Science Journalism in the Arab World Abdullah Alhuntushi,Jairo Lugo-Ocando,2023-01-01 This book examines the main issues and challenges that science journalism faces in the MENA region while analyzing how journalists in these countries cover science and engage with scientists Most countries in the Middle East and North Africa region have set an ambitious goal for 2030 to transform their societies and become knowledge economies This means modernizing institutions and encouraging people to embrace Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics as part of their daily lives This books claims that the main vehicle to achieve this goal is science news reporting as it continues to be the main platform to disseminate scientific knowledge to the general public Simultaneously it is also poorly equipped to achieve this task Interviewing dozens of journalists the authors looked at specific areas such as the gender divide and its effects on science news reporting as well as the role of religion and culture in shaping journalism as a political institution The authors conclude that traditional normative assumptions as to why science reporting does not live up to expectations need to be reviewed in light of other more structural problems such as lack of skills and specialization in science communication in the region In so doing the book sets out to understand the past present and future of science news in one of the most challenging regions in the world for journalists Modern Arab Journalism Noha Mellor,2007-11-30 Modern Arab Journalism offers a new outlook in studying Arab news media It approaches its subject from an innovative angle asking a series of key questions How is Arab journalism different from or similar to journalism in other countries What defines the tasks of journalists Who has access to this field How is power distributed inside the field of Arab journalism When were the media programs launched at Arab universities and what characterizes them Although the field of Arab journalism has received tremendous attention from the public as well as journalistic circles around the world in recent times this book presents the first detailed exploration of the area opening up a new research agenda and challenging the concepts taken for granted in Arab media scholarship AI in the Middle East for Growth and Business Nehme Azoury,Georges Yahchouchi,2025-02-10 This book provides a comprehensive analysis of Artificial Intelligence in the Middle East focusing on its role in the business landscape It offers a multidisciplinary perspective integrating technology with cultural economic and policy analyses The book presents practical case studies and expert opinions offering real world context The content is organized for educational purposes with chapter summaries discussion prompts and recommendations for further reading The accessibility of the language respects the cultural sensitivities of the Middle East The book serves as a guide for leveraging AI for innovation and sustainable growth Being Young, Male and Saudi Mark C. Thompson,2019-10-03 Based on remarkable primary research this unique contemporary account of the lives of young Saudi men reveals a distinct group of voices Reporting in the MENA Region Mohammad Ayish,Noha Mellor,2015-10-22 In this consideration of media practice in the Arab region Mohammad Ayish and Noha Mellor explore the changing status and function of journalists and journalism given the new realities of reporting in the digital age The authors draw on focus group discussions interviews and social media traffic surveys to examine how social and new media have been integrated into Arab and pan Arab newsroom operations and harnessed to enhance engagement with an empowered audience Efforts to engage with audiences in social space Ayish and Mellor argue are part of a broad and long waged information war aimed at winning hearts and minds in the MENA region Social platforms present excellent opportunities to engage with audiences but the extent to which such opportunities can be realized are hamstrung by limits on free expression and online access and vary significantly from country to country and from media channel to media channel Overall Reporting in the MENA Region paints a comprehensive and contemporary picture of how today's Arab journalists perceive and use digital media
