Making Of The Mosaic A History Of Canadian Immigration Policy:

The Making of the Mosaic Ninette Kelley, Michael J. Trebilcock, 2010-01-01 A coherent and lively tale that traces in considerable detail the evolution of Canadian immigration policy Christopher G Anderson Journal of Canadian Studies A thorough account of Canada's immigration policies Any reader interested in immigration to Canada now has a one stop source for its history Douglas Fisher Ottawa Sun A closely textured well conceived narrative an ambitious work that is tremendously reader friendly Barbara Lorenzkowski Social History Masterful and meticulously documented J D Blackwell Choice A rich resource for scholars of Canadian immigration John Harles Canadian Journal of Political Science Eastern Encounters: Canadian Women's Writing about the East, 1867-1929 Shoshannah Ganz □, 2017-04-17 Eastern Encounters releases early Canadian women writers from a simple focus on autobiography and racial politics and interrogates their specific and sophisticated Asian influences With a compelling reconstruction of historical context Ganz has created perhaps the first book in a much needed series that will revisit Canadian nationalism through the important cultural exchanges she examines Though shaped with an Asian readership in mind Eastern Encounters is an important work for all who wish to challenge the notion that Judeo Christian traditions almost exclusively shaped early Canadian discourse The Unity of Public Law David Dyzenhaus, 2004-03-17 This book tackles the important topic of the relationship between three parts of the public law regime in a common law jurisdiction the common law of judicial review or the unwritten constitution the written constitution and public international law Thematic coherence is ensured by the fact that the papers were presented at a conference in early 2003 and then extensively revised and by a general focus on a path breaking decision of Canada's Supreme Court Baker The book thus contains a highly productive exchange between an international group of scholars on such themes as the rule of law judicial deference the separation of powers the role of human rights in common law reasoning on immigration and security matters and the nature of legal authority Canada and the World since 1867 Asa McKercher, 2019-09-19 This book is a history of Canada's role in the world as well as the impact of world events on Canada Starting from the country's quasi independence from Britain in 1867 its analysis moves through events in Canadian and global history to the present day Looking at Canada's international relations from the perspective of elite actors and normal people alike this study draws on original research and the latest work on Canadian international and transnational history to examine Canadians involvement with a diverse mix of issues from trade and aid to war and peace to human rights and migration The book traces four inter connected themes independence and growing estrangement from Britain the longstanding and ongoing tensions created by ever closer relations with the United States the huge movement of people from around the world into Canada and the often overlooked but significant range of Canadian contacts with the non Western world With an emphasis on the reciprocal nature of Canada's involvement in world affairs ultimately it is the first work to blend international and transnational approaches to the history of Canadian international relations Challenges of

Globalization and Inclusivity in Academic Research Chakraborty, Swati, 2024-02-19 As the world becomes increasingly interconnected complexities arise in ensuring inclusivity and diversity in research practices Challenges of Globalization and Inclusivity in Academic Research examines the impact of globalization on academic research within the domains of social sciences religion and technology Through meticulous analysis and case studies it dissects the multifaceted effects of globalization shedding light on how it has shaped research questions methodologies and teaching approaches in these critical disciplines This book is an exploration of challenges and a guidebook for positive change It navigates through topics such as unconscious bias in research gender representation in academia and ethical considerations in international collaborations It encourages readers to develop a nuanced understanding of the need for diversity and inclusivity in research practices laying the foundation for a more equitable and globally connected research community This book is ideal for researchers academics policymakers administrators Diversity Equity and Inclusion DEI advocates and cross cultural collaborators

Baptists and Public Life in Canada Gordon L. Heath, Paul R. Wilson, 2012-02-02 Public discussion about the relationship between religion and public life in Canada can be heated at times and scholars have recently focused on the historical study of the many expressions of this relationship The experience of Canada's smaller Protestant Christian groups however has remained largely unexplored This is particularly true of Canada's Baptists This volume the first produced by the Canadian Baptist Historical Society explores the connections between Baptist faith and Baptist activity in the public domain and expands the focus of the existing scholarship to include a wide range of Canadian Baptist beliefs attitudes perspectives and actions related to the relationship between Baptist faith and practice and public life

