James MacDonald, 2016-10-03 Drawing from the experience of the Israelites who grumbled through the wilderness MacDonald shows how bad attitudes rob us of joy Coveting complaining and being critical are not what our hearts were made for They were made for thankfulness contentment and love Is your heart straining under the weight of a bad attitude

When Life is Hard James MacDonald, 2010-01-01 When life is hard really hard we often spend all our time pleading begging yelling refusing and questioning While none of these things are necessarily unusual they are missing the ultimate point When life is hard when things get ugly when all hope seems to be lost that is when we are able to display the superiority of the life lived in God It is in those moments of despair when we question what is happening when we don't know what to do when some trials never seem to end that we can lean most heavily on God's promises and truths Working his way through five questions we've all had run through our heads trusted pastor James MacDonald helps us understand what we should do now We begin the journey by looking at different types of trials figuring out exactly what we're dealing with and recognizing that God certainly knows Second the obvious question Why God sees us going through trials and we long for two things for them to be over and to know why they happened in the first place Next we need to know what to do with these trials when they come and they will most certainly come Fourth we have all wondered it can trials be refused Are God's purposes really being fulfilled in the midst of this trying time And lastly God reveals Himself to us through these trials and sometimes they just don't ever end Why doesn't this trial go away God told us to expect trials don't be surprised when they come Grow when they come Find hope when they come walk with Jesus Some don't know where to start others are held back by the past and still others are blinded or calloused by sin King David the man after God's own heart experienced this very thing and in Worn Out by Obedience he is presented as a spiritual mentor David is both flawed and on fire He is the person we are and the person we want to be In studying his extended stay in Ziklag 1 Samuel 27-30 readers will see how God often molds our hearts in seasons of brokenness loneliness and disappointment sometimes even in our disobedience If you are spiritually weary discouraged or exhausted Worn Out by Obedience will help you to keep going or start moving You'll learn the signs of spiritual fatigue and how to avoid them You'll see that God uses all our experiences good and bad to form Christ in us And you'll remember God's great grace of rescue recovery and restoration

Gripped by the Greatness of God James MacDonald, 2008-09-01 When was the last time you were really and truly gripped by God's greatness Most Christians recall heartfelt resolutions around a fire at bible camp as children and perhaps a revival meeting or two But what causes the fervor of those experiences to translate into a consistent life pattern Pastor and author James MacDonald believes that the better we understand God the better we understand ourselves and the less likely we are to favor our own will over God's He writes God is not safe and He will not be squeezed into some neat respectable Sunday discussion No To know God at all is to watch Him explode any box we put Him in with His terror majesty and indescribable wonder Expounding upon Isaiah's encounters with God MacDonald prods snoozing saints to rediscover the wonder of God's attributes He also shares candidly from his experiences in life and ministry where God proved Himself to be the Great I AM This book will spur new and seasoned believers alike to detest mediocrity in their spiritual walks Ideal for individual or small group study
