Roland, 2010-10-30 Sickness starvation brutality and forced labour plagued the existence of tens of thousands of Allied POWs in World War II More than a quarter of these POWs died in captivity Long Night's Journey into Day centres on the lives of Canadian British Indian and Hong Kong POWs captured at Hong Kong in December 1941 and incarcerated in camps in Hong Kong and the Japanese Home Islands Experiences of American POWs in the Philippines and British and Australians POWs in Singapore are interwoven throughout the book Starvation and diseases such as diphtheria beriberi dysentery and tuberculosis afflicted all these unfortunate men affecting their lives not only in the camps during the war but after they returned home Yet despite the dispiriting circumstances of their captivity these men found ways to improve their existence keeping up their morale with such events as musical concerts and entertainments created entirely within the various camps Based largely on hundreds of interviews with former POWs as well as material culled from archives around the world Professor Roland details the extremes the prisoners endured from having to eat fattened maggots in order to live to choosing starvation by trading away their skimpy rations for cigarettes No previous book has shown the essential relationship between almost universal ill health and POW life and death or provides such a complete and unbiased account of POW life in the Far East in the 1940s A Long Night's Journey Into Day Herbert A. Goertz, 2023-03-10 A Long Night's Journey into Day is the story of a young boy growing up in Nazi Germany At first he is seduced by the propaganda and glitter of the Thousand Year Reich as Adolf Hitler liked to refer to his rule but the guidance of his parents and a slowly growing awareness of the bigotry and brutality of the regime saved him from being wholly taken in by the ever present indoctrination into the ideology of Nazism The book ends with a defense of democracy as a bulwark against unchecked evil in government and with a passionate repudiation of all forms of prejudice and racism

Long Night's Loving Anne Mather, 2015-08-17 He could still make her want him Maggie would never have made the journey to Northumberland to see her ex husband if it hadn't been for their rebellious teenage daughter Lindsey had formed a disastrous relationship and Neil was the only person who could help Clearly Maggie's treacherous betrayal some years ago still rankled with Neil because why else would he so provoke and humiliate her She was ashamed of the fact that he could still make her want him while seemingly remaining detached himself Surely he must be involved enough to want to help Lindsey even if he suspected she might be another man's child
