dominant binaries of modern and traditional West and East secular and religious and civilized and barbaric Between Warrior Brother and Veiled Sister responds to a number of important questions raised in connection with 9 11 The author considers how veiling intersects with other identity markers in nation state building and modern formations of gendered citizenship She shows how Islamic nationalism and fundamentalism are fed by a hybrid blend of images and myths of both pre Islamic and Islamic Iran as well as globally circulated patriarchal ideologies Immigrant Acts Lisa Lowe,1996 Argues that understanding Asian immigration to the United States is fundamental to understanding the racialized economic and political foundations of the nation Lowe discusses the contradictions whereby Asians have been included in the workplaces and markets of the U S nation state yet through exclusion laws and bars from citizenship have been distanced from the terrain of national culture In this uniquely interdisciplinary study Lowe examines the historical political cultural and aesthetic meanings of immigration in relation to Asian Americans back cover
