Making Do How Women Survived The 30s:

Making Do Jeane Eddy Westin, 1976 An inspiring collection of human stories that show the survival of women in all walks of life in America in the 1930s Ripening Meridel Le Sueur, Elaine Hedges, 1990 This first and only comprehensive collection of the literary achievement of Meridel Le Sueur artist journalist political activist and feminist includes her best and most representative fiction reportage and autobiography from every decade since the twenties The New York Times Book Review wrote that this volume inspires belief in the power of a writer and a woman to prevail against poverty persecution and public neglect Le Sueur's consummate achievement as an artist is her transformation of colloquial speech into musical prose The Great Depression in Literature for Youth Rebecca L. Berg, 2004-11-17 No area of the United States was untouched by the Great Depression but the severity in which people experienced those significant years depended in large part on where in the nation they lived While dust choked the life out of Americans in the plains apples grew in abundance in the Northwest Unemployment driven poverty robbed urban dwellers of hearth and home while Upper plains farm women traded eggs and chickens like money This bibliography describes the youth literature and relevant resources written about the Great Depression all categorized by geographical location Students educators historians and writers can use this book to find literature specific to their state or region gaining a greater understanding of what the Great Depression was like in their locale The Great Depression was a pivotal period in our nation's history This annotated bibliography guides readers to biographies oral histories memoirs and recollections photograph collections fiction and nonfiction books picture books international resources and other reference sources The Works Progress Administration WPA state guides are included as well as literature about the federal theater arts and music projects A comprehensive listing of museums and state historical societies complement this reference For readers interested in learning about the Great Depression this is a must have resource Capitalist Patriarchy and the Case for Socialist Feminism Zillah R. Eisenstein, 2019-06-01 Fourteen provocative papers on the oppression of women in capitalist countries along with three articles on the subordinate position of women in two communist countries Cuba and China These important often path breaking articles are arranged in five basic sections the titles of which indicate the broad range of issues being considered Introduction motherhood reproduction and male supremacy socialist feminist historical analysis patriarchy in revolutionary society socialist feminism in the United States The underlying thrust of the book is toward integrating the central ideas of radical feminist thought with those pivotal for Marxist or socialist class analysis Labor and Desire Paula Rabinowitz, 2000-11-09 This critical historical and theoretical study looks at a little known group of novels written during the 1930s by women who were literary radicals Arguing that class consciousness was figured through metaphors of gender Paula Rabinowitz challenges the conventional wisdom that feminism as a discourse disappeared during the decade She focuses on the ways in which sexuality and maternity reconstruct the classic proletarian novel to speak about both the working class woman and the radical female intellectual Two well known novels bracket this study Agnes Smedley's Daughters of Earth 1929 and Mary McCarthy's The Company She Keeps 1942 In all Rabinowitz surveys more than forty novels of the period many largely forgotten Discussing these novels in the contexts of literary radicalism and of women's literary tradition she reads them as both cultural history and cultural theory Through a consideration of the novels as a genre Rabinowitz is able to theorize about the interrelationship of class and gender in American culture Rabinowitz shows that these novels generally dismissed as marginal by scholars of the literary and political cultures of the 1930s are in fact integral to the study of American fiction produced during the decade Relying on recent feminist scholarship she reformulates the history of literary radicalism to demonstrate the significance of these women writers and to provide a deeper understanding of their work for twentieth century American cultural studies in general

Great Depression Hamilton Cravens, 2009-07-14 An insightful collection of essays focused on American men women and children from a range of economic classes and ethnic backgrounds during the Great Depression Who were the people waiting in the bread lines and living in Hoovervilles Who were the migrants heading North and West Did anyone survive the Depression relatively unscathed Giving a voice to stories often untold Great Depression People and Perspectives covers the full spectrum of American life portraying the experiences of ordinary citizens during the worst economic crisis in the nation's history Great Depression shows how specific groups coped with the traumatic upheaval of the times including rural Americans women children African Americans and immigrants In addition it offers revealing chapters on the conflict between social scientists and policymakers responding to the crisis the impact of the Depression on the health of U S citizens and the roles that American technology and Hollywood movies played in helping the nation survive

Thank You, St. Jude Robert A. Orsi, 1996-01-01 The prize winning story of American women's devotion to St Jude the patron saint of hopeless causes Robert Orsi examines St Jude's rise to national popularity beginning in Chicago in 1929 when the daughters and granddaughters of Catholic immigrants called on the saint to help them during the tumultuous years of depression war and changing family lives 14 illustrations

Technology as Freedom Ronald C. Tobey, 2022-07-15 Before 1930 the domestic market for electrical appliances was segmented but New Deal policies and programs created a true mass market reshaping the electrical and housing markets and guiding them toward mandated social goals The New Deal identified electrical refrigeration as a key technology to reform domestic labor raise family health and build family assets New Deal incentives led to nearly fifty percent of Title I National Housing Act loans being used to buy electric refrigerators in the 1930s New Deal policies ultimately created the mass commodity culture of home owning families that typified the conservative 1950s This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1996

