Major Social Problems:

Major Social Problems Earl Raab, Gertrude Jaeger Selznick, 1964 Major Social Problems Rudolph Michael Binder, 1920 A Determination of the Major Social Problems of American Life John Alpheus Hockett, 1927 A Determination of the Major Social Problems of American Life John A. Hockett, 1927 A Comparative Perspective on Major Social Problems Rita James Simon, 2001-01-01 In this volume Rita J Simon brings together a clearly organized and accessible collection of scholarly essays on the world's most pressing social problems. Each of the contributors address a specific issue: gambling, prisons, alcohol, AIDS, rape, juvenile justice, abortion, and guns, by examining the institutions and laws different societies have developed for containing them. Each of the countries selected represents a range of variations in political, economic, religious, ethical, social orientations and characteristics. This comparative and interdisciplinary world perspective makes Simon's edited volume uniquely relevant to political scientists, sociologists, criminologists, psychologists, and the broader audience of scholars and laypeople interested in the study of contemporary social problems.

Encyclopedia of Social Problems Vincent N. Parrillo, 2008-05-22 From terrorism to social inequality and from health care to environmental issues, social problems affect us all. The Encyclopedia will offer an interdisciplinary perspective into these and many other social problems that are a continuing concern in our lives, whether we confront them on a personal, local, regional, national, or global level. Major Social Problems Rudolph Michael Binder, 2015-06-14 Excerpt from Major Social Problems: Plans and schemes by the hundred have been worked out to meet the new conditions growing out of the World War. They attack this evil and remedy that situation. On the whole they leave us where we were because they deal with what may be called minor social problems. Underlying these minor problems are the major social problems which deal with fundamental principles and attitudes. The author has attempted to discuss these in the following pages. Unless we face the facts as we find them and try to find solutions for them, we may never succeed in evolving a better society. This task demands courage and an open mind. The author wishes to acknowledge his indebtedness directly to the late Frank Lester Ward, to Professors Franklin H. Giddings of Columbia University and Edward A. Ross of Wisconsin University, and to many other writers indirectly, although with no less sincere appreciation. The material of this book has been used in classes at New York University. References and questions for each chapter have been added at the end of the volume in the hope that other teachers may find them of use in their classes.
