Making Of Equal Opportunities Policies In Universities:

The Making of Equal Opportunities Policies in Universities Sarah Neal,1998 This is an exploration of how higher education in contemporary Britain has responded to questions of equal opportunities particularly questions of race what types of responses have been made and how effective they have been The book analyzes the political character of equal opportunities policies the process of their formation and the structure put in place to implement them Foregrounding research dilemmas the author draws upon four university case studies using both equal opportunities documents and interviews with key personnel She focuses on the institutional discourses which surround equal opportunities in the universities and is concerned not only with their treatment of the issues but also with the positions taken up by academic trade unions

Equal Opportunities in Colleges and Universities Maureen Farish,1995

Education Policy and Equal Opportunity in Japan Akito Okada,2011-12-01 In many societies today educational aims or goals are commonly characterized in terms of equality equal opportunity equal access or equal rights the underlying assumption being that equality in some form is an intelligible and sensible educational ideal Yet there are different views and lively debates about what sort of equality should be pursued in particular the issue of equality of educational opportunity has served as justification for much of the postwar restructuring of educational systems around the world The author explores different interpretations of the concept of equality of educational opportunity in Japan especially as applied to post World War II educational policies By focusing on the positions taken by key actors such as the major political parties central administrative bodies teachers unions and scholars he describes how their concepts have developed over time and in what way they relate to the making of educational policy especially in light of Japan s falling birthrate and aging society

Gender, Policy and Educational Change Sheila Riddell,Jane Salisbury,2003-05-20 Gender equality has been a major educational theme for the past two decades and has become interwoven with other policy themes including those of marketisation and managerialism Contributors to this strong collection are key researchers in their fields and seek to address the following questions What patterns are discernible in the educational attainment of girls and boys over the past two decades To what extent are changes attributable to gender equality policies What form have gender equality policies taken in different parts of the UK What has been the impact of European equality policies How have gender equality policies been experienced by particular groups including pupils from ethnic minority and working class backgrounds This book aims to take an overall look at how significant have been the changes in experiences aspirations and culture of girls and boys and male and female teachers It explores how attempts to improve equal opportunities in education have fared and examines the tensions and contradictions in recent policies

Equality and Inequality in Education Policy Liz Dawtrey,1995 Discusses the history and gendered nature of education policy and the impact of policies on practice in education The articles represent a range of views and approaches to education demonstrating the complexity of educational experience and the influence of class race culture and gender

Politics and Policy-Making in Israel's Education System Haim Gaziel,1996-01-01 This volume describes and analyses the structure of Israel's education system from a political and policy making perspective

Feminist Critical Policy Analysis II Catherine Marshall,2005-10-26 This text sets out to challenge the traditional power basis of the policy decision makers in education It contests that others who have an equal right to be consulted and have their opinions known have been silenced declared irrelevant postponed and otherwise ignored Policies have thus been formed and implemented without even a cursory feminist critical glance The chapters in this text illustrate how to incorporate critical and feminist lenses and thus create policies to meet the lived realities the needs aspirations and values of women and girls A particular focus is the primary and secondary sectors of education

The Under-Representation of Black and Minority Ethnic Educators in Education Chris Guy Vieler-Porter,2020-11-01 The Under Representation of Black and Minority Ethnic Educators in Education evidences that discrimination at an individual institutional and structural level is still experienced in the leadership of children's learning The analysis evaluates the extent to which under representation is a result of chance coincidence or design Based on original research using a mixed methods approach and drawing on Critical Race Theory this book examines the under representation of Black and minority ethnic BAME educators in education It identifies over 40 separate codes emerging from interviews with BAME leaders in children's learning These codes include surveillance isolation awareness of their position the need to be better professional development the complexity of racism and the difficulties of talking about racism The book contributes to educational leadership in questioning the extent to which equitable outcomes can be delivered when the education service is itself a site and source of inequality and discrimination It brings to front the suppressed narratives of under representation of people of colour and offers insights based on comprehensive data collection This book will be of great interest for academics researchers and post graduate students in the fields of education management and leadership Critical Race Theory and the Sociology of Education

