Make Believe Family Romance:

Family Romance Jean Strouse, 2024-11-19 Jean Strouse captures the dramas mysteries intrigues and tragedies surrounding John Singer Sargent's portraits of the Wertheimer family Jean Strouse's Family Romance John Singer Sargent and the Wertheimers looks at twelve portraits of one English family painted by the expatriate American artist at the height of his career and at the intersections of all these lives with the sparkle and strife of the Edwardian age In commissioning this grand series of paintings Asher Wertheimer an eminent London art dealer of German Jewish descent became Sargent's greatest private patron and close friend The Wertheimers worked with Rothschilds and royals plutocrats and dukes as did Sargent Asher left most of his Sargent portraits to the National Gallery in London a gift that elicited censure as well as praise it was a new thing for a family of Jews to appear alongside the Anglo Saxon aristocrats and dignitaries painted by earlier masters Strouse's account set primarily in England around the turn of the twentieth century takes in the declining fortunes of the British aristocracy and the dramatic rise of new power and wealth on both sides of the Atlantic It travels back through hundreds of years to the Habsburg court in Vienna and forward to fascist Italy in the 1930s Its depictions of Sargent his sitters their friendships and circles and the portraits themselves light up a period that saw tumultuous social change and the birth of the modern art market Sargent brilliantly portrayed these transformations in which the Wertheimers were key players Family Romance brings their interwoven stories fully to life for the first time A Perverse Romance: a Tourist

Dance to Art and Satirical Provocation Pru La Motte, 2019-06-17 A Perverse Romance is a satirical tale of artist Hephzibah Brown who is persuaded by Cedric the Imp of Perversity to follow him to the recently independent Ghana following with the temptation that they will compose a tourist book for him to write and for her to illustrate She does follow but knowing his unreliability she changes it to a book about tourists one a pragmatist and the other an idealist And more than this her tourists will be women The novel becomes an examination of real life being a form of transience How I use satire Satire is the uncomfortable life of being disturbed but draws to our notice the human capacity of doubling our subjective thinking This is a philosophical impact which philosopher Thomas Nagel brought to my attention in mind and cosmos materialism Subtracts from the physical world as its major object is everything mental consciousness meaning intention or purpose It is the absence known but ignored too hard Subjectivity becomes fictive but remains to challenge through satire Veiled Desires

Maureen Sabine, 2013-08-22 Ingrid Bergman's engaging screen performance as Sister Mary Benedict in The Bells of St Mary's made the film nun a star and her character a shining standard of comparison She represented the religious life as the happy and rewarding choice of a modern woman who had a complete understanding of both erotic and spiritual desire How did this vibrant and mature nun figure come to be viewed as girlish and naïve Why have she and her cinematic sisters in postwar popular film so often been stereotyped or selectively analyzed so seldom been seen as women and religious In Veiled Desires a unique full length in depth look at nuns in film Maureen Sabine explores these questions in a groundbreaking interdisciplinary study covering more than sixty years of cinema She looks at an impressive breadth of films in which the nun features as an ardent lead character including The Bells of St Mary's 1945 Black Narcissus 1947 Heaven Knows Mr Allison 1957 Sea Wife 1957 The Nun's Story 1959 The Sound of Music 1965 Change of Habit 1969 In This House of Brede 1975 Agnes of God 1985 Dead Man Walking 1995 and Doubt 2008 Veiled Desires considers how the beautiful and charismatic stars who play chaste nuns from Ingrid Bergman and Audrey Hepburn to Susan Sarandon and Meryl Streep call attention to desires that the veil concealed and the habit was thought to stifle In a theologically and psychoanalytically informed argument Sabine responds to the critics who have pigeonholed the film nun as the obedient daughter and religious handmaiden of a patriarchal church and the respectful audience who revered her as an icon of spiritual perfection Sabine provides a framework for a more complex and holistic picture of nuns onscreen by showing how the films dramatize these women's Christian call to serve sacrifice and dedicate themselves to God and their erotic desire for intimacy agency achievement and fulfillment

