from a northern European mercantile perspective Cutting across the histories of the slave trade in the Atlantic world early modern capitalism and early modern empire this study has much to offer to students and scholars interested in the agents economic practices and geographies of trade that do not easily fit into and therefore disrupt the traditional narratives of the Rise of the West Chapter 6 of this book is freely available as a downloadable Open Access PDF under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> The Mystical Gesture Robert Boenig, 2018-05-08 This title was first published in 2000 These essays explore the spiritual culture shared by texts and writers in Western Europe from the 13th to 17th centuries the visionaries mystics and nuns who were poets or scholars and the creative writers who drew on spiritual themes The topics range chronologically from the late 13th to late 17th centuries and geographically from Germany England Italy France Spain and New Spain Mexico though the volume's centre is the spiritual culture of 16th century Spain Common concerns of each essay are the exploration of spiritual culture how some texts and writers shape expectations attending the life of the spirit and how they are in turn shaped by them The sub themes many of the essays share are the gendering of spiritual culture and the relationship between traditional literary genres like poetry and drama and spiritual discourse Each text or spiritual figure covered here has a distinctive spiritual voice a mystical gesture that contributes an individual mysticism to the common spiritual culture they all share Each scholar in her or his own way defines this mystical gesture The essays analyze Mechthild von Magdburg Piers Plowman The Second Shepherds Play Catherine of Siena Bernardo de Laredo Teresa of Avila Alonso de la Fuente Luisa de Carvajal y Mendoza Cecilian de nacimiento Margaret Mary Alaconque and Sor Juana Native American Speakers of the Eastern Woodlands Barbara Alice Mann, 2001-04-30 This collection of essays examines in context eastern Native American speeches which are translated and reprinted in their entirety Anthologies of Native American orators typically focus on the rhetoric of western speakers but overlook the contributions of Eastern speakers The roles women played both as speakers themselves and as creators of the speeches delivered by the men are also commonly overlooked Finally most anthologies mine only English language sources ignoring the fraught records of the earliest Spanish conquistadors and French adventurers This study fills all these gaps and also challenges the conventional assumption that Native thought had little or no impact on liberal perspectives and critiques of Europe Essays are arranged so that the speeches progress chronologically to reveal the evolving assessments and responses to the European presence in North America from the mid sixteenth century to the twentieth century Providing a discussion of the history culture and oratory of eastern Native Americans this work will appeal to scholars of Native American history and of communications and rhetoric Speeches represent the full range of the woodland east and are taken from primary sources The Routledge Companion to Race in Early Modern Artistic, Material, and Visual Production Nicholas R. Jones, Christina H. Lee, Dominique E.

Polanco, 2025-05-30 This companion analyzes frames and provokes race in insightful ways that center non white communities artistic and visual expression in the early modern period rather than presenting the bias of European artistic and visual depictions of the colonization enslavement and subordination of People of Color The organization of the book moves chronologically taking a conceptual and thematic framework This collection provides a spectrum of object ased case studies of artistic production bjects and object types rom six continents between the 1400s and 1800s Contributions take an art historical approach characterized by a close analysis of form function and meaning with a particular focus on questions of cross ultural dialog and provenance Additionally there is an emphasis on material culture The book will interest scholars working in African diaspora studies art history visual culture material culture Indigenous studies Renaissance studies musicology early modern studies decolonial studies and race and racism studies The Armada of Flanders R. A. Stradling, 2003 The armada s contribution to the tenacious survival of Spanish hegemony Portuguese-Spanish Interfaces Patricia Amaral, Ana Maria Carvalho, 2014-10-15 Portuguese Spanish Interfaces captures the diversity of encounters that these languages have known and explores their relevance for current linguistic theories The book focuses on dimensions along which Portuguese and Spanish can be fruitfully compared and highlights the theoretical value of exploring points of interaction between closely related varieties. It is unprecedented in its scope and unique in bringing together leading experts in a systematic study of similarities and differences between both languages. The authors explore the common boundaries of these languages within current theoretical frameworks in an effort to combine scholarship that analyzes Portuguese and Spanish from multiple subfields of linguistics. The volume compares structures from both synchronic and diachronic points of view addressing a range of issues pertaining to variability, acquisition, contact, and the formation of new languages. While it provides an up-to-date resource for scholars in the field, it can also be a useful companion for advanced students.

Reluctant Cosmopolitans Daniel M. Swetschinski, 2000-06-01 Winner of the 2000 National Jewish Book Award for Sephardic Studies. Focusing on the social dimension of Amsterdam's Portuguese Jewish economic and religious life, Swetschinski paints a lively and unconventional picture of the dynamics of a remarkable Jewish community, the first traditional Jewish society to engage creatively with the non-Jewish secular world in relative harmony. A broad, authentic, and original vision of the transition from medieval to modern Jewish history.

