Architectural Drawing and Imaginative Knowledge in Islamic and Western Traditions Hooman Koliji,2016-03-09 Contemporary technical architectural drawings in establishing a direct relationship between the drawing and its object tend to privilege the visible physical world at the expense of the invisible intangible ideas and concepts including that of the designer s imagination As a result drawing may become a utilitarian tool for documentation devoid of any meaningful value in terms of a kind of knowledge that could potentially link the visible and invisible This book argues that design drawings should be recognized as intermediaries mediating between the world of ideas and the world of things spanning the intangible and tangible The notion of the Imaginal as an intermediary between the invisible and visible is discussed showing how architectural drawings lend themselves to this notion by performing as creative agents contributing not only to the physical world but also penetrating the realm of concepts The book argues that this in between quality to architectural drawing is essential and that it is critical to perceive drawings as subtle bodies that hold physical attributes for example form proportion color highly evocative yet with no matter Focusing on Islamic geometric architectural drawings both historical and contemporary it draws on key philosophical and conceptual notions of imagination from the Islamic tradition as these relate to the creative act In doing so this book not only makes important insights into the design process and act of architectural representation but more broadly it adds to debates on philosophies of the imagination linking both Western and Islamic traditions

Religion and Violence in Western Traditions André Gagné, Jennifer Guyver, Gerbern S. Oegema, 2021-09-16 This book examines the connection between religion and violence in the Western traditions of the three Abrahamic faiths from ancient to modern times It addresses a gap in the scholarly debate on the nature of religious violence by bringing scholars that specialize in pre modern religions and scriptural traditions into the same sphere of discussion as those specializing in contemporary manifestations of religious violence Moving beyond the question of the authenticity of religious violence this book brings together scholars from a variety of disciplines Contributors explore the central role that religious texts have played in encouraging as well as confronting violence The interdisciplinary conversation that takes place challenges assumptions that religious violence is a modern problem that can be fully understood without reference to religious scriptures beliefs or history Each chapter focuses its analysis on a particular case study from a distinct historical period Taken as a whole these chapters attest to the persistent relationship between religion and violence that links the ancient and contemporary worlds This is a dynamic collection of explorations into how religion and violence intersect As such it will be a key resource for any scholar of Religious Studies Theology and Religion and Violence as well as Christian Jewish and Islamic Studies

Deconstructing Gender Stereotypes in Western Tradition María Dolores García Ramos, María José Ramos Rovi, 2023-11-28 Traditional feminine description and roles within Western literary and artistic cultural artifacts have tended to portray women in very a specific way one which creates disseminates and consolidates the gender roles which became foundational to heteropatriarchy and sometimes male chauvinism As an example women in poetry are often portrayed as fragile sweet romanticized creatures who ignite masculine desire or bolster male artists creativity In this sense most Western lyrical traditions present women as either objects of desire or inspirational muses These secondary roles which transform women into subalterns can also be seen in other artistic manifestations such as painting and sculpture or more recently films TV fictions graphic novels and videogames This volume offers a multidisciplinary approach to the topic of feminine representation in literature and the arts presenting womanhood from new perspectives which highlight feminine characters who have traditionally been neglected misrepresented or reduced to marginal roles
