complementary and alternative medicine in the context of the social political and cultural influences that shape people's health. Divided clearly into three sections, this book sets out the general context of social change, consumption, and debate around the rise of public interest in CAM, argues for and against different classifications of CAM, critically assesses the importance of ethics and values to CAM practice, and how these inform what practitioners do. It focuses on the question of what people want, the changing and contested nature of health, and the nature of personal and social factors associated with the use of CAM, leading to a focus on therapeutic relationships. It examines the diversity of settings in which CAM takes place and the social, political, and economic milieu in which CAM is provided and used. Together with its accompanying text,

Complementary and Alternative Medicine: Structures and Safeguards it forms the core text for the Open University course K221 Perspectives on Complementary and Alternative Medicine.

Fundamentals of Nursing: Concepts and Competencies for Practice Ruth F. Craven, Constance Hirnle, Christine Henshaw, 2019-12-26. Providing a big picture approach to nursing practice, Fundamentals of Nursing: Concepts and Competencies for Practice, 9th Edition, instills the foundational knowledge and clinical skills to help your students think critically and achieve positive outcomes throughout the nursing curriculum and in today's fast-paced clinical settings. This revision immerses students in a proven nursing framework that clarifies key capabilities from promoting health to differentiating between normal function and dysfunction to the use of scientific rationales and the approved nursing process, and includes new Unfolding Patient Stories and Critical Thinking Using QSEN Competencies. NCLEX-style review questions online and within the book further equip students for the challenges ahead.

End of Life Choices Fiona Randall, Robert Silcock, Downie, 2010. Developments are taking place in palliative care in which patient choice has become a central idea, and patients have an enlarged idea of their best interests. This book creates debate among all those involved in care of the terminally ill, including specialists, policy makers, researchers, and ethicists.