Strangers to Neighbours Shauna Labman, Geoffrey Cameron, 2020-09-23 As a leading country in global refugee resettlement Canada operates a unique program that allows private groups and individuals to sponsor refugees This innovative approach has received growing international attention but there remains a need for a more expansive understanding of the sponsorship framework and its potential implications within Canada and across the world Strangers to Neighbours explains the origins and development of refugee sponsorship paying particular attention to the unintended consequences and ethical dilemmas it produces for refugee policy The contributors to this collection draw upon law social science and philosophy to bring a more robust and objective perspective on Canada's historical experience with sponsorship into wider conversations about the refugee crisis and resettlement Together they present recent cases that exemplify how the model has been applied and how it functions while also analyzing the challenges that emerge in host sponsor relations This volume further examines how sponsorship has been implemented differently in countries such as the United States and Australia The first dedicated study of refugee sponsorship policy Strangers to Neighbours assembles leading scholars from a range of disciplines to consider whether

Canada's system is indeed a sustainable model for the world

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Migration Rubina Ramji, Alison Marshall, 2022-05-19 The Bloomsbury Handbook of Religion and Migration presents the story of religion and migration predominantly through the experiences of Muslims Sikhs Hindus and Buddhists considering intersectional issues including race ethnicity class gender and generation throughout Many chapters are grounded in embodied ethnography including participant observation fieldwork interviews oral history collections and qualitative analysis drawing on sociological and anthropological theory as well as non western and historical approaches to religion Chapters also chronicle migration in regional transnational multicultural and populist contexts examining everyday religiosity and religion across generations The volume includes chapters on Islam and Muslim identity Chinese and Vietnamese Buddhism Filipino and Korean religiosity and Polish Catholicism

Externalizing Migration Management Ruben Zaiotti, 2016-02-05 The extension of border controls beyond a country's territory to regulate the flows of migrants before they arrive has become a popular and highly controversial policy practice Today remote control policies are more visible complex and widespread than ever before raising various ethical political and legal issues for the governments promoting them The book examines the externalization of migration control from an interdisciplinary and comparative perspective focusing on remote control initiatives in Europe and North America with contributions from the fields of politics sociology law geography anthropology and history This book uses empirically rich analyses and compelling theoretical insights to trace the evolution of remote control initiatives and assesses their impact and policy implications It also explores competing theoretical models that might explain their emergence and diffusion Individual chapters tackle some of the most puzzling questions underlying remote control policies such as the reasons why governments adopt these policies and what might be their impact on migrants and other actors involved

Chinese Criminal Entrepreneurs in Canada, Volume I Alex Chung, 2019-03-09 This book explores the historical origins activities and structure of the archetypal new Asian criminal entrepreneurs in Canada known as The Big Circle Boys BCB It traces their illegal immigration abroad from Guangzhou the extent to which they are organised and violent and what the future holds for them in Canada The BCB s organisational features are examined against theories and legislation of organised crime to understand how they compare to other criminal entities For the first time a unique glimpse is provided into the workings of an elusive cellular network comprised of BCB dai lo bosses Through interviews and official documents their criminal undertakings and structural dimensions are pieced together to show how their interdependent and collaborative cells enabled them to form a dynamic criminal community This book speaks to those interested in how a collective of ethnic Chinese career criminals have replaced traditional criminal organisations in transnational criminal markets particularly for scholars and students of social sciences disciplines Migration, Temporality, and Capitalism Pauline Gardiner

Barber, Winnie Lem, 2018-05-08 Bringing together a range of illustrative case studies coupled with fresh theoretical insights this volume is one of the first to address the complexities and contradictions in the relationship between migration time and capitalism While temporal reckoning has long fascinated anthropologists few studies have sought to confront how capitalism fetishizes time in the production of global inequalities historically and in the contemporary world As it explores how the agendas of capitalism condition migration in Europe North America and Oceania this collection also examines temporality as a feature of migrants experiences to ultimately provide a theoretically robust and ethnographically informed investigation of migration and temporality within a framework defined by the political economy of capitalism Multicultural Variations

