Teaching for a Multifaith World Eleazar S. Fernandez,2017-05-05 When religious diversity is our reality radical hospitality to people of other faiths is not a luxury but a necessity More than necessary for our survival radical hospitality to religious diversity is necessary if we are to thrive as a global society By no means does the practice of hospitality in a multifaith world require that we be oblivious of our differences On the contrary it demands a respectful embrace of our differences because that is who we are Neither does radical hospitality require that we water down our commitment because faithfulness and openness are not contradictory We must be able to say with burning passion that we are open to the claims of other faiths because we are faithful to our religious heritage The essays in this book do not offer simply theological exhortations they offer specific ways of how we can become religiously competent citizens in a multifaith world Let us take the bold steps of radical openness with this book on our side Bibliographic Guide to Education 1994 New York Public Library,New York Public Library Staff,1995 This guide lists materials catalogued by Columbia University Teachers College during 1994 with additional entries from the New York Public Library for selected publications in the field All aspects of education are covered including American elementary and secondary education higher adult education early childhood education history and philosophy of education international and comparative education administration education of the culturally disadvantaged and physically challenged education of minorities education of women and administrative reports of departments of education in the US and abroad The listing is intended as a supplement to the Dictionary Catalogue of the Teachers College Library Columbia University G K Hall 1970 Forthcoming Books Rose Arny,1993-12 Boletin Internacional de Bibliografia Sobre Educacion ,1996 Books in Print ,1991 Religion in Life Orientation Chrissie Steyn,2000 Multi religious education is a reality in today s classroom but very few educators have received training in this particular field      The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2003      Multi-Faith Activity Assemblies Elizabeth Peirce,2003-12-16 Packed full of ideas for multi faith assemblies including stories songs drama activities and background information on six major world religions this book makes an essential addition to the staffroom bookshelf      A Fresh Look at Islam in a Multi-Faith World Matthew Wilkinson,2014-10-30 WINNER Cheryl Frank Memorial Prize International Association of Critical Realism A Fresh Look at Islam in a Multi Faith World provides a comprehensively theorised and practical approach to thinking systematically and deeply about Islam and Muslims in a multi faith world It makes the case for a contemporary educational philosophy to help young Muslims surmount the challenges of post modernity and to transcend the hiatuses and obstacles that they face in their interaction and relationships with non Muslims and visa versa It argues that the philosophy of critical realism in its original dialectical and metaReal moments so fittingly underlabours Bhaskar 1975 for the contemporary interpretation clarification and conceptual deepening of Islamic doctrine practice and education as to suggest a distinctive branch of critical realist philosophy specifically suited for this purpose This approach is called Islamic Critical Realism The book proceeds to explain how this Islamic Critical Realist approach can serve the interpretation of the consensual elements of Islamic doctrine such as the six elements of Islamic belief and the five pillars of Islamic practice so that these essential features of the Muslim way of life can help Muslim young people to contribute positively to life in multi faith liberal democracies in a globalising world Finally the book shows how this Islamic Critical Realist approach can be brought to bear in humanities classrooms by history religious education and citizenship teachers to help Muslim young people engage informatively and transformatively with themselves and others in multi faith contexts

World Faiths in Education W. Owen Cole,2018-12-07 First published in 1978 The world religions movement gave way to a new form of religious education which was wide ranging in content and open in approach This development raised a number of issues How broad should the syllabus be Should Humanism and Marxism be included How should Christianity be taught What role has the believer of any one faith in the teaching of RE As curriculum development gathers momentum so the need to discuss such questions becomes urgent This book is devoted to examining the place of world faiths in education by members of a variety of faiths It will help students and teachers to think their way through the many challenges facing RE today The book argues a new framework for the subject The contributors hope that they have provided a sign post pointing to a future in which all who are concerned that children should grow up with an understanding of the ultimate meaning of life whatever their own faiths may be able to work together to make the subject vital and worthwhile      Mentoring Religious Education Teachers in the Secondary School Helen Sheehan,2022-12-29 This book helps mentors working with beginning teachers of religious education to develop their own mentoring skills and provides the essential guidance their mentee needs as they navigate the roller coaster of their first years in the classroom Offering tried and tested strategies it covers the knowledge skills and understanding every mentor needs Practical tools offered include approaches for developing subject knowledge and lesson planning as well as guidance for the effective use of pre and post lesson discussion observations and target setting to support beginning religious education teachers Together with analytical tools for self evaluation this book is a vital source of support and inspiration for all those involved in developing the next generation of outstanding religious education teachers Key topics covered include the following Models of mentoring Your knowledge skills and understanding as a mentor Developing mentees religious literacy through classroom practice Supporting the planning of effective and creative RE lessons Developing mentees knowledge and skills in the RE curriculum Supporting the delivery and evaluation of lessons Observations and pre and post lesson discussions and regular mentoring meetings Helping new religious education teachers develop their professional practice Filled with the key tools needed for the mentor s individual development this book offers an accessible guide to mentoring religious education teachers with ready to use strategies that support inspire and elevate both mentors and beginning teachers alike
