Free, and Other Stories Theodore Dreiser, 1918 Clever boys, and other stories Clever boys, 1848 A Companion to the American Short Story Alfred Bendixen, James Nagel, 2020-08-24

A COMPANION TO THE AMERICAN SHORT STORY A Companion to the American Short Story traces the development of this versatile literary genre over the past two centuries. Written by leading critics in the field and edited by two major scholars, it explores a wide range of writers from Edgar Allan Poe and Edith Wharton at the end of the nineteenth century to important modern writers such as Ernest Hemingway, William Faulkner, F. Scott Fitzgerald, and Richard Wright. Contributions with a broader focus address groups of multiethnic, Asian, and Jewish writers. Each chapter places the short story into context, focusing on the interaction of cultural forces and aesthetic principles. The Companion takes account of cutting-edge approaches to literary studies and contributes to the ongoing redefinition of the American canon, embracing genres such as ghost and detective fiction, cycles of interrelated short fiction, and comic social and political stories. The volume also reflects the diverse communities that have adopted this literary form and made it their own, featuring entries on a variety of feminist and multicultural traditions. This volume presents an important new consideration of the role of the short story in the literary history of American literature.

The Columbia Companion to the Twentieth-Century American Short Story Blanche H. Gelfant, 2004-04-21

Esteemed critic Blanche Gelfant's brilliant companion gathers together lucid essays on major writers and themes by some of the best literary critics in the United States. Part 1 is comprised of articles on stories that share a particular theme, such as Working-Class Stories or Gay and Lesbian Stories. The heart of the book, however, lies in Part 2, which contains more than one hundred pieces on individual writers and their work, including Fitzgerald, Hemingway, Richard Ford, Raymond Carver, Eudora Welty, Andre Dubus, Zora Neal Hurston, Anne Beattie, Bharati Mukherjee, J. D. Salinger, and Jamaica Kincaid, as well as engaging pieces on the promising new writers to come on the scene.

The Kingdom of Beautiful Colours and Other Stories Isabel Wyatt, 2020-04-30

Once upon a time there was a kingdom of beautiful colours. In the middle of it stood a cloud mountain, and from the top of the cloud mountain you looked down on a wonderful rainbow, shining green and blue and yellow. The King must go on a long journey, so asks his four sons to care for the kingdom of beautiful colours. But the youngest prince has his own ideas about how that should be done. The Kingdom of Beautiful Colours is just one of seven wonderful tales in this collection by master storyteller Isabel Wyatt. The stories are full of ivory towers, great forests, golden lands, and the star of the sea, which will inspire and enchant any child. Suitable for children aged nine and up, this is a classic collection from the author of The Seven Year Old Wonder Book. A new revised edition, previously published as The Book of Fairy Princes.

More Stories I Lived Kenneth P. Campbell, Ken Campbell's first book of stories from his growing-up years and early adult life Stories I Lived was so captivating that it left readers with an appetite for more. More Stories I Lived will surely satisfy the palate and grab the imagination through the author's vivid folksy storytelling from a much simpler time when survival meant hard work and boys had the time to ride out on horseback and explore the rural wilderness. Campbell writes with humor and purpose as he tells the stories he lived and the hard-learned life lessons that survival gave him. From picking his first tomatoes to raising a willful pet sheep from exploring a hidden cave to sledding uncontrolled down a steep hill from enduring a home style haircut to corralling a run away horse. His stories will make you laugh and they will even make you wince. Yet don't worry everything will come out all right in the end and you'll come away having enjoyed the journey and learned something with the author as well. More wonderful tales from a true treasure. Uncle Kenny takes us to a simpler time with smiles aplenty and great life lessons along the way. Eric Brown, Ministerial Director, Upper Columbia Conference.

Dear Science and Other Stories Katherine McKittrick, 2020-12-14. In Dear Science and Other Stories Katherine McKittrick presents a creative and rigorous study of black and anticolonial methodologies. Drawing on black studies, studies of race, cultural geography and black feminism as well as a mix of methods, citational practices and theoretical frameworks, she positions black storytelling and stories as strategies of invention and collaboration. She analyzes a number of texts from intellectuals and artists ranging from Sylvia Wynter to the electronica band Drexciya to explore how narratives of imprecision and relationality interrupt knowledge systems that seek to observe, index, know and discipline blackness. Throughout McKittrick offers curiosity, wonder, citations, numbers, playlists, friendship, poetry, inquiry, song, grooves and anticolonial chronologies as interdisciplinary codes that entwine with the academic form. Suggesting that black life and black livingness are in themselves rebellious methodologies, McKittrick imagines without totally disclosing the ways in which black intellectuals invent ways of living outside prevailing knowledge systems.

The Fawn and Other Stories Thomas Grissom, 2020-08-21. These eclectic short works of fiction should be read as lyric essays of the human condition comparable in intensity and emotion to lyric poetry created out of the human spirit and brought to life by the experiences and imagination of the writer. Each story is a vignette of the human heart in conflict with itself as it struggles to resolve those human dilemmas that confront, confound and confuse us in making the choices that determine how we live our lives. The more troubling and controversial the questions, the more relevant and compelling and important the story. These are emotionally charged stories about things that matter: love and honor and pity and pride and compassion that speak truth to life's mysteries and perplexities, the only kind of stories worth writing or reading. Includes Readers Guide.

Heteromation, and Other Stories of Computing and Capitalism Hamid R. Ekbia,Bonnie A. Nardi,2017-05-11 An exploration of a new division of labor between machines and humans in which people provide value to the economy with little or no compensation The computerization of the economy and everyday life has transformed the division of labor between humans and machines shifting many people into work that is hidden poorly compensated or accepted as part of being a user of digital technology Through our clicks and swipes logins and profiles emails and posts we are more or less willingly participating in digital activities that yield economic value to others but little or no return to us Hamid Ekbia and Bonnie Nardi call this kind of participation the extraction of economic value from low cost or free labor in computer mediated networks heteromation In this book they explore the social and technological processes through which economic value is extracted from digitally mediated work the nature of the value created and what prompts people to participate in the process Arguing that heteromation is a new logic of capital accumulation Ekbia and Nardi consider different kinds of heteromated labor communicative labor seen in user generated content on social media cognitive labor including microwork and self service creative labor from gaming environments to literary productions emotional labor often hidden within paid jobs and organizing labor made up of collaborative groups such as citizen scientists Ekbia and Nardi then offer a utopian vision heteromation refigured to bring end users more fully into the prosperity of capitalism