Lenguaje, arte y revoluciones ayer y hoy Alejandro Cortazar, Rafael Orozco, 2011-05-25 This book depicts new paradigms in Hispanic linguistic, literary, and cultural studies. Part I: Literary and Cultural Studies includes eight essays focusing on a new trend of cultural representation attempting to find new meanings. They explore a series of reflections on some of those moments from the period that begins with the cry for independence in 1810 and that spans beyond 2010, textually translated as new approaches of analysis on the recollections of things to come. The contexts examined evince critical occurrences related to periods of change toward democracy and social justice that eventually lead to revolutionary or emancipating ends by way of artistic textual manifestations. Part II: Linguistic and Cultural Studies contains nine articles representative of the most current ground-breaking research on Hispanic linguistics. It focuses on important linguistic and cultural issues pertaining geographically to various corners of the Hispanic world, spanning from central Florida and New York City to Bolivia and on to the Prince Islands in Turkey. The issues explored include the sociolinguistic and cultural identity of Puerto Ricans in the United States, the pragmatics of humor in Mexican film, the effects of language evolution on modern Spanish, and the acquisition of Spanish by English speakers.

Collections of Painting in Madrid, 1601-1755 (Parts 1 and 2) Marcus B. Burke, Peter Cherry, 1997-01-01 This two-part book on collections of paintings in Madrid is part of the series Documents for the History of Collecting Spanish Inventories 1, which presents volumes of art historical information based on archival records. One hundred forty inventories of noble and middle-class collections of art in Madrid are accompanied by two essays describing the taste and cultural atmosphere of Madrid in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries.

The Resilience of the Spanish Monarchy 1665-1700 Christopher Storrs, 2006-10-19 Christopher Storrs presents an analysis of why Spain and its empire survived during the reign of the last Spanish Hapsburg. He argues it was not wholly due to the aid of allies but also because the state and society were clearly committed to the retention of empire

The Irish in the Spanish Armies in the Seventeenth Century Eduardo de Mesa, 2014 Provides a wealth of detail on how the wild geese the Irish who refused to submit to the English played a significant role in the armies of Spain It is well known that many Irishmen who refused to submit to the English in the reigns of Elizabeth and the early Stuart kings including the famous earls of Tyrone and Tyrconnell went to fight for the king of Spain but what they did when they joined the Spanish armies is much less well known This book provides a wealth of detail on the activities of the Irish in the Spanish armies in the late sixteenth and seventeenth centuries It outlines who the Irish soldiers were how they were recruited and the terms under which they served It discusses their military roles both in the wars in Flanders between the Spanish and their former Dutch subjects and later in the Hispanic peninsula showing how the Irish were often employed as elite troops who made significant contributions to major military actions such as the siege of Breda in 1624 It examines military tactics explores the politics of the Spanish armies showing how the Irish fitted in and discusses how when the rebellion of 1641 broke out in Ireland many Irish soldiers returned to Ireland to resume the fight against the English Eduardo de Mesa completed his doctorate at University College Dublin He is the author of La pacificación de Flandes 1604-1609 2009 and Discurso Militar del Marqués de Aytona 2008 co author of La Monarquía de Felipe III 2008 and author of numerous articles chapters in edited collections and encyclopedia entries

Tropical Babels Stuart B. Schwartz, 2011-01-20 The idea that sugar plantations slavery and capitalism were all present at the birth of the Atlantic world has long dominated scholarly thinking In nine original essays by a multinational group of top scholars Tropical Babels re evaluates this so called sugar revolution The most comprehensive comparative study to date of early Atlantic sugar economies this collection presents a revisionist examination of the origins of society and economy in the Atlantic world Focusing on areas colonized by Spain and Portugal before the emergence of the Caribbean sugar colonies of England France and Holland these essays show that despite reliance on common knowledge and technology there were considerable variations in the way sugar was produced With studies of Iberia Madeira and the Canary Islands Hispaniola Cuba Brazil and Barbados this volume demonstrates the similarities and differences between the plantation colonies questions the very idea of a sugar revolution and shows how the specific conditions in each colony influenced the way sugar was produced and the impact of that crop on the formation of tropical Babels multiracial societies of great oppression Contributors Alejandro de la Fuente University of Pittsburgh Herbert Klein Columbia University John J McCusker Trinity University Russell R Menard University of Minnesota William D Phillips Jr University of Minnesota Genaro Rodríguez Morel Seville Spain Stuart B Schwartz Yale University Eddy Stols Leuven University Belgium Alberto Vieira Centro de Estudos Atlânticos Madeira

Defining Nations Tamar Herzog, 2008-10-01 In this book Tamar Herzog explores the emergence of a specifically Spanish concept of community in both Spain and Spanish America in the eighteenth century Challenging the assumption that communities were the natural result of common factors such as language or religion or that they were artificially imagined Herzog reexamines early modern categories of belonging She argues that the distinction between those who were Spaniards and those who were foreigners came about as local communities distinguished between immigrants who were judged to be willing to take on the rights and duties of membership in that community and those who were not