Voicing Concerns Madeleine Arnot,Len Barton,1992-01-01 Since the early 1980s sociology of education has been the subject of serious criticism much of it emanating from supporters of the New Right in education The discipline has been depicted as subversive irrelevant and offering no really useful knowledge In this collection of original articles the authors seek to address such criticisms through an examination of key reforms The chapters thus provide a critical commentary on past work as well as identifying a series of agendas for future research and analysis Overall the intention is to encourage debate and dialogue

Education and Training Policy Inclusion of Students with Disabilities in Tertiary Education and Employment OECD,2011-05-16 This book examines the transition of young adults with disabilities from school to tertiary education and work

Reflecting On School Management Jennifer Evans,Anne Gold,2005-08-08 The

reorganisation of the education system within Britain has vastly increased the managerial responsibilities of those working in schools although the staff generally have received little management training In this book the various issues related to management are teased out and a selection of ideas and pragmatic solutions informing good practice are examined

Statutes and Ordinances of the University of Cambridge 2009 University of Cambridge,2009-10-08 The 2009 10 volume of the formal governing regulations of the University of Cambridge annually updated Security: Welfare, Crime And Society Cochrane, Allan,Talbot, Deborah,2008-10-01 Why is the concept of security so important in modern society Why do people and governments invest so much in the pursuit of different forms of security How do we make sense of the changing nature of the relationship between security and insecurity This book focuses on the concept of security as an idea an ideal and a practice and explores the ways in which it can shed light on the relationship between welfare and crime and the ambiguities that arise from them The authors investigate these issues by examining particular areas of social life and policy development with a focus that ranges from global to local and neighbourhood concerns The book is integrated with engaging activities such as case studies review and reflection sections Adopting an inter disciplinary approach to explore criminological and social policy perspectives the chapters reflect the increasingly blurred area between social and crime control policy and the way in which it is managed The contributors delve into the consequences and implications of policies and practices aimed at creating security which can all too often have the opposite effect Security is key reading for students in criminology social policy and social justice Racism and Equal Opportunity Policies in the 1980s Richard Jenkins,John Solomos,1989 This edition first published in 1989 looks at the problems of racism and equal opportunity in employment and government policies towards them in Britain It brings together a group of specialist contributors and covers the major areas of debate including the law policies towards unemployment job training and the labour market the role of the public and private sectors the role of trade unions the gap between policies and pronouncements on equal opportunity and their implementation and the related issue of sectarian discrimination in Northern Ireland It looks at the future prospects for equal opportunities and provides conclusions for policy In particular it aims to address important topics such as the assumptions underlying policies and whether they realistically reflect reality the actual effect of legislation and the relationship between power disparities in society as a whole and racial inequality Social Justice in Physical Education Daniel B. Robinson,Lynn Randall ,2016-04-25 The physical education classroom can be a site of discomfort for young people who occupy marginalized identities and a place where the normative beliefs and teaching practices of educators can act as a barrier to their inclusion This timely edited collection challenges pre service and in service teachers to examine the pedagogical practices and assumptions that work to exclude students with intersecting and diverse identities from full participation in physical and health education The contributors to this volume who consist of both experienced and emerging scholars from Canada the United States the United Kingdom Australia and New Zealand approach their topics from a range of social justice perspectives and interpretations Covering a variety of areas including disability gender sexuality race social class and religion Social Justice in Physical Education promotes a broader understanding of the sociocultural political and institutional practices and assumptions that underlie current physical education teaching Each chapter encourages the creation of more culturally relevant and inclusive pedagogy policy and practice and the discussion questions invite readers to engage in critical reflection Mapping a better way forward for physical and health education this text will be an invaluable resource for courses on social justice diversity inclusive education and physical education pedagogy      Families, Education, and Social Differences Ben Cosin, Margaret Hales, 1997 This book completes the series of readers for the Open University's undergraduate course EU208 Exploring Educational Issues A major theme of the book is the controversy around early years education and it looks at inequality issues      Education, Equality and Human Rights Mike Cole, 2006-08-21 With a new Preface by leading educationist Peter McLaren the updated second edition of this comprehensive book provides an important educational perspective on world wide equality issues for student teachers and teachers at all stages Each of the five equality issues of gender race sexuality disability and social class are covered as areas in their own right and in relation to education Written by experts in each particular field the chapters trace the history of the various issues up to the present and enable readers to assess their continuing relevance in the future      Education Policies in Europe Stavros Moutsios, Hans-Georg Kotthoff,
