D. W. Griffith's The Birth of a Nation Jenny Barrett, Douglas Field, Ian Scott, 2022-12-27 In 1915 American filmmaker D. W. Griffith released a film that went on to become one of the most controversial of all time. Over a century later The Birth of a Nation continues to stimulate debate on the relationship between Hollywood and racism. This volume reveals new perspectives on Griffith's film across ten original chapters, re-considering it as a text, historical milestone and influence. The volume also includes a helpful timeline that lists key publications and events in Birth's ongoing history, revealing the rich and stimulating discourse on its art, its cultural impact and its ethical dimensions.

The Fantastic Other Brett Cooke, George E. Slusser, Jaume Martí-Olivella, 2022-06-08 The Fantastic Other is a carefully assembled collection of essays on the increasingly significant question of alterity in modern fantasy: the ways in which the understanding and construction of the Other shapes both our art and our imagination. The collection takes a unique perspective, seeing alterity not merely as a social issue but as a biological one. Our fifteen essays cover the problems posed by the Other, which after all go well beyond the bounds of any single critical perspective. With this in mind, we have selected studies to show how insights from deconstruction, Marxism, feminism and Freudian, Jungian and evolutionary psychology help us understand an issue so central to the act of reading.

Border Bodies Bernadine Marie Hernández, 2022-03-10 In this study of sex, gender, sexual violence and power along the border, Bernadine Marie Hernández brings to light underheard stories of women who lived in a critical era of American history. Elaborating on the concept of sexual capital, she uses little-known newspapers and periodicals, letters, testimonios, court cases, short stories and photographs to reveal how sex, violence and capital conspired to govern not only women's bodies but their role in the changing American Southwest. Hernández focuses on a time when the borderlands saw a rapid influx of white settlers who encountered elite landholding Californios, Hispanos and Tejanos. Sex was inseparable from power in the borderlands and women were integral to the stabilization of that power. In drawing these stories from the archive, Hernández illuminates contemporary ideas of sexuality through the lens of the borderlands' history of expansionist, violent and gendered conquest. By extension, Hernández argues that Mexicana, Nuevomexicana, Californiana and Tejana women were key actors in the formation of the western United States, even as they are too often erased from the region's story.

The Smells and Senses of Antiquity in the Modern Imagination Adeline Grand-Clément, Charlotte Ribeyrol, 2021-12-16 This volume tackles the role of smell, underexplored in relation to the other senses in the modern rejection, reappraisal and idealisation of antiquity. Among the senses, olfaction in particular has often been overlooked in classical reception studies due to its evanescent nature, which makes this sense difficult to apprehend in its past instantiations. And yet the smells associated with a given figure or social group convey a rich imagery which in turn connotes specific values perfumes scents and foul odours both reflect and mould the ways in which a society thinks or acts Smells also help to distinguish between male and female citizens and strangers and play an important role during rituals The Smells and Senses of Antiquity in the Modern Imagination focuses on the representation of ancient smells both enticing and repugnant in the visual and performative arts from the late 18th century up to the 21st century The individual contributions explore painting sculpture literature and film but also theatrical performance museum exhibitions advertising television series historical reenactment and graphic novels which have all played a part in reshaping modern audiences perceptions and experiences of the antique

Decadence and Orientalism in England and Germany, 1880-1920 Katharina Herold-Zanker, 2024-04-05 Decadence and Orientalism in England and Germany 1880 1920 examines the Orientalist portrayal of Middle Eastern cultures in Decadent Literatures in England and Germany at the turn of the century This book argues that the role of Orientalism in literary Decadence uniquely exposes its paradoxical engagement with other cultures In bringing together two fin de si cle European literatures this comparative study makes a case for the transnational if not imperial nature of Decadence The East emerges as an indispensable mediator between various versions of European Decadence The book examines the role of the East with specific reference to selected English and German authors starting from Oscar Wilde s Victorian vision of Egypt and Arthur Symons s and Violet Fane s image of Constantinople it moves to Paul Scheerbart s and Else Lasker Sch ler s Decadent Babylon and Assyria and concludes by turning to Stefan George s exclusion of the East from his poetic practice The geographical reach of the East focuses on regions of the Eastern Mediterranean and Northern Africa The cultural translation of specifically the Middle East into different European national contexts gains new sometimes oppositional meanings avoiding a one sided representation of both the East and the two national literatures that absorbed it In arguing for a Decadent cosmopolitanism as a model of heterogeneous inclusivity that reaches beyond the binaries established by Edward Said s Orientalism the present book brings twenty first century theories of cosmopolitanism into dialogue with art history and literature to uncover striking synergies and interdependences between the different manifestations of Decadence in England and Germany