Chimes of Change and Hours Audrey Borenstein, 1983

Encompassing a variety of perspectives on the lives of older women in modern America this book is a rich mosaic drawing on demographic social psychological social historical economic and gerontological data and incorporating transcripts of oral histories interviews with women artists fiction and essays by and about women in the second half of their lives autobiographies diaries journals letters and other sources Mothers and Daughters of Invention Autumn Stanley, 1995 Stanley traces women's inventions in five vital areas of technology worldwide agriculture medicine reproduction machines and computers The Depression Dilemmas of Rural Iowa, 1929-1933 Lisa L. Ossian, 2012-01-01 To many rural Iowans the stock market crash on New York's Wall Street in October 1929 seemed an event far removed from their lives even though the effects of the crash became all too real throughout the state From 1929 to 1933 the enthusiastic faith that most Iowans had in Iowan President Herbert Hoover was transformed into bitter disappointment with the federal government As a result Iowans directly questioned their leadership at the state county and community levels with a renewed spirit to salvage family farms demonstrating the uniqueness of Iowa's rural life Beginning with an overview of the state during 1929 Lisa L. Ossian describes Iowa's particular rural dilemmas evoking through anecdotes and examples the economic nutritional familial cultural industrial criminal legal and political challenges that engaged the people of the state The following chapters analyze life during the early Depression new prescriptions for children's health creative housekeeping to stretch resources the use of farm playlets to communicate new information creatively and memorably the demise of the soft coal mining industry increased violence within the landscape and the movement to end Prohibition The challenges faced in the early Great Depression years between 1929 and 1933 encouraged resourcefulness rather than passivity creativity rather than resignation and community rather than hopelessness Of particular interest is the role of women within the rural landscape as much of the increased daily work fell to farm women during this time While the women addressed this work simply as making do Ossian shows that their resourcefulness entailed complex planning essential for families emotional and physical health Ossian's epilogue takes readers into the Iowa of today dominated by industrial agriculture and asks the reader to consider if this model that stemmed from Depression era innovation is sustainable Her rich rural history not only helps readers understand the particular forces at work that shaped the social and physical landscape of the past but also traces how these landscapes have continued in various forms for almost eighty years into this century Labor of Love, Labor of Sorrow Jacqueline Jones, 2009-12-29 The forces that shaped the institution of slavery in the American South endured albeit in altered form long after slavery was abolished Toiling in sweltering Virginia tobacco factories or in the kitchens of white families in Chicago black women felt a stultifying combination of racial discrimination and sexual prejudice And yet in their efforts to sustain family ties they shared a common purpose with wives and mothers of all classes In Labor of Love, Labor of Sorrow historian Jacqueline Jones offers a powerful account of the changing role of black women lending a voice to an unsung struggle from the depths of slavery to the ongoing fight for civil rights Women in the United States, 1830-1945 S. J.

Kleinberg,1999-08-23 Women in the United States 1830 1945 investigates women s economic social political and cultural history encompassing all ethnic and racial groups and religions It provides a general introduction to the history of women in industrializing America Both a history of women and a history of the United States its chronology is shaped by economic stages and political events Although there were vast changes in all aspects of women s lives gender the social roles imputed to the sexes continued to define women s and men s lives as much in 1945 as it had in 1830 The American Jewish Woman Jacob Rader Marcus,1981 Contains primary source material Education & the Great Depression David Hicks,2006 Education and the Great Depression Lessons from a Global History examines the history of schools in terms of pedagogies curricula policies and practices at the point of intersection with worldwide patterns of economic crisis political instability and social transformation Examining the Great Depression in the historical contexts of Egypt Turkey Germany Brazil and New Zealand and in the regional contexts of the United States including Virginia New York City Cleveland Chicago and South Carolina this collection broadens our understanding of the scope of this crisis while also locating more familiar American examples in a global framework The Routledge Companion to American Literary Journalism William Dow,Roberta Maguire,2019-11-13 Taking a thematic approach this new companion provides an interdisciplinary cross cultural and international study of American literary journalism From the work of Frederick Douglass and Walt Whitman to that of Joan Didion and Dorothy Parker literary journalism is a genre that both reveals and shapes American history and identity This volume not only calls attention to literary journalism as a distinctive genre but also provides a critical foundation for future scholarship It brings together cutting edge research from literary journalism scholars examining historical perspectives themes venues and genres across time theoretical approaches and disciplinary intersections and new directions for scholarly inquiry Provoking reconsideration and inquiry while providing new historical interpretations this companion recognizes interacts with and honors the tradition and legacies of American literary journalism scholarship Engaging the work of disciplines such as sociology anthropology African American studies gender studies visual studies media studies and American studies in addition to journalism and literary studies this book is perfect for students and scholars of those disciplines *Catalog of Copyright Entries.
