Escape from Memory Margaret Peterson Haddix, 2010-05-11 Well I m sure I don t have any secrets I said trying to sound certain Can t we just tell them that Mom s steady gaze was driving me crazy Oh she said slowly but that s where you re wrong You see you do have the secrets You know them When Kira agrees to let her friends hypnotize her at a slumber party she has no idea that she will reveal secrets even she didn t know she had memories of fleeing a war torn country with her mother understanding a language she can t identify Then her mother disappears and a woman calling herself Aunt Memory takes Kira to Crythe a place that doesn t officially exist in order to rescue her mother or so Kira thinks She soon learns that there are memories locked in her mind that place her and her mother in grave danger but those memories are also the only thing that might save them In Escape from Memory award winning author Margaret Peterson Haddix imagines a culture that values its memories above everything else and a teen who has to make the most important decision of her life The

The idea that our memories in some sense make us who we are is a common one and not at all implausible After all what could make us who we are if not the things we have experienced thought felt and desired on these idiosyncratic pathways through space and time that we call lives And how can we retain these experiences thoughts feelings and desires if not through memory On the other hand most of what we have experienced has been forgotten And there is now a considerable body of evidence that suggests that even when we think we remember our memories are likely to be distorted sometimes beyond recognition Imagine writing your autobiography only to find that that most of it has been redacted and much of the rest substantially rewritten What would hold this book together What would make it the unified and coherent account of a life The answer Mark Rowlands argues lies partially hidden in a largely unrecognized form of memory Rilkean memory A Rilkean memory is produced when the content of a memory is lost but the act of remembering endures in a new mutated form a mood a feeling or a behavioral disposition Rilkean memories play a significant role in holding the self together in the face of the poverty and inaccuracy of the contents of memory But Rilkean memories are important not just because of what they are but also because of what they were before they became such memories Acts of remembering sculpt the contents of memories out of the slabs of remembered episodes Our acts of remembering ensure that we are in the content of each of our memories present in the way a sculptor is present in his creation even when this content is lamentably sparse and endemically inaccurate

A Temporary Memory Marie Johnston, 2023-11-16 Nannyng two adorable kids was a way to support myself until I got on my feet again I wasn't supposed to fall for their stern single dad After a sudden bad breakup I land in a small town in the middle of nowhere cut off from all my accounts and resources I have a stalled dancing career a mom in long term care and no money Then I meet Alcott Cody Knight The type of guy I've learned to steer clear of driven rigid and devastating in a suit Only he also has two adorable kids and he needs a nanny for the summer For two months he'll pay more than I need to help my mom and myself For two months I'll take care of his kids give them dance lessons and see what a normal life could be like For two months I have to try not to fall for a guy who's hotter in jeans and cowboy boots than in a suit and treats me like I matter But my stay was only ever for a few months to get back on my feet so I can get my life back I might be used to leaving but I can't stop wishing Cody and I could be more than a temporary memory A Temporary Memory is a standalone novel in the Crocus Valley series formerly titled the Oil Knights series Topics contemporary romance series romantic suspense series mystery modern romance urban romance wealthy city romance smart romance mystery lighthearted romance hot romance sexy heartwarming heart warming family love love books kissing books emotional journey contemporary contemporary romance romance series wealthy hero sassy strong heroine captivating romance hot hot romance sparks loyalty swoon contemporary boss nanny forced marriage marriage arrangement morally gray hero beach read romantic vacation found family strong heroine caretaker protective hero steamy spicy Other readers enjoyed books by Riley Edwards Cat Johnson Alexis Abbott Lori Ryan Meghan March Kristin Ashley Brittney Sahin Sharon Hamilton Catherine Cowles Lexi Blake Piper Davenport Abbie Zanders Lani Lynn Vale Kristen Proby Vanessa Vale Denver Perry Corinne Michaels K Bromberg Melanie Harlow

