The Long Journey Home David Bedford, 2001 A puppy helps lost baby animals find their way home and they help him on his long journey home The Long Journey Home Maudy G. Testro-Meijer, 2024-08-19 The story of Harry and Christine Meijer on its face is not unique Throughout history countless individuals have endured immense physical and psychological trauma as a result of war and authoritarian regimes These tyrannical leaders motivated by a desire for absolute control and subjugation of the population inflicted immense suffering upon civilian populations Born in a country under colonial rule Harry and Christine in their formative years were undoubtedly marked by a confluence of economic and cultural challenges However the true crucible of their lives emerged at the dawn of their adulthood when they were confronted with adversities of unimaginable magnitude Their narrative encompasses the reality of lingering PTSD suffered by Harry and Christine which significantly impacted their nine children during tumultuous migrations across three continents demanding constant adaptation to unfamiliar cultures and languages Despite facing these significant hardships the remarkable resilience and ultimate triumph over adversity stands as a powerful testament to the human spirit's capacity for perseverance Grounded in meticulous historical detail and enriched with poignant anecdotes this work offers readers the opportunity to glean novel insights into the hardships endured by millions in the South Pacific during World War II and also serves as a source of inspiration for overcoming their own challenges

The Long Journey Home Don Coldsmith, 2002-05-19 A Native American track star training for the Olympics in the early part of the 1900s meets 1912 gold medal winner Jim Thorpe and Bill Pickett the black cowboy who invented steer wrestling THE LONG JOURNEY HOME (The Lanterncup Series) Marcus Tay, 2016-04-12 12 years old Author Marcus Tay The Lanterncup series 3 Ian and the Crystal Recovered Squad had made it alive to their destination the Shadow Clan territory They are highly vulnerable because they are not indigenous and seen as a threat But a big question is would Shadow Clan accept their gift the Lost Crystal of Len Soon Ian realizes they are under the control of The Haunter already and are too late They leave and start on the trek back to Yart But it is not easy due to The Haunter chasing after them In this novel there is a rising action that will lead to the last straw How far will they put their lives in danger for the sake of each other What is the price for a pure sacrifice How much can they withstand the forces of evil The trip back will be a very tough one

The Long Journey Home Margaret Robison, 2011-05-17 First introduced to the world in her sons now classic memoirs Augusten Burroughs's Running with Scissors and John Elder Robison's Look Me in the Eye Margaret Robison now tells her own haunting and lyrical story A poet and teacher by profession Robison describes her Southern Gothic childhood her marriage to a handsome brilliant man who became a split personality alcoholic and abusive husband the challenges she faced raising two children while having psychotic breakdowns of her own and her struggle to regain her sanity Robison grew up in southern Georgia where the facade of 1950s propriety masked all sorts of demons including alcoholism misogyny repressed homosexuality and suicide She met her husband John Robison in college and together they moved up north where John embarked upon a successful academic career and Margaret brought up the children and worked on her art and poetry Yet her husband s alcoholism and her collapse into psychosis and the eventual disintegration of their marriage took a tremendous toll on their family Her older son John Elder moved out of the house when he was a teenager and her younger son Chris who later renamed himself Augusten never completed high school When Margaret met Dr Rodolph Turcotte the therapist who was treating her husband she felt understood for the first time and quickly fell under his idiosyncratic and eventually harmful influence Robison writes movingly and honestly about her mental illness her shortcomings as a parent her difficult marriage her traumatic relationship with Dr Turcotte and her two now famous children Augusten Burroughs and John Elder Robison who have each written bestselling memoirs about their family She also writes inspiringly about her hard earned journey to sanity and clarity An astonishing and enduring story The Long Journey Home is a remarkable and ultimately uplifting account of a complicated afflicted twentieth century family

The Long Journey Home from Dak To Warren M. Denny, 2003-08-03 The author fanaticized about combat and played war games in his youth War is not a game Combat wasn't this fantasy for him in real life This book tells the story of a Kansas boy who grew up quickly serving as a combat platoon leader in the Vietnam War It shares his exploits with A Company 4 503 173 Airborne Brigade His platoon was very unlucky in the June November 1967 campaign as the Fire Brigade took on the NVA in Dak To His actions are reported in at least two documentary books dealing with individual firefights in the Central Highlands during that period This is the unpolished truth about the brutal war and how really futile it was to go toe to toe against a better prepared army and survive The author gives unembellished reports of what his unit experienced and backs it up with the Battalion After Action Reports He acknowledges he is alive today only because of superior tactical air support and artillery firepower This book gives an entirely different viewpoint than most books authored by Vietnam veterans While his observations may be controversial to some vets it reflects the author's objective opinion of what he experienced there A Long Journey Home Luis Eduardo Pérez Murcia, 2025-09-01 Advancing contemporary scholarly debates on the role of home in understanding displacement and emplacement A Long Journey Home explores powerful personal narratives from Colombia The book examines the experiences of those whose sense of home has been disrupted by decades of conflict and violence It highlights the profound feelings of loss and the enduring struggle of living without a home an experience that can last for years or even decades Through these stories the book reveals how internally displaced people use creativity and imagination to remake their home while on the move East to West across Russia: The Long Journey Home Daniel C.A.

Christianson, 2024-08-16 Embark on a captivating journey across the vast Russian steppe aboard the iconic Trans Siberian Railway in this modern tale of self discovery and introspection The narrator known only as D begins his westward voyage in Vladivostok traversing the ever changing landscapes that unfold before him As time moves inexorably onward the everyday lives of the passengers intertwine with the rhythmic churning of the train's propellers contrasting sharply with the raw silence of the natural world beyond the windows As the journey progresses D's physical expedition takes an unexpected turn delving into the depths of his own psyche A haunting presence N permeates the narrative her essence imbued in the natural world particularly at the breathtaking Lake Baikal in Siberia N represents the one who got away leaving a void and a profound fragility within D's soul scattering her ghostly influence across the many places his footsteps tread Immersed in the tranquil vistas of the external world D finds himself enamoured by the everyday characters he encounters along the way As he navigates the complexities of his inner turmoil and the beauty of his surroundings the narrator embarks on a transformative odyssey The D who began his journey in Vladivostok will inevitably be different from the one who arrives in Moscow at journey's end but what will this transformation entail Join D on this introspective voyage as he unravels the mysteries of his past present and future on the Trans Siberian Railway Prague: My Long Journey Home Charles Ota

Heller, 2011-12-14 Author Charles Ota Hells early childhood in Czechoslovakia was idyllic but his safe and happy world didnt last long Three years after his birth Germany forced an occupation of his country afterward most of his young life consisted of running and hiding His life just like those of the other youths who lived in Europe during the late 1930s and early 1940s was shaped forever by the dangers horrors and unsettling events he experienced In this memoir Heller born Ota Karel Heller narrates his familys story a family nearly destroyed by the Nazis Son of a mixed marriage he was raised a Catholic and was unaware of his Jewish roots even after his father escaped to join the British army and fifteen members of his family disappeared Prague My Long Journey Home tells of his Christian mother being sent to a slave labor camp and of his hiding on a farm to avoid deportation to a death camp With the war coming to a close Heller tells of how he picked up a revolver and shot a Nazi when he was just nine years old Heller now an assimilated American left the horrors of the past along with his birth name behind to live the proverbial American Dream In his memoir he recalls how two cataclysmic events following Czechoslovakias Velvet Revolution brought him face to face with demons of his former life On his personal journey Heller discovered and embraced his heritage one which he had abandoned decades earlier
