Making Place Making Self Travel Subjectivity And Sexual Difference:

Making Place, Making Self Inger Birkeland, 2017-03-02 Making Place Making Self explores new understandings of place and place making in late modernity covering key themes of place and space tourism and mobility sexual difference and subjectivity Using a series of individual life stories it develops a fascinating polyvocal account of leisure and life journeys These stories focus on journeys made to the North Cape in Norway the most northern point of mainland Europe which is both a tourist destination and an evocation of a reliable and secure point of reference an idea that gives meaning to an individual's life The theoretical core of the book draws on an interweaving of post Lacanian versions of feminist psychoanalytical thinking with phenomenological and existential thinking where place making is linked with self making and homecoming By combining such ground breaking theory with her innovative use of case studies Inger Birkeland here provides a major contribution to the fields of cultural geography tourism and feminist studies

Arctic Modernities Heidi Hansson, Anka Ryall, 2018-01-23 Less tangible than melting polar glaciers or the changing social conditions in northern societies the modern Arctic represented in writings visual images and films has to a large extent been neglected in scholarship and policy making However the modern Arctic is not only a natural environment dramatically impacted by human activities It is also an incongruous amalgamation of exoticized indigenous tradition and a mundane everyday The chapters in this volume examine the modern Arctic from all these perspectives They demonstrate to what extent the processes of modernization have changed the discursive signification of the Arctic They also investigate the extent to which the traditions of heroic Arctic images whether these traditions are affirmed contested or repudiated have continued to shape influence and inform modern discourses Sometimes the Arctic is seen as synonymous with modernity itself Sometimes it appears as a utopian space signalling a different future However it still often represents the continued survival within modernity of the past as nostalgia longing dream and myth

Vital Signs Mary-Jayne Rust, Nick Totton, 2018-03-22 This anthology illustrates the range and diversity of responses from the psychological world to the multiple ecological crises with which our society is faced Vital signs are the basic physiological measures of functioning which health practitioners use to assess how ill a patient is This book focuses not on our physical predicament with so many of the earth s systems severely stressed and beginning to fail but on our psychological predicament As news of this very serious situation slowly penetrates our defences we struggle as individuals and as a society to find an adequate response Place Reinvention Torill Nyseth, Arvid Viken, 2009 Through an interdisciplinary range of case studies from across the Northern rim of Europe this volume shows how place reinvention as a concept affects not only global cities but also marginal regions Divided into three main sections economic symbolic and political the book explores how these all affect and are affected by place reinvention and how these interlink Spatial Politics in the Postcolonial Novel Sara Upstone, 2016-04-01 In her innovative study of spatial locations in postcolonial texts Sara Upstone adopts a transnational and comparative approach that challenges the tendency to engage with authors in isolation or in relation to other writers from a single geographical setting Suggesting that isolating authors in terms of geography reinforces the primacy of the nation Upstone instead illuminates the power of spatial locales such as the journey city home and body to enable personal or communal statements of resistance against colonial prejudice and its neo colonial legacies While focusing on the major texts of Wilson Harris Toni Morrison and Salman Rushdie in relation to particular spatial locations Upstone offers a wide range of examples from other postcolonial authors including Michael Ondaatje Keri Hulme J M Coetzee Arundhati Roy Tsitsi Dangarembga and Abdulrazak Gurnah The result is a strong case for what Upstone terms the postcolonial spatial imagination independent of geography though always fully contextualised Written in accessible and unhurried prose Upstone s study is marked by its respect for the ways in which the writers themselves resist not only geographical boundaries but academic categorisation The Meanings of Landscape Kenneth R. Olwig, 2019-02-12 Compiling nine authoritative essays spanning an extensive academic career author Kenneth R Olwig presents explorations in landscape geography and architecture from an environmental humanities perspective With influences from art literature theatre staging architecture and garden design landscape has come to be viewed as a form of spatial scenery but this reading captures only a narrow representation of landscape meaning today This book positions landscape as a concept shaped through the centuries evolving from place to place to provide nuanced interpretations of landscape meaning The essays are woven together to gather an international approach to understanding the past and present importance of landscape as place and polity as designed space as nature and as an influential factor in the shaping of ideas in a just social and physical environment Aimed at students scholars and researchers in landscape and beyond this illustrated volume traces the idea of landscape from the ancient polis and theatre through to the present day