The Sidney Family Romance Gary Fredric Waller, 1993 William Herbert 1580-1633 third earl of Pembroke and Lady Mary Wroth 1587-1653 were first cousins the nephew and niece of Sir Philip Sidney whose family was one of remarkable literary and political importance Herbert was a poet a voluminous letter writer and one of the Jacobean court's richest and most powerful courtiers and politicians Wroth was arguably the most important woman writer of the period she authored the first Petrarchan poetic sequence the first prose romance and one of the first plays in English by a woman In addition to their connections as cousins and as writers they were lovers and the parents of two illegitimate children The Sidney Family Romance is both a cultural biography and a symptomatic reading of the sexual and textual relationships of Herbert and Wroth Waller's analysis of their letters and literary works relies on a variety of critical apparatuses social history current political and social theories of the Jacobean period and most notably feminist psychoanalytic theory In both his biographical information and interpretive comments Waller focuses on subject construction and gender construction of the early modern period to find that Herbert's poems proceed from his life at court to engage in the gender politics of Petrarchan poetry while Wroth's work proceeds from her disempowered position to project a desire for an autonomy which would lead to mutuality between the sexes Waller tries to find ways of analyzing the inner lives of his subjects in the absence of direct evidence and with a paucity of documentation He examines historical documents including the writings of the two cousins and recent historical research along with contemporary studies of family interactions and gender construction and detailed case histories drawn from nearly a century of clinical and therapeutic studies The author concludes with a discussion of the crisis of gender in the seventeenth century as a contemporary crisis as well Family history has long been central to Renaissance studies The Sidney Family Romance proceeds far beyond any previous works in bringing to bear the very rich and complicated network of ideas observations and literary images in the works of Herbert and Wroth

Maxine Hong Kingston's Broken Book of Life Maureen Sabine,2004-02-29 The numerous studies of Maxine Hong Kingston s touchstone work The Woman Warrior fail to take into account the stories in China Men which were largely written together with those in The Woman Warrior but later published separately Although Hong Kingston s decision to separate the male and female narratives enabled readers to see the strength of the resulting feminist point of view in The Woman Warrior the author has steadily maintained that to understand the book fully it was necessary to read its male companion text Maureen Sabine s ambitious study of The Woman Warrior and China Men aims to bring these divided texts back together with a close reading that looks for the textual traces of the father in The Woman Warrior and shows how the daughter narrator tracks down his history in China Men She considers theories of intertextuality that open up the possibility of a dynamic interplay between the two books and suggests that the Hong family women and men may be struggling for dialogue with each other even when they appear textually silent or apart A Proposal at the Wedding Gina Wilkins,2014-03-01 You are cordially invited as the bachelor father of the bride falls for the sweet and single wedding planner Don t miss the Dreams of Love and Fateful Encounters Ethel S. Person, 2007-04-02 This groundbreaking study has been widely hailed for its focus on a human emotion generally considered impervious to rational analysis: romantic, passionate love. Ethel Person views romantic love as a powerful agent of change, arguing that it is as central to human culture as it is to human existence. This new edition of Dreams of Love and Fateful Encounters emphasizes the relevance of passion not only to lovers but also to mental health professionals whose patients often enter treatment because of love-related issues: from the inability to love or make a commitment to the perils of extramarital love to love sickness or loss of love. She forthrightly addresses not only the power of love to unlock the soul but also its inherent paradoxes and conflicts. Employing a philosophical perspective in order to understand the existential dilemmas posed by love and a cultural perspective in order to understand its cultural variability, Dr. Person breaks with contemporary intellectual and philosophical dismissive assumptions about romantic love. She acknowledges love's vital importance and power proposing that passion serves an important function not only for the individual but also for the culture while charging psychoanalysis with a reductionist emphasis on sexuality and psychopathology that has narrowed the focus of inquiry into love Among the issues she discusses are romantic love's sources in our early lives its relationship to imagination and creativity and its capacity to enable the lover to transcend the self how romantic love often demands a reordering of values and promotes personal growth by exposing the self to new risks and possibilities the transformational potential of transference love in the therapy process flaws in the common misperception that women are more influenced by romantic love than men considerations of homosexual love love across generations and love triangles focusing on the individual growth that can result from such relationships Citing accounts of love drawn from literature film and real life Person focuses on the lover's internal soliloquy and external dialogue with the beloved that can develop over an individual's life An uplifting resource for people experiencing failing or unorthodox romances Dreams of Love and Fateful Encounters boldly takes on issues pertinent to lovers to professionals who encounter patients for whom key conflicts revolve around romantic love and to anyone who has struggled to understand the importance of romantic love in his or her own life A FAMILY FOR