In Loving Memory Diana Monique Soriano, 2022-11-21 This book is a reflection on finding my soul mate at a young age and then losing him to the war in Afghanistan It will describe my relationship with Bobby Pagan our deployment to Afghanistan being notified that he was killed in action the healing process and a snippet of how life has been after his loss My book will deliver a clear insight on what it is like to lose a loved one to war the events that took place after the casualty report was received and the journey through healing as I have lived on without my significant other This book will depict some very painful memories but will also entail a beautiful love story that unfortunately had a tragic end When my fiance was killed in action I went through the motions but I was numb and in utter shock When I was finally ready to accept and face my loss I felt so alone because people felt uncomfortable discussing the topic I want to take my readers on my journey through my eyes have them feel the raw emotions that I felt throughout the process and show them what I went through I also want to shed light on my experience of grief and mourning I want people who have lost a loved one to know that they are not alone and that there is no time limit on grieving If that concept alone can bring some sort of comfort to someone then I d have accomplished my mission in sharing my story I pray that this book somehow touches the heart of others especially those who have experienced a loss like I have There are no words that can ever make it any better but know that you are not alone

Marchmont Arthur,2023-11-01 The Man Without a Memory is a charming novel authored through Arthur W Marchmont a master of thriller and adventure fiction from the early 20th century This fascinating story takes readers on a journey into the enigmatic world of an amnesiac protagonist exploring the complexities of identification and memory The tale facilities round a person who awakens and not using a recollection of his past facing a clean slate and an uncertain destiny As he attempts to piece collectively the fragments of his lifestyles he s drawn into an internet of mystery and suspense The novel unfolds with a gripping narrative revealing hidden secrets and techniques unexpected alliances and a relentless pursuit of truth Marchmont s storytelling knowledge shines thru in The Man Without a Memory The novel is a thrilling blend of suspense individual improvement and a compelling plot which keeps readers on the brink of their seats The creator skillfully navigates the elaborate factors of identification reminiscence and the human psyche imparting a narrative that resonates with readers fascination with the unknown Creating Historical Memory Beverly Boutilier,Alison Prentice,2011-11-01 Canadian women have worked individually and collectively at home and abroad as creators of historical memory This engaging collection of essays seeks to create an awareness of the contributions made by women to history and the historical profession from 1870 to 1970 in English Canada Creating Historical Memory explores the wide range of careers that women have forged for themselves as writers and preservers of history within outside and on the margins of the academy The authors suggest some of the institutional and intellectual locations from which English Canadian women have worked as historians and attempt to problematize in different ways and to varying degrees the relationship between women and historical practice The authors raise many interesting questions about how gender influences historical consciousness and whether looking at the past through women s eyes alters the view Women engaged in history in a wide variety of ways as authors of fiction popular history juvenilia and drama as well as more academic research and publishing They worked as individuals as both professional writers and academics and within formal and informal communities of women such as religious groups or local clubs The essays also talk about the barriers that existed for women who wanted to be recognized as historians and teachers of history and point out how gender differences have coloured perceptions of what constitutes history and who should write that history This anthology shows how instead of being intimidated or defeated by their marginalization women developed new and interesting ideas about what constituted history The final essay in the volume assesses the impact the burgeoning of feminist history in the 1970s had on the academy and examines the connection between feminist activism and women s history This original and lively book highlights the pioneering efforts of women in developing alternate paths to historical expression It makes an important contribution both to Canadian historical studies and to women s and gender history in the West and will appeal to scholars interested in Canadian history women s studies literature and historiography "My" Memory Lane Judy L. Werker,2005-06-14 Defining abuse is a personal subject It may be physical abuse mental abuse child abuse it takes many forms Do you know someone who may be going through this and don t know how to help them or know what to say Do you carry a burden for this person and want to help them Sometimes we just are not able to say or do anything but just maybe if you leave this book with them they can come up with a solution on their own and build their self esteem This book came straight from my heart with a message I hope to reach any person who may be experiencing abuse in their life in any form I firmly believe God allows us to experience things in our life that are not pleasant are sometimes down right hurtful in order for us to grow spiritually When we grow spiritually then comes the need to help others And love others Then comes the healing balm When we open these channels doing it freely and of our own will then the blessings come many many times over It s a wonderful circle of life meant to be shared
