Ghosts, Metaphor, and History in Toni Morrison's Beloved and Gabriel Garcia Marquez's One Hundred Years of Solitude
D. Erickson, 2009-03-16 This study examines the complex relations between the figure of the ghost the textual figure of metaphor and history in Toni Morrison's Beloved and Gabriel Garcia Marquez's One Hundred Years of Solitude Ghosts across Kentucky William Montell, 2010-09-12 Lynwood Montell has collected ghost tales all over the state of Kentucky from coal mining settlements to river landings from highways to battlefields He presents these suspense filled stories just as he first heard or read them as bona fide personal experiences or as events witnessed by family members or friends There are over 250 stories in Ghosts across Kentucky that are set in specific places and times They include tales of graveyards haunted dormitories animal ghosts and vanishing hitchhikers Montell describes weird lights unexplained sounds felt presences and disappearing apparitions Phantom workmen fallen soldiers young lovers and executed criminals appear in these pages along with the living who chance upon them Though the focus is on the stories themselves Montell also includes a chapter explaining our fascination with the supernatural and the deep truths these storytelling traditions reveal about our lives and our pasts William Lynwood Montell emeritus professor of folk studies at Western Kentucky University is the author of several books including Killings Twin Cities Haunted Handbook Jeff Morris, Garrett Merk, Dain Charbonneau, 2012-09-11 Twin Cities Haunted Handbook is the newest book in the Haunted Handbook line within the popular America's Haunted Road Trip series The Haunted Handbooks are city specific travel guides to nearly one hundred places within a major city Twin Cities Haunted Handbook is written with the ghost enthusiast in mind All 100 chapters contain information on the history as well as the haunting surrounding each location as well as detailed directions on how to locate each site Many of the chapters also contain insider information that only a local would know making it easier for ghost hunters to investigate Ghost hunters Jeff Morris Garrett Merk and Dain Charbonneau explore all the best haunted locales Minneapolis has to offer including Dead Man's Pond Memorial Pet Cemetery Padelford Packet Boat Company the Old Jail Bed and Breakfast and St Thomas College and the Legend of the 13 Graves Each two page entry includes directions from downtown an historical overview of the haunted place the story of ghostly doings in that place and advice on visiting the place yourself if you dare Archaeology, Narrative, and the Politics of the Past Julia A. King, 2012-07-15 In this innovative work Julia King moves nimbly among a variety of sources and disciplinary approaches archaeological historical architectural literary and art historical to show how places take on convey and maintain meanings Focusing on the beautiful Chesapeake Bay region of Maryland King looks at the ways in which various groups from patriots and politicians of the antebellum era to present day archaeologists and preservationists have transformed key landscapes into historical indeed sacred spaces The sites King examines include the region's vanishing tobacco farms St Mary's City established as Maryland's first capital by English settlers in the seventeenth century and Point Lookout the location of a prison for captured Confederate soldiers during the Civil War As the author explores the historical narratives associated with such places she uncovers some surprisingly durable myths as well as competing ones St Mary's City for example early on became the center of Maryland's founding narrative of religious tolerance a view commemorated in nineteenth century celebrations and reflected even today in local museum exhibits and preserved buildings And at Point Lookout one private group has established a Confederate Memorial Park dedicated to those who died at the prison thus nurturing the Lost Cause ideology that arose in the South in the late 1800s while nearby the custodians of a 1 000 acre state park avoid controversy by largely ignoring the area's Civil War history preferring instead to concentrate on recreation and tourism an unusually popular element of which has become the recounting of ghost stories As King shows the narratives that now constitute the public memory in southern Maryland tend to overlook the region's more vexing legacies particularly those involving slavery and race Noting how even her own discipline of historical archaeology has been complicit in perpetuating old narratives King calls for research particularly archaeological research that produces new stories and counter narratives that challenge old perceptions and interpretations and thus convey a more nuanced grasp of a complicated past