Lance W. Roberts, Barry Ferguson, Mathias Bös, 2013-02-01 Contrary to mid twentieth century predictions ethnic pluralism has increased dramatically in North America and significantly in Europe Neither the post 9 11 emphasis on international border security nor anti immigration and anti multiculturalism movements have affected the fifty year trend of increasing labour mobility and sustained levels of migration The ethnic pluralism accompanying this powerful trend has fueled academic research and public debate Contributors report on and develop a conceptualization of ethnic social incorporation and multiculturalism in Canada the United States Germany Greece Bulgaria and Italy This group of countries displays a remarkable variety of both ethnic diversity and public policy responses to ethnic social incorporation over the past four decades It includes two countries Canada and the United States built upon very large scale immigration over the course of more than a century two countries Greece and Italy which until recently were characterized by large scale emigration but now are grappling with immigration one country Bulgaria that was until the 1990s insulated from extensive migration and faces a demographic slump and one Germany that has experimented with isolating temporary populations but is now addressing the responsibilities of permanent immigration Multicultural Variations includes national reports describing each of the six countries under investigation and is book ended by introductory and concluding chapters that present a new understanding of and synthesis on multiculturalism that is distinct from either enthusiastic support or ideological critiques Contributors include Mathias B s Philipps Universit t Marburg Germany Antonio Chiesi Universit degli Studi di Milano Italy Jason Edgerton University of Manitoba Canada Barry Ferguson University of Manitoba Canada Nikolai Genov Freie Universit

Telfer, North of the Color Line Sarah-Jane Mathieu,2010-11-29 North of the Color Line examines life in Canada for the estimated 5 000 blacks both African Americans and West Indians who immigrated to Canada after the end of Reconstruction in the United States Through the experiences of black railway workers and their union the Order of Sleeping Car Porters Sarah Jane Mathieu connects social political labor immigration and black diaspora history during the Jim Crow era By World War I sleeping car portering had become the exclusive province of black men White railwaymen protested the presence of the black workers and insisted on a segregated workforce Using the firsthand accounts of former sleeping car porters Mathieu shows that porters often found themselves leading racial uplift organizations galvanizing their communities and becoming the bedrock of civil rights activism Examining the spread of segregation laws and practices in Canada whose citizens often imagined themselves as devoid of racism Mathieu historicizes Canadian racial attitudes and explores how black migrants brought their own sensibilities about race to Canada participating in and changing political discourse there The Church, Migration, and Global (In)Difference Darren J. Dias,Jaroslav Z. Skira,Michael S. Attridge,Gerard Mannion,2021-01-21 The painful reality faced by refugees and migrants is one of the greatest moral challenges of our time in turn becoming a focus of significant scholarship This volume examines the global phenomenon of migration in its theological historical and socio political dimensions and of how churches and faith communities have responded to the challenges of such mass human movement The contributions reflect global perspectives with contributions from African Asian European North American and South American scholars and contexts The essays are interdisciplinary at the intersection of religion anthropology history political science gender and post colonial studies The volume brings together a variety of perspectives inter related by ecclesiological and theological concerns Churches and Social Order in Nineteenth- and Twentieth-Century Canada Michael Gauvreau,Ollivier Hubert,2006-08-07 Changing social and cultural strategies pursued by Protestant and Catholic religious institutions have shaped the social order in Quebec and English Canada Through a sustained comparison of Protestantism and Catholicism this volume explores the transition from pre industrial to industrial society and challenges conventional chronologies of religious change

Making Of The Mosaic A History Of Canadian Immigration Policy: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of popular books, exploring the fascinating narratives that have enthralled audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This poignant tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can prevail. Making Of The Mosaic A History Of Canadian Immigration Policy : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This captivating historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, entrancing readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of engaging stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is an exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
